Remembering The Laborers That Made It All Possible

While we celebrate Labor Day this month, we thought it would be appropriate to display these photos of some of the men and women who made Heisey glass the quality product it is. See the story on page 11 written by Michael Maher about his great-grandfather who worked at Heisey.

Happy Labor Day!

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

DICK SMITH

The Board of Directors Planning Session was held August 7 and was very successful. The vacancy on the Board created by Walter accepting the curator position was filled. The Board elected a long time member and former Board member, Amy Jo Jones. She will again be an asset to our Board. Welcome, Amy Jo!

Other Topics of Discussion at the Planning Meeting:
2005 Benefit Auction: Dave Spahr will again chair the auction. The date will be announced when available.

Convention 2005: Tri-Chairs will be Bryan Baker, Sharon Orienter, and Jim Clark. The dates for Convention 2005 are June 15-18.

Percy and Vivian Moore Dinner: Dates and location for the 2005 event need to be determined. Would your club like to host this fine event? The dates should be in the late fall. If you are interested, please contact me.

Fund-Raising: I have already received a couple of suggestions on fund-raising. Please keep the suggestions coming! HCA needs your support and thanks to those who sent in suggestions.

Crystalite Book: Palmer Haffner is coordinating the production of the Crystalite Book authored by George McNiel. Hopefully, this book will be available mid-September. Thank you Palmer and George!

Curator: We now have a full time curator! Walter has relocated to Newark and has started full time. Please, welcome Walter to the Staff.

Donation: The Museum has had a tremendous donation of RARE Heisey pieces by Tom & Linda Bischoff. These items will be on display in the New Items Case in the near future.

Make your plans quickly for this year's Percy and Vivian Moore Dinner in Greensboro. I am sure there is still room if you want to go. The registration form and details are on page 14.

The Ohio State Fair Display was a big success thanks to Walter, Karen O'Hare, Ann Johnson, and all the volunteers who helped staff the display and pass out our information.

Don't forget the Lavender Ice Tigers. They will be a limited run, so place your order now and don't be left out! The order form is on page 23. HCA depends on your support!

Last, but not least, a big thanks to all of you who volunteered!

Till next month, ♥

DICK

FROM THE CLUB/MUSEUM DIRECTOR

Bill Douglas

Late Convention Thanks: As luck would have it, we missed some important folks who helped with convention related things. I want to thank Karen Colwell for her photos used in the Newsletter last month. I also missed Mary Jo Kochendorfer and Liz Moats for donations of food to the Hospitality Room. If I missed anyone else, THANK YOU!

Ads in the Newsletter: Perhaps you have noticed the number of ads have been down the last few months? Maybe this is because it's summer, but people have noticed.

We received one letter with a renewal from a member who is very disappointed in not having more ads in the Newsletter. As she put it, "Is it E-bay or some internal problem that is prohibiting sales? Again I say, the only reason I continue to renew my membership is to purchase Heisey. If this is no longer an option for me please void my check."

We try to make it as easy as possible for people to place ads. I'm sure many dealers have felt pressure from E-bay and may use it as an outlet for their glass. The Heisey News is one of the most cost-effective ways to reach people who are interested in Heisey. They look at Heisey News advertisers as reputable sellers.

Remember, you do not have to be a dealer to place an ad or classified. Take a look at the advertising guidelines and rates on page 19. If you have glass you would like to sell, take another look at the Heisey News!

By the way, we cashed the ladies check and we're hoping that you will help us meet her needs!

Attracting School Groups: On Friday, August 13, we were invited to have a display at The Works as part of their Inspired Teacher's Day. A resource fair was held from 3:00 to 6:00 p.m. A table was set up showing our video, Activity Book, items from the Gift Shop, and brochures. We were able to talk to over 40 teachers about using the Museum as a field trip, or having the Museum come to their classroom for a presentation.

2005 Convention: As Dick said, and as published in last month's Newsletter, the dates for the 2005 Convention are June 15-18. We have just received word that the Pontiac Excitement Spring Nationals Drag Race has been moved to May in 2005. This should help us keep our room rates at near 2004 levels. We'll be contacting the hotels and will again make a special note of the hotels that will give special rates to HCA attendees at both the Benefit Auction and Convention. Remember as you travel, HCA has a national discount with Red Roof Inns that is good all over the United States. ♦

CURATOR'S REPORT

Walter Ludwig

Well, the long commute is finally over. On Tuesday, Aug. 17, my furniture arrived from Philadelphia and I moved into my new house on West Church St. here in Newark. My commute has been reduced dramatically as I am now only 1.6 miles from the Museum. My first day as a full-time employee was Wednesday, Aug. 18, and I am enjoying the job thoroughly. I want to thank all those who have expressed warm wishes to me as I embark on this new career.

The exhibit at the Ohio State Fair was a huge success. I want to thank Karen O'Hare and Ann Johnson who stepped in and did the actual set-up at the fair when a spider bite I got while cleaning out my basement in Philly became badly infected sending me to the emergency room here in Newark. I was able to go to the opening day of the fair and it was good to see everyone react to our informative display. I want to thank all those who volunteered to mind the display during the fair. Without you we could not do these kinds of activities. We got many very positive comments and look forward to many of those who saw the exhibit coming to Newark to see the whole story of Heisey glass. Dick and Marilyn Smith did a great job packing up the glass while I was in Philadelphia preparing for my move the next day.

Ann Johnson and Karen O'Hare did a great job installing the display!

Walter with the finished display.

One of the tasks that had not been done without a full time curator is the acknowledgement of gifts of glass for the museum collection in our newsletter. I hope to be able to start catching up with this task in the next Heisey News. We are extremely appreciative of every gift we receive because it helps to complete the history of the A.H. Heisey factory that we try to convey here at the Museum. I do want to mention that we have received a major gift of glass from Tom and Linda Bischoff. These are items that Tom designated before he died should go to the Museum. We all miss Tom greatly and look forward to sharing these pieces that he loved with all of you. Included in the gift are six pieces of Vaseline, two of Trial Blue, one of Black, a cocktail set cut by Emil Krall, and many pieces in Tom's favorite pattern, Winged Scroll.

We will be beginning another long neglected task soon, and that is the cleaning of the interior of the cases and the collection. Much of this work will be done on a Monday when the museum is closed. So, if you have a free Monday, and can get to the Museum we can use every hand we can find for this important task.

As you can see, there is a lot going on here at the Museum, and I really am enjoying it.

AN INTERESTING PIECE OF HEISEY GLASSWARE

FROM THE MUSEUM COLLECTION

Walter Ludwig, Curator

6060 Country Club Ice Bucket

The Country Club line came out in 1950 offering a blown barware line with a more modern feel. The sides of the pieces have a graceful convex curve making them feel natural when using them. Often the pieces come with a heavy sham giving the pieces extra sturdiness. None of the ware is marked with the diamond H, so recognition of the pieces in the line is difficult, unless a known Heisey decoration is on the piece. Lucky is the collector who has a piece of Country Club with 517 Winchester '73 etch on it.

The ice tub is listed in the 1953 catalog, but not pictured. The 1956 catalog does picture the piece. Neila and Tom Bredehoff in their book, Heisey Glass, 1896-1957, shows an ice bucket with an Eva Zeisel designed cutting on page 331.

6060 Country Club Ice Bucket

The ice bucket in the Museum collection has Jungle Flower cutting on it. The bucket is 5 ¾" tall with a 1" sham at the base of the bucket. The bucket measures 6 ¼" across the top and 4 ½" across the bottom. The extra wide sham gives the piece quite a bit of heft weighing just over 2 pounds 11 ounces.

To view the piece in the Museum, see it currently on the main floor in case G1 C23/L. It is in good company in this case with the gold decorated items that were never production items.

This piece would not be easily identifiable as a product of the Heisey factory giving you another opportunity to pick up a desirable piece at a bargain price the next time you are out looking for Heisey at your favorite antique store, show, or flea market. ♥

Help Spread the Word

The NEW FOUR-COLOR Museum Brochures are now available! Thanks to Sharon Orienter for all her hard work on designing this important marketing tool. If your Study Club would like some to put out at Malls, Flea Markets, Glass Shows or any where you feel appropriate let, Bill Douglas at the Museum know and we'll get a supply to you. Bill can be reached at 740.345.2932 or E-mail at director@heiseymuseum.org.

Help us spread the Heisey word.

WHAT IS IT?

Can you give the pattern number, pattern name and item description of this piece that may have been produced between 1896-1910?

Mom's Thumbprint Candlestick "Vases"

Jack Metcalf

The Sahara Thumbprint & Panel #1433 candlesticks are from my mother. The one is shown with flowers because that is the way she used them. Upside down as a vase! Ever since I became interested in Heisey glass, I was so afraid that they would tip over and break. She was generally unconcerned, but apparently I bugged her so much, that she finally gave up and asked for a different pair. Thus, I came into possession of this pair.

HEISEY'S A, B, AND C PRISMS

Joe Lokay

No. 61 One Light Candelabrum with A Prisms, 13 inches tall

In 1915, Candelabrum #61 was offered with either A or C prisms. It was called a Candelabrum rather than a single candlestick because it was composed of multiple parts. No. 61 contained the 9-inch tall base, the No. 6 square candle holder, the No. 51 ferrule, the No. 9 square bobache, and 12 prisms. The ferrule holds the base and candle holder together. The No. 61 Candelabrum pictures with this article were taken from Heisey Catalog #76, circa 1915. Information also came from the Heisey Candlesticks, Candelabra, and Lamps book by Tom Felt and Bob O'Grady.

(Prisms are illustrated at the top of page 8)

No. 61 One Light Candelabrum with C Prisms, 13 inches tall

PRISM A: This was the first and most commonly used prism. Heisey began importing this prism from Europe in about 1901 and used it on many of their Candelabrams. The prism is composed of a faceted button and a faceted spear held together by a wire. Another wire with a small hook at the end was used to attach it to the bobache. This prism was used until the plant closed in 1956.

PRISM B: This prism is the same as Prism A except that the design is fancier. As well as the faceted bottom and faceted spear, there is a row of small punties on six of the eight panels of the spear. This prism was used from 1907 to 1919.

PRISM C: This was the second most commonly used prism. Heisey began importing this prism from Europe in about 1907. Prism C was available in six lengths – 4, 4 ½, 5, 5 ½, 6, and 6 ½ inches. The prism is composed of a squared button and rectangular spear held together and attached by wires. This prism was used until 1941. After the war, it was only used in the 4-inch length.

HEISEY GLASS CUT WITH CORN FLOWER

Walter T. Lemiski, M.A.

The Hughes Corn Flower cut pattern is distinctive with its 12-petaled flower, grid-like interior and elegant sweeping stems. Corn Flower glass was produced for nearly three-quarters of a century. The founder of the W.J. Hughes Corn Flower Company, William John Hughes (1881-1951), was born in Dufferin County, Ontario, Canada. As a young man he was employed by Roden Brothers silversmiths of Toronto around 1900. Fortunately for him and for glass collectors, when that firm expanded their lines to include cut lead glass, Hughes was asked to learn the art of cutting. Hughes family oral history suggests that starting in 1912, he began to experiment at his home with his own original "grey" cut glass patterns (shallower cuts on lighter glass). Existing documentation leads one to believe that Hughes started to cut Corn Flower full time around 1916.

Corn Flower cut Sandwich Plate, 18". From the 1938 Thornley Wrench advertising photographs. Courtesy Dufferin County Museum & Archives.

As of yet there have emerged no examples of Corn Flower cut glassware that can be definitively dated any earlier than 1925. So far, any of the identified glass blanks that were in production early enough to have been cut in the teens by W.J. Hughes were still being produced decades later. For example, Hughes cut Corn Flower on A.H. Heisey's #1184 Yeoman line which was in production from 1913 through to 1957. Dating of any items to within the first ten years of Corn Flower cutting must be purely by conjecture.

One can recognize the earlier items by their fuller cutting, larger flowers and tendency towards a wreathing effect with the leaves surrounding the floral pattern. Many earlier blanks also display "beading" - a series of cuts, like a pie-crust, found at the edges, handles and bases of pieces. On smaller cutting surfaces one might also find a "bud" variant - a round portion with three fringed petals. The added details that lower labor costs allowed and the delightful palette of colors from the mid-1920s through to the 1940s, add a further dimension for Corn Flower lovers.

Flamingo Heisey #1185 Yeoman Celery, 12".

Through the first few decades of Hughes Corn Flower production, the blanks ordered for cutting came primarily from the tri-state area of Pennsylvania, Ohio and West Virginia. These three states were home to all the major American glass producers and accounted for over 90 percent of glass production in North America throughout this period. Essential for the Corn Flower decoration that Hughes cut was fine quality glassware. Hughes looked for quality glassware and for blanks that were uncluttered in design leaving large clear surfaces on which to better showcase his original Corn Flower design. Most of the companies that supplied glass to Hughes were major players in the American glass field including Cambridge, Duncan and Miller, Fostoria, Heisey, Imperial, Indiana, Jeannette, Lancaster, New Martinsville, Paden City, Tiffin, Viking, and West Virginia Specialty glass companies. No Canadian glass companies were producing the quality of glass that Hughes required for his decorating.

W.J. Hughes ordered from a number of Heisey's glass lines including: #1401 Empress, #1184 Yeoman, #1229 Octagon, #1483 Stanhope, and #4044 New Era. He purchased a wide variety of pieces such as: baskets, bonbons, candlesticks, celeries, colognes, flower bowls, relishes and other items. It is believed that Heisey may well have been the first source of glass blanks for W.J. Hughes starting in the mid-teens. We are still seeking definitive information to confirm this hypothesis. The Heisey Glass Company was certainly an important source for the high quality glassware that W.J. Hughes required for production of his much sought after Corn Flower cutting.

The major public holdings of Corn Flower glass and archival materials are found at the Dufferin County Museum and Archives. Presently the DCMA holds approximately 1,000 pieces of Corn Flower cut glassware. The DCMA is home to the annual Corn Flower Festival each June and also publishes the "Corn Flower Chronicle." TRAY OR CENTER PIECE

Use As You Want

Joe Lokay

There are three pieces that I like because they are different than the usual style of trays, large plates, or serving bowls. They are used often when we set up a buffet for a holiday or at any time when it suits. The three items are round and large. The sides around the circumference of the base are perpendicular to the circular base. The three pieces are the #393 Narrow Flute Japanese Garden Tray, the #1469 Ridgeleigh Center Piece, and the #1503 Crystolite Center Piece. See the pictures below.

#393 Narrow Flute Japanese Garden Tray

The Japanese Garden Tray comes in three sizes - 10, 12, and 14 inches in diameter. The side is about 2 inches tall and is flared at the top. It is signed with a large Diamond H. Production of this tray started in about 1915.

#1469 Ridgeleigh Center Piece

The Ridgeleigh Center Piece comes in two sizes - 8 and 11 inches in diameter. The side is about 2 inches tall and is not flared at the top. It is signed with a small Diamond H. Production of this tray started in about 1935.

#1503 Crystolite Center Piece

The Crystolite Center Piece comes in only one size - 11 inches in diameter. The side is about 2 inches tall and is not flared at the top. It is signed with a small Diamond H. Production of this tray started in about 1939. ♥

CONVENTION REFLECTIONS

Rusty Kohler, HCT

You Heisey Folks are really unique, diversified and, oh – so wonderful. From the first time Kay and I ventured to Heiseyland, your warmth and sincerity were evident. We felt welcomed and comfortable ... as if we were at home. As time went by, the years saw us coming back at least twice a year and not just for the glass, but for you!

This past year we were able to assist, again, with the Blind Auction. It was great to work this year with another Texas couple, our dear friends, Marion & Linda Maddox. And, it goes without saying, that working with Frank & Elaine Husted and Palmer & Pam Haffner is an absolute delight. Being a part-time auctioneer, along with Marion, was the most fun I've had in a while. The shoes of Tom Bischoff, Frank Husted and Bob Ryan are mighty big and we hope we did them proud. We've received accolades stemming from that event and our thanks go out to each of you for your kind comments.

Since the convention, I've had two surgeries {one for a total knee replacement} and have been in the hospital for three weeks. This has given me more time on my hands and the opportunity to reflect on my Heisey Friends! I've received numerous emails, phone calls {sometimes in the hospital} and cards. I can't tell you how wonderful it is to be the recipient of your wonderful thoughts ... Thank You!

My mission now, as I'm literally fighting back the tears, is to send you my 'heartfelt thanks and appreciation of all your kind wishes. If I singled out names, I most surely would miss someone and I don't want to do that, so ... Y'all know who you are ... God Bless You All For Being So Wonderful!!! ♥

THE LIFE OF A HEISEY EMPLOYEE...

Michael Maher

The following is the story of my great-grandfather's life and how it intermingled with the Heisey glass industry. My great-grandfather Roy Rector Smith, started working at the A.H. Heisey company in 1919, when he was only 15 years old. After much hard work, he soon became the foreman mould cleaner. He would have to carry moulds from one side of the plant to the other. After seeing many of the original moulds, it really makes me appreciate how hard this must have been, not to mention how hot it was as well! Grandpa must have enjoyed either the work, or the pay because he stayed with Heisey's until they closed sadly in 1957. He had worked for Heisey's for 38 years.

Roy and his wife Nellie lived on Wing Street in Newark Ohio, just footsteps away from the Heisey plant. In fact you could see the Heisey smoke stacks and roofline from their back yard, as the photo shows. Living so close to the Heisey company was an ideal opportunity to work there. Even Roy's sons became Heisey employees! One of those sons being my grandfather. While my grandfather, and soon to be grandmother, were dating as teenagers in the early 1950s, my grandfather would meet my grandmother at the front of the factory gates of the Heisey company, while he was on break.

When the Heisey company closed in December of 1957, Roy lost the only job that he had ever had, but at least he had his many friends and the memories that he had helped to create during his time at the A.H. Heisey glass company in the small little town of Newark, Ohio.

FRENCH COMBINATION VASE

Joe Lokay

The Heisey Company developed a new math in 1913. It was One plus One equals Three. They produced two items from which three items were offered for sale.

The first item was a #351 Rose Bowl. It was in colonial style, had ten panels, and is five inches tall.

There was a short foot at the bottom, and the top edge was cut to insure a flat surface.

#351 Rose Bowl

The second item was a #355 Vase. It also was in colonial style, had only eight panels with arch tops, and is eight inches tall. About four inches from the bottom there is a rim of glass that goes completely around the perimeter.

#335 Vase

A third item was formed by putting the #355 Vase inside the #351 Rose Bowl. Thus, the third item was a composite of the first two items. It was called a French Combination Vase. It is about nine inches tall. Note that the rim of glass around the middle of the vase positions the vase in place against the top of the rose bowl.

CLUB NOTES

Northwest Heisey Collectors
Deborah DeLong

JULY MEETING MINUTES

The rain clouds threatened and even dumped a few times, but it still was a gorgeous day to go to the Chehalis area. The squalls moved through and it was dry enough to go out and look at Liz and Mike's trees that they planted a couple of years ago. Liz has finally sold the piano and found a great cabinet for the living room that she stocked with some of the rarest pieces of Heisey we have ever seen. The Daisy & Leaves vase is neat enough, but the pitcher is sitting next to it! The display makes you drool, of course, so do the homemade rolls that we have come to expect from Liz. Everyone enjoyed the appetizers and conversation before dinner. We had 23 members and one guest, Mary (Jim & Dixie's sister), attended the meeting.

Old Business:

The members who attended convention gave a report on what they saw and did. The Thomases found out that you can get tired of looking at Heisey, but that wouldn't stop them from going back. Jim Cooke's checkbook had many lines in it. The de Jongs found lots of stuff across the country. The group also included Robert Loch who was found at the auction the first day. The group shared several meals and had a good time together.

Bob & Sally did a volunteer shift at the Hospitality Room during the employee luncheon and had lots of fun talking with the former Heisey workers.

They agreed with Jim that the Saturday morning on the Square was a success. The sellers lined three sides of the town square in Newark. Selling began at 7AM and continued until you were too tired to go further.

Bob & Sally attended the Friday banquet and reported that our basket sold for $175. Deborah received an email from the purchasers, the Husted's, that they loved it and had shared it with neighbors and friends.

The Silent Auction had many great pieces, one that I can remember was a Seahorse cocktail in Light Amber. I lost track of the report and you will just have to read about it in the HCA news.

Sunshine:

We send our condolences to Don & Glenna Wehmeyer for the passing of Don's mother on the 4th of July. Don told us of his mother's long life and declared it was a good one.

Library:

We now have the new book on Greek Key in our library. It has been loaned out so you should contact Larry Hefti to get your name on the list.

Show & Tell:

Liz gave us a good program on tumblers, sizes and time periods. She has many examples and showed us some great ones. The show & tell list follows:
#2351 Toddy w/Sportsman etch; #1054 Coronation cocktail, Zircon; #1506 Provincial tumbler, Zircon; #1624 Patio tumbler; #137 Concave Circle candle; #160 Locket on a Chain shaker.

The list is too long to publish. Just know the tables were full and we saw great pieces!

Meeting Adjourned:

We went out to see the trees and the llamas. Mike's old farm machinery looks neat in the garden. We gobbled up all the food. What else could you want from a Northwest Heisey Collectors meeting? Besides great glass, of course. See you at the meetings! ♥

The Heisey Club of California
Norval Heisey

Our meeting was held July 25 at the new home of Peter and Linda's. It was a great meeting and lots of good food and wonderful Greek sausage cooked by Peter.

Peter lead our program and study on Twist pattern #1252. We had a great many items shown (from Peter and Linda's collection) and from our members attending. They were mostly in color. Twist was made in the colors of Crystal, Flamingo, Moongleam, Marigold, Alexandrite (rare) and Sahara. Also there were items with cuttings such as an Ice Tub and a Mint Dish. There were some colors and items missing, such as Alexandrite and the cocktail shaker. We had a very unusual bowl, 8" low footed with the Twist, only near the base, very beautiful.

We had 11 members and 3 guests. Geri won the raffle (I forgot what it was).

Our meeting in Aug will be at Gordon and Norval's and this will be much different than we have ever had. Please read your newsletter. ♥

Northern Illinois Heisey Club

Paula Fabbri-Morrow

Our 3rd quarter meeting was held at Marge & Ray Urbonas' on July 11. Eleven members and three guests were in attendance. A warm welcome is extended to our three newest members: Karin Nelson-Jaros and Janice & Ken Weber!

Old business: The following will remain in office for NI Heisey Club 2004: Palmer Haffner – President; Marge Urbonas – Vice President; Paula Fabbri-Morrow – Secretary; Jeff Morrow – Treasurer.

Current: We discussed Convention 2004 results; new HCA officers and board members; new HCA curator; reviewed HCA's Treasurer's report; reviewed Chairpersons for Convention 2005.

The Flea Market on the Square was a great success! 45 sellers set up despite the threat of rain. The sellers stretched half way around the square and there were plenty of eager buyers. With the success of this year's market, we are anticipating an even larger group of sellers next year!

New business: Discussion of Centerpiece 2005.

The program for this meeting was non-production items to include experimentals and whimsies. There were a variety of pieces: Coventry stem with Impromptu optic; hat vase; ivy vase from a Colonial footed nappy; vase from a Sunflower tumbler;

Empress Sahara mini nasturtium bowl from a mayo bowl; small pitcher from a Peerless schoepen; Yeoman Flamingo star from a crimped saucer.

Our after-Convention meeting always has many new finds. This year was no exception! Cruets; Beaded Swag Opal, Locket on Chain, and Punt & Diamond Point; Windsor cut condiment jar; Kenilworth cocktail; Pineapple & Fan Emerald vases (6, 8, 10 and 12 inches); Fern sandwich plate, and soda with Skier etch; Victorian flare vase; Narrow Flute with Rim Canary gravy underplate; Scalloped Octagon 4" nappy; Old Williamsburg 1pt. jug; Octagon Sahara 2hld nappy; Old Williamsburg Sahara 3-lite candelabra; Flat Panel 2qt crushed fruit; Beaded Swag Opal creamer.

BBQ chicken, a variety of salads and desserts and a delicious Orange-sicle punch (Yes, served in a #300 Peerless punch bowl!) ended the evening in style. The 4 quarter meeting will be held on Sunday, September 19. See you all there! ♥

Northwoods Heisey Club of Minnesota

Ann M. Moll

Our May 8 meeting was held at the Oak Grove Presbyterian Church in Bloomington. Bev and Bob Heise were the hosts, who also reserved this facility, which accommodates our growing need for space. Thirteen members were in attendance: Dick Moris, Larry Jacoway, Bev and Bob Heise, Mollie Campbell, JoAnn and Marv Christenson, Virginia and Odell Johnson, Ann Moll, Kay and Warren Chapman and Robert Vogel. Two guests were also present: Mavis Heise of Crystal and Marguerite Heise of St. Louis Park.

Bev Heise reported the results of providing refreshments at the Upper Midwest Glass and Pottery Show. The efforts of the club volunteers raised a profit of $100, which is designated for HCA. Dick Moris and Larry Jacoway are to be applauded for providing the needed space, gratis to the group. The next Upper Midwest Glass and Pottery Show is slated for October 23 and 24, with club members again manning the concession stand.

After clarifying the rules of bidding, a lively auction ensued, with Kay and Warren Chapman acting as auctioneers. We all had our favorites selected for the bidding, and someone was always pleased with the result. Also, on the agenda was a raffle of a $100 piece of Heisey, donated by Virginia and Odell Johnson. The contents of the wrapped package remain a mystery, as the winner, Eileen Berger, was not present. The result of the raffle, auction and donations, plus the profit made at the antique show, netted nearly $1300, which will be sent to HCA.

As usual, the meeting concluded with our favorite activity of sharing pieces of Heisey. Warren Chapman began with a rare green Flat panel (# 352) humidior, with a top. He was followed by the Johnsons, who brought a 1 oz. cologne bottle (# 485), with a stopper (# 64). Bob Vogel presented a mint or bon-bon dish in the #1010 Decagon pattern. Bev Heise continued with a vase (# 4209) and a Plantation champagne tray with pineapple. Warren Chapman concluded with several pieces of Winged Scroll: a trinket box with three beads, an ash receiver and a green cigarette holder as well as an Opal colored Pineapple and Fan pitcher. This portion of the program was particularly enjoyed by our guests.

The next meeting will be held on September 11, at the same location, with either the Colemans or the Christensons as hosts. ♥

Fine Table Glassware is coming in again. The kind that graced the tables of your great-grandmothers. The same shapes—but daintier—better glass, too—of greater strength—pure and limpid as crystal. Diamond H Glassware is just as serviceable as porcelain, yet shows by its sparkling brilliancy the care and attention given it.

Costs but little more than the ordinary kind

Dainty enough to lend a touch of refinement to the most resplendent board, yet sturdy enough for every day. While Diamond H Glassware is the best that can be made: quality and endurance considered, it is the cheapest you can buy.

Ask your dealer for the kind with the Diamond H trade mark on the underside of every piece.

Manufactured exclusively by A. H. HEISEY & COMPANY, Newark, Ohio, U. S. A.

GLASSWARE

As clear and sparkling as crystal, as practical for every day use as silver. The designs have the simple elegance of Colonial days. It is easily kept in perfect condition and its brilliancy adds to the enjoyment of the banquet or the simple home meal.

HEISEY'S GLASSWARE is a boon to the housewife whose hospitable instincts demand a plentiful supply of everything. It costs only a little more than the ordinary glass. Every household can afford to have a complete service to meet the needs of family and of guests.

On the bottom of each piece of HEISEY'S GLASSWARE will be found the  trade mark. Ask your dealer to show it to you; or send us his name and we will send you free, the art booklet, "Table Glass"—A Handbook for the Hostess.
