MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Bryan Baker

Well, the summer heat (and humidity) has come with a vengeance. My home in Northern Virginia is no exception – it's been hot! My trips to Newark brought hopes of cooler weather; thinking that since it was farther North it would be cooler – nope, it's been hot there, too. I hope all of you have found ways to keep cool during our recent heat wave.

As you are reading this, we are in our final preparations for the Select Auction to be held at the Museum on Saturday, September 9. Over 150 lots of beautiful Heisey glass will be auctioned off at 3:00 p.m. Gary Babcock has graciously volunteered to be our auctioneer. This looks to be another great fundraiser for HCA. I hope to see you there!

Our financial picture has not improved; we still need to generate and increase our operating funds. As I stated last month, we do have some income generating projects that remain in the development stage. We are hopeful to be able to announce these soon! In the meantime, your generous support, volunteerism, and donations are greatly needed (and much appreciated).

We recently had a member purchase and donate NEW Dell PCs for the Museum. Our existing PCs were/are extremely outdated and were crashing all too often. These new PCs will provide smooth and efficient operations in the years ahead. Russ Reopell and I will be spending the first week of September installing these new machines and working with the staff during the conversion.

Speaking of computers, our financial accounting software remains extremely and dangerously outdated. This software is over 15 years old and technical support for it is limited to one individual. I happened to be at the Museum during one of the times the database crashed. We called our only support rep and after some tense moments, we were able to identify and retrieve the corrupt file from a previous backup. To put this in perspective, this software runs the gift shop, inventory, budgets, accounts payable/receivable, and so on. We are looking into existing products to replace our outdated accounting software, and are seeking donations to help cover costs of a new accounting system – for more information please feel free to contact me or Shelly Hoberg. We estimate the costs to be between $2,000 - $2,500.

Another area of concern is maintenance of the King House. At a recent survey done by the Executive Committee, we noticed the exterior of the house is in much need of repair. There is wood rot around window frames & gutters, and areas where the paint is beginning to peel. We are in the process of getting quotes from local contractors for the repairs. Our hopes are that upcoming projects will help offset the costs of these repairs, but we still need your help. Should you or a Study Club wish to help out, we would greatly appreciate it. We are fortunate to have such a beautiful and historic Museum – both inside and out. Performing these repairs sooner rather than later will avoid more costly repairs down the road.

I hope you've made your reservations for the 2006 Percy & Vivian Moore Memorial Weekend and Dinner sponsored by the Great Plains Heisey Club. I'm looking forward to seeing many of you there! Oh, and don't forget about my challenge to the membership; "What a difference just one makes." Enroll a new member to HCA today!

Before closing, I regret to inform you of the passing of Joe Adelstein of New Philadelphia, Ohio. Joe was a long-time member and supporter of HCA. Our sympathies go out to Joe's family and friends.

Until Next Time

Bryan Baker ♦

CURATOR'S REPORT

Walter Ludwig

The summer has passed so quickly. Here in Ohio the kids are already back in school. The nights are becoming cooler and soon a blanket will have to be retrieved from where it was stored back in June. I certainly will regret seeing some of the beautiful weather we had this year go away. But now it is time to think of football and those leaves will soon be filling up my yard. It is the very process of change each year that makes Ohio such a great place to be.

I have just returned from a two day course in grant writing. I would like to say that this will result in the Museum receiving extra funding from outside sources, but among the things I learned in the class are the facts that it takes a lot of effort to land these grants and the chances of success are not high because of the much reduced funding sources and the large number of applications. It takes over two weeks to develop a proper request and less than a third of all applications are successful. If the proper opportunity presents itself, however, we are now in a position to make a run for it.

Next week, Sharon and Frank Orienter will be coming to the Museum to do the photography for the Heisey card decks. Once that is finished we will go into the production phase of producing the cards. The cards will be formatted and then submitted back to us for proofing. We hope by the end of October we will have the card decks ready to sell in our Gift Shop.

I look forward to seeing many of you at the Select Auction which will be held here at the Museum on Saturday, September 9. The preview will begin at 1:00 p.m. and the auction will begin at 3:00. There are many exciting items being offered. If you are not able to make it in person, consider making an absentee bid. Among the items are an unusual vase in 365 Recessed Panel (lot 80), a small penguin decanter (32), a set of decorated salad fork and spoon (27), and a 325 Pillows footed rose bowl (118). There are four 1567 Plantation cocktails with original labels and retail sales stickers (77) as well as a Plantation footed cake stand (76). In 1469 Ridgeleigh items there are a cocktail shaker (40), pint decanter (39), roly poly with rest (41), and a 10" cylinder vase (43). Look over the catalog printed in last month's Heisey News and I am sure you will find at least one item that you will just have to have.

I hope many of you are planning on attending the festivities in Omaha on October 20 and 21. The Great Plains Heisey Club has planned a great weekend of Heisey fun as part of our annual tribute to Percy and Vivian Moore who did so much to get our Museum started.

I am pleased to announce that we have two new books available in our Gift Shop that were written by HCA members. Debbie and Randy Coe have put together The Colors of Heisey Glass which is $35. Donald Oksa has written A Collector's Guide to Orchid Etch which can be purchased for $29.95. ♦

THE COLORS OF HEISEY GLASS

Walter Ludwig

It is always exciting when a new book on Heisey Glass hits the market. The long awaited The Colors of Heisey Glass by Debbie and Randy Coe is no exception. This is a beautiful 189 page book with beautiful color pictures of the glass we all love to collect. Selecting from the several of the best collections on the West Coast they have been able to get an exciting array of Heisey together to photograph for this book. The color reproduction is excellent with the Alexandrite looking every bit as good as all the other colors in the book. They have selected not only the super-rare pieces, but also representative pieces in the colors that Heisey made over the years.

They decided to arrange the production colors alphabetically by the Heisey names for them. I was pleasantly surprised to see an extensive section on Heisey Crystal. Following the production colors there is a section on the experimental colors with each described and, when available, examples are shown. The final section of the book shows examples of Heisey glassware that was decorated outside of the factory by decorating companies. An excellent index is included at the end of the book.

Each color is introduced with a brief description of when it was produced, how it looks, and some information on the chemistry of making the color. Each item in the pictures is identified with the pattern name and number, description of the piece, some information on production dates, and suggested value. Scattered throughout the book are pictures of ads, flyers, and other ephemera related to the factory and its production.

I think we are extremely fortunate to have this new book on Heisey available to us. It is wonderful to see in one book 4224 Ivy vases in Cobalt, Sahara, Tangerine (and this is a real one), and Moongleam with Arctic etch. Thank You, Coes for this fine addition to Heisey literature.

The Colors of Heisey Glass by Debbie & Randy Coe, published by Shiffer Books; 189 pages with index. $35 available from the National Heisey Glass Museum Gift Shop. ♦

867 Chateau Brochure - Back

867 CHATEAU BROCHURE Walter Ludwig

The 867 Chateau cutting was one of the most successful of Heisey cuttings introduced in the 1930s. It is a rock crystal cutting introduced in 1935 and was still being offered in the early 1950s. The stemware used was the 3368 Albemarle line. It was offered as a full line with over 40 pieces of 1509 Queen Ann pieces cut with Chateau to compliment the stemware. Additional barware was also available.

The promotional brochure for 867 Chateau is a single sheet front and back using a blue color for accent. The front gives a nice overhead view of a goblet so one can see the beauty of the cutting from the inside of the goblet as well as on the foot of the piece. A cartoonish depiction of a French country chateau is shown in the upper right corner – looks more like a starter upper than the lavish chateaux we think of now when we hear the word.

The back of the brochure shows four 3368 Albemarle stems (goblet, champagne, claret, and wine), two Albemarle footed sodas (5 oz. juice and 12 oz. ice tea), as well as, the finger bowl (3368) and salad plate (1184 Yeoman). There is also shown a 16" buffet plate (1184 Yeoman).

The text reads, "In formal settings or amidst French Provincial décor, the delicate, dignified beauty of CHATEAU is without equal. Truly regal, this exquisite rock crystal cutting by Heisey offers a complete choice of hand-blown stemware together with basic table accessories."

When sets of 867 Chateau occasionally do become available, you will likely find a lot of it at a time. It would make a lovely gift for a bride. This would be a set to treasure for a lifetime. ♦

944 COURTSHIP BROCHURE Walter Ludwig

The 944 Courtship cutting was another full line that was very successful for Heisey. It was introduced in 1940 and stayed in the line to at least 1952. The 4091 Kimberly stemware line was used for Courtship with many other accessories being available. Courtship was a combination rock crystal and gray cutting with the background including a decorative frame being cut first. The item was then put into an acid bath to bring out the cutting. The flower portion of the design was then cut into the oval frame and left gray. This gave the piece a more interesting look than other regular rock crystal cuttings.

The brochure used to promote 944 Courtship was a single sheet in which purple was used as a decorative accent on the front. On the back a blue color was used along with a combination tone of the blue and purple. The front of the brochure features a goblet in the pattern with a renaissance maiden in her long gown looking admiringly at the goblet. The maiden is carrying a single rose. The back of the pamphlet has a modern bride and groom looking down at a grouping of four stems with the Courtship cutting (goblet, footed ice tea, cocktail, and champagne) as well as an 8" salad plate (1184 Yeoman).

The promotional text reads, " Courtship with its noble bearing is a distinguished Heisey rock crystal pattern you will cherish forever. The dignity of this exquisite crystal will help you set a stately table. For Courtship will dignify a modern décor, or grace a period setting." This is followed with, "Heisey offers a complete selection of stemware and table accessories in the COURTSHIP pattern."

Although 944 Courtship is not as available as some of the other cutting patterns we have presented brochures for in the past, it can be found and makes a beautiful pattern to collect. With the romantic connotation of the name, any future bride would love to own a set of this pattern. ♦

#1051 New York
10 oz. Goblet

1051 NEW YORK GOBLET
Joe Lokay

The 1051 10 ounce stemware was introduced in 1898. It was listed in the Goblet category, and is listed in the price lists and catalogs as New York (making this a factory assigned name). The goblet design has a honeycomb style bowl with a fluted stem. There is a wide clear band around the top of the bowl above the honeycomb design.

Goblet 1051 first appeared in the company price list for 1898. The last price list to offer 1051 New York was #142, circa 1908. Thus, production of New York was for 12 years. The New York name was continually used over the life of the goblet. The beginning of New York was before the Diamond H, so the early pieces are unmarked. I do not think the New York was ever marked because adding the mark involved reworking the mold. Does anyone have a signed one?

Other companies made goblets with a honeycomb bowl. So how do you tell which one is Heisey, assuming there is no Diamond H mark to help? The picture is the closest we have for what it looks like. How the honeycomb ends at the plain band or how the stem is fluted may help for identification. This gives us something to look for. Good Luck.

(Editor's note: When Joe wrote this article he did not have the advantage of looking at the Museum example of the 1051 New York goblet that is displayed in Gallery 1. I will give you some of the dimensions of the goblet. It is 6" tall with the plain band at the top of the bowl measuring 2". There are 4 rows of honeycombs each comprised of 12 six sided hexagons. The fluted stem is composed of 12 panels. The Museum example is not marked.) ♦

1519 WAVERLY TWO PART RELISH

Walter Ludwig

Except for the 1469 Ridgeleigh square 3" ashtray, probably no piece is easier to find than the 1519 Waverly two part relish. This little unmarked piece can be found in almost any antique mall or flea market in the country. Did you ever wonder why this piece is so common?

The ads on the following pages have a lot to do with that. The 1847 Rogers Brothers division of The International Silver Company is singularly responsible for this. Heisey must have offered them quite a deal on these pieces because they bought a huge quantity of them and then repackaged them with two of their pieces (snack server and snack fork) to make an attractive "promotional magnet." The ad on page 8 even mentions that the "Crystal Relish Dish" is made by Heisey. As you can see from the dates of these ads (April and October 1953), this was a rather long campaign and must have been very successful.

Occasionally, you can still find this packaged set for sale never having been opened. It is still a very practical piece so it should not be ignored when you do come across one of these. The Museum does own one of these two part relishes in Zircon, but this is an extremely rare item that, I am afraid, was never marketed by 1847 Rogers Brothers. ♦

Handled Sodas from Catalog 3B, Page 12

CATALOGS 2B AND 3B – TUMBLERS AND SODAS

Walter Ludwig

Recently, I was looking through the Louise Ream Library on the second floor of our administrative building and I came across a binder that contained two catalogs that I had never seen before. The catalogs were Catalog 2B from 1921 and 3B from 1924. Both catalogs contained exclusively blown ware. There are companion price lists for both of these catalogs. Price List 12B is dated 1/1/21 and Price List 13B is dated 1/2/24. I am not aware of the existence of a Catalog 1B which might have been the very first Heisey blown ware catalog. The next blown ware catalog is Catalog 14B from 1928 (Heisey was extremely inconsistent in numbering their catalogs and price lists). This catalog was reprinted many years ago.

This month, I will show sodas, tumblers, and handled ice teas that are pictured in these catalogs. In subsequent months, I will present some of the other interesting items that appear in these catalogs. Many of the pattern numbers do not appear in the Index of Heisey Glassware, so you might want to make some notations in your copy of some of these items.

Being blown ware, the items pictured in these catalogs would, for the most part, not have been marked. Many of the items shown were fairly generic shapes that were common to many different companies at the time, and, therefore, would be very difficult to identify as Heisey today. A few items are found with Heisey decorations, but for the most part they were offered undecorated. Most of these items would have been used by restaurants and liquor establishments (yes, I know it was Prohibition but there still was a demand). The high breakage rates of these items would limit the numbers that would have survived.

Above, I have reproduced part of page 12 of Catalog 3B which shows a variety of handled sodas or ice tea glasses. Shown first is 2402 and 2514 12 oz. handled sodas. Both of these patterns are soda patterns that we will show on another page. Here the soda is converted to a handled ice tea with the addition of an applied handle. The next two items are 3476 Temple handled and footed sodas. The catalog pictures the 8 and 12 ounce sizes with the notation that there is a 10 ounce size also. These are also shown on page 12 of Catalog 2B (reproduced on page 15 of the Newsletter). Only the illustration in Catalog 3B has the notation that these are available without handles. The next one pictured in 3477 (12 ounces) which the Bradley, Ryan, and Ryan Heisey Stemware book identifies as Isaly's; this was also available without a handle. This is a 12 ounce item and was also available without handle. The final two items are 3478 and 3479 Cone Stem sodas. The 3478 line is handled while the 3479 line does not have the handle. Both styles were made with ounce capacities of 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, and 12. The stemware book notes that the 12 ounce size was made in Flamingo and Moongleam and shows that it is marked in the constriction just above the base.

On page 12, you will see page 5 from Catalog 2B illustrating many varieties of tumblers available. Any of the items on this page could be available either plain, wide optic, or special ordered medium optic. In the upper left three different bar glasses: 2052 (2 ½ oz), 2451 (3 or 5 oz), and 2502 (3 ½ oz). The 2451 and 2502 were full soda line which are pictured on other pages. The 10 ounce tumblers for patterns 2451 and 2502 are shown in the upper right. Patterns 2503 through 2511 appear to be very similar tumblers with only slight variation – 2503 (start of second row) and 2504 are 6 oz, 2405 through 2508 are 7 oz, and 2509 (start of third row) through 2511 are 8 oz. 2515 is a 9 oz tumbler with tapered sides. Pattern 2926 is a barrel shaped tumbler that comes in four sizes: 7, 8, 9, and 10 ounces. Starting the fourth row are two 2927 9 ounce tumblers, then two 2928 tumblers in 9 and 10 ounce sizes. The next tumbler is the 2930 Plain and Fancy table tumbler which does come in several Heisey colors as well as with several different factory decorations. The 2931 10 ounce table tumbler is next followed by two 2933 11 ounce tumblers without and with sham. The last tumbler on the page is 3001 9 ounce tumbler medium sham.

I did not show pages 6 through 9 of Catalog 2B because they show lines which the company made for many years, although probably not as extensively as it was made then. Pages 6 and 7 show the 2351 Newton line of sodas in 17 sizes from 4 to 18 ounces. Pages 8 and 9 show the 2401 Oakwood line in 19 sizes from 3 to 21 ounces. There were also three bar glasses in 2401 Oakwood – 1, 1 ½, and 2 ounces. Both lines were available plain, wide optic, and medium optic.

The following four pages from Catalog 2B show various other styles of sodas available. There is a notation that all lines were available wide optic, but medium optic would have to be special ordered. These lines are shown almost identically in Catalog 3B.

Page 13 shows page 10 from Catalog 2B. Four different styles of soda glasses are shown starting with two 2402 sodas in 5 ½ oz and 12 ½ oz sizes. Then 7 sizes of the 2352 soda are shown which was made in 4, 5, 6 (not shown), 7, 8, 9, 10, and 12 ounce sizes. Three sizes of 2451 sodas are shown – these were made in 7, 8 (shown), 10, 11 (shown), 12 (shown), 15, and 18 ounce sizes. The full line of 2452 sodas are shown in the bottom row: 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, and 12 ounces.

Page 14 shows page 11 of Catalog 2B. Shown are five of the six sizes that the 2502 soda came in: 3, 5, 8 (not shown), 10, 12, and 14 ounces. The 2513 soda is then shown in 8 and 12 ounce sizes. The bottom row shows line 2512 available in 8 sizes (4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, and 12 ounces).

Page 15 shows page 12 from Catalog 2B. In the upper right are the 3476 Temple handled sodas. In row two the 2514 sodas are offered in 8 (not shown), 9, 10, and 12 ounce sizes. For the 2515 sodas each of the 4 sizes are given a separate name: 14 ounce Lemonade, 12 ounce Ice Tea, 8 ounce Ginger Ale, and 5 ounce Apollinaris (a search on the Internet found that Apollinaris was the name of a naturally carbonated mineral water found in Germany). The bottom row illustrated the 2852 soda line which came in 7 (not shown), 8, 9, 10, 11, and 12 ounce sizes. The row is finished with the 3051 12 ounce soda, 3052 11 ounce soda (also available in 4 ½ ounce size), and the 3053 14 ounce soda medium sham.

Our last page of sodas from Catalog 2B is shown on page 16, this is page 13 from the catalog. It shows the 8, 10, and 12 ounce 2853 soda followed by the 2854 line of sodas which were offered in 7 (not shown), 8, 9, 10, 11, and 12 ounce sizes. The final line of sodas is the 2855 pattern offered in 10 sizes: 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, and 12 ounces. ♦

HAWTHORNE – SUPPLEMENT 3 TO PRICE LIST 208

Walter Ludwig

Pressed ware Price List 208 is dated 1/1/1924. We have in the Louise Ream Library Supplement 3 to Price List 208. This is an interesting document because it is the only factory catalog or price list to include Hawthorne. Given that Hawthorne was only produced for about a year from 1926 to 1927 we are fortunate to have this. For most of the document, there are four column headings: Crystal, Moongleam, Flamingo, and Hawthorne. Looking at the prices reported, we see that Moongleam was priced slightly higher than Crystal while there is no difference in the price of Flamingo and Hawthorne and they are priced slightly higher than Moongleam.

What are the pieces that the Price List reports were available in Hawthorne? A look at the listing does not produce a lot of surprises, but it is interesting to note. Pattern names have been added to make it easier to identify items. DO means the piece has diamond optic.

6	mayonnaise ladle
10 Oakleaf	coaster
49 Yorkshire	salt and pepper, DO
353 Med Flat Panel	vase, 8"
515 Taper	cologne, ¼ oz, DO
1023	64 Dauber/Stopper cream/sugar/cover, DO (this later became the 1184 Yeoman cream and sugar set)
411 Tudor	plate, 5 ½" bonbon, 2 handled mint, 2 handled cheese, 2 handled jelly, 2 handled preserve, ftd and cover mayonnaise, ftd jelly 5", high footed cream/sugar/cover
413 Tudor	cigarette box and cover
417 Double Rib and Panel	basket

1182 Revere	(all items eventually moved to 1184 Yeoman, all items listed as DO) cream soup/underplate platter 12" plates, 6", 7", 8", 9", 10 ½", 14" vegetable, 9" cereal, 6 ½" grapefruit, 6 ½" cup/saucer
1183 Revere	(all items eventually moved to 1184 Yeoman) cup/saucer after dinner, DO floral bowls, 12", 14", and 20", DO
1185 Yeoman	sandwich, center handled, 10 ½", DO
1186 Yeoman	puff box/cover DO and crystal insert
1225 Ridge and Star	plates, 6", 7", 8 ½"
1228 Swirl	plate, 7" baked apple
1231 Ribbed Octagon	plates, 6", 7", 8", 14" salad bowl, 12 ½"
1233 Pressed Diamond	plate, 7" baked apple, 6" rolled edge cereal, 6"
1229 Octagon	(other colors listed with Diamond Optic not Hawthorne) cheese, 2 handled bonbon, 2 handled jelly, 2 handled mint, 2 handled mayonnaise, ftd sandwich plates, 2 handled, 10", 12" muffin plates, 2 handled, 10", 12" flower block, 5" 10 Gibson Girl floral plateau, DO 11 flower block, 6" 14 Kingfisher flower holder bird 15 Duck flower holder and duck

1202 Paneled Octagon	floral bowl, 11" floral bowl, 11", rolled edge base
1203 Flat Paneled Octagon	floral bowl, 12"
112 Mercury	candlesticks
114 Pluto	candlesticks
116 Oak Leaf	candlesticks, "etched"

Of course, this is not all of the pressed items that were produced in Hawthorne because the company would have added some additional ones after this supplement was produced. The introduction of a new item or pattern would have lead to a decision as to whether it would be made in a particular color or not. For instance, several other candlesticks are known in Hawthorne.

It is interesting that the 353 Medium Flat Panel 8" vase is shown in this price supplement as being made only in Crystal and Hawthorne. The piece was also made in Flamingo but does not appear in this price list. Were Flamingo ones made until the Hawthorne ones were introduced or were the Flamingo ones only produced after Hawthorne was discontinued?

Next month, I will report on the Hawthorne items which appear in Supplement 3 to Price List 13-B. This supplement was produced at the same time as the list we took our items from this month. It shows blown ware items that were produced in Hawthorne. ♦

HEISEY SELECT AUCTION - SEPTEMBER 9

Dave Spahr

Mark your calendar, if you haven't already, and come to your National Heisey Glass Museum in Newark on Saturday, September 9, for the second annual Heisey Select Auction! Come and bring your friends and spend some quality time at the Museum. We have 150 lots of really nice Heisey glass. I predict we will have a great day for the auction! We will have the preview of the glass from 1:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m. with the auction beginning at 3:00. Local auctioneer Gary Babcock has volunteered and agreed to auction off the glass for us. Thanks Gary!

I hope you have saved and have close at hand the August 2006 Newsletter. The Auction Catalog, auction absentee bid form and instructions, and Terms and Conditions of Sale are in it. If you have misplaced it or don't wish to take it apart, all the information is on the Museum web site. Thanks to Russ Reopell and Bryan Baker, our web site has some neat features for this auction. There is an absentee bid form you can "click" to send your bid directly to the Museum safely and securely - no snail mail necessary for credit card users! The on-line catalog is special - you can use the search features to easily locate that special piece of Heisey you are missing.

Some brief auction items. The minimum bid this year on any lot will be $15, and that is for "regular" as well as absentee bids. Absentee bids MUST be received at the Museum by Tuesday, Sept. 5. Past President, Dick Smith, has graciously agreed to handle the absentee bids again. Be sure and read the curator's article. He highlights some of the special pieces of Heisey in the auction. Also FYI, we now have the lots on display in the lower level of the Museum where the auction will be held, so you can stop by and see the glass well in advance.

This second Heisey Select Auction has been supported by several dedicated members who have consigned glass for this auction and who want this auction to be a successful fund-raiser for the Museum. It will be, if YOU do your part and PARTICIPATE and BID! We would like all to come to the Museum, but realize it is quite a distance for most of you. That said, we have an absentee bid form for any and all to use who can't make it to Newark, so you can still bid on some fine Heisey glass and support YOUR Museum.

See you September 9 at the Museum. Happy Heisey Hunting! ♦

PRISM POWER

Georgia G. Otten

In the privacy of your own home, or publicly if you dare, please hum or sing along to the tune of "Over the Rainbow" as you begin this little Heisey story:

*Somewhere under the prisms
Hidden well
There's a treat that the Harners found
And are going to tell.
Somewhere under those prisms
Out of sight
Harners take home their purchase
New prisms their delight!*

It is my pleasure to bring a tale of a super Heisey find! This is written with the full knowledge and permission of Joe and Flo Harner who related this story at our May Dayton AREA Heisey Collectors Club meeting. It is a true story. Nothing will be omitted or embellished. Just the facts as I recall them!

The story begins eight or ten years ago! Flo and Joe were into collecting Heisey and had gone to an auction in either Xenia or Springfield. Their hope was to find some prisms. Earlier in their collecting, they had purchased a pair of Heisey 1509 Queen Anne candelabra and they wanted to change the prisms because those were too big or too long. Hence, the hunt for new prisms. They found a great supply of the right size prisms (see photo) and they won the bid. Prisms were theirs and home they went.

Upon returning home they went into the kitchen or the dining room to put the new prisms on the 1509's. The exchange was made and the big old prisms from the 1509's, along with the candlestick bought at the auction were placed in a box or a plastic container and taken to the garage for a future neighborhood sale.

Some years later, Flo and Joe had occasion to visit the Heisey Museum. And there, without even wishing upon a star, they see a candlestick that (as they recalled) looks exactly like the one in the box (or plastic container) in the garage! They could not get home quickly enough! What if theirs was Heisey? How cool would that be?

Because of super organization, Flo was able to retrieve the candlestick she had earmarked for a garage sale. The sale had not yet materialized. With information acquired at the Museum, they looked over the candlestick and sure enough it was marked HEISEY! And, no chips or dings, or other unsightly blemishes. It was perfect! Are you able to now look through the prisms in the picture and see the candlestick? It is 102 Ballstem! What a find!

Everyone has a story about a super Heisey find and it is great fun to share these with readers. Heisey-hunting is a sport of challenge and a great way to spend a day or a week. One never knows where Heisey will be found! Recalling a commercial on TV that ends with "What's in your wallet?", the Harners, as well as the rest of us will now be looking and asking "What's under your prisms?" ♦

High 'Steaks' Heisey

Tom Files

Columbus, Ohio is a nice city – even though most of us just consider it a suburb of Newark. The Great Plains Heisey Club members from Nebraska quickly point out, however, that Omaha was recently rated by Money Magazine as the seventh best big city in the U.S. – just ahead of Columbus in spot number eight. It could be because Omaha has 1588 restaurants, 53 public golf courses, 43 libraries, and 18 movie theater complexes. Or maybe, Money heard the Club was hosting the Percy and Vivian Moore Memorial Weekend in Omaha on October 20-21, 2006. We are pretty sure that's what enabled Omaha to be ranked one notch ahead of Columbus. Bribing the judges with one of the Omaha steaks we will be serving at the event on Saturday night didn't hurt.

Regardless of the reasons, we invite you to join fellow Heisey friends for a fun October weekend in Omaha. We have packed in several activities to satisfy your Heisey cravings. We'll start out with a social time and a buffet on Friday night at one of Omaha's nicest country clubs, have some fun with a high-tech Heisey game, and we might throw in a raffle or two and a game of chance to give you a shot at winning some nice Heisey and other goodies.

On Saturday, those highly paid Heisey Board members have a Director's meeting scheduled at 9:00 A.M. (Just kidding, we appreciate all the time they spend for no pay working to make HCA a great organization). We hope their meeting doesn't last too long so they can join the rest of us at the home of two of our Great Plains Heisey Club members. They will host an open house from 10:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. to view their extensive Heisey and Red Wing collections. A complimentary brunch will be served from 11:00 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. You can enjoy other attractions in the Omaha area on Saturday afternoon (discover how Omaha achieved that number seven ranking), but be back at the Country Club at 6 p.m. We will socialize for a while and then have one of those famous Omaha steak dinners. Following dinner, we will have an unusual Heisey auction, and dealers have been invited to set up tables to sell you that specific piece of Heisey you were seeking.

The full details of the event are on the www.greatplainsheiseyclub.org and www.heiseymuseum.org websites and the registration form included in this Heisey News. Note the reservation deadline is October 6. While it's fresh in your mind, why not fill out the registration form and mail it today.

We will have you "Swimming in Heisey" by the end of your weekend in one of the best cities in America. ♦

As part of a fund-raising effort, Dr. Husted has agreed to create limericks, like the one below, for HCA members based on the pattern(s) of their choice. A donation to HCA would be appreciated for each limerick created. CLUB NOTES

Heisey Club of California
Bill Brakemeyer

The July 23, 2006, meeting of the Heisey Club of California was called to order by President Bill Brakemeyer at 1:10 PM. Twelve members attended and we welcomed guest, Miriam Hasen.

Barbara and Don Marquis hosted our July meeting overlooking the water inlet, feeling the ocean breeze, watching the lightning and hearing the thunder at their lovely home in Oxnard. Lynn and Richard Borino win kudos for traveling the greatest distance to attend the meeting. Those who made the drive, in spite of the extreme heat affecting the entire nation, shared a tasty lunch and a wonderful program on Alexandrite presented by Gordon Clark with beautiful examples from members' collections.

Show and Tell followed the program with many interesting items including: 1183 Revere half pound candy jar with cutting, 1225 Plain Band toothpick with ruby stain souvenir, 1235 Beaded Panel & Sunburst toothpick, 461 Banded Picket seven inch basket with elaborate rose cutting, 14 Kingfisher flower frog Flamingo, 355 Quator mustard and cover, 1401 Empress DF candlesticks Flamingo, 3404 Spanish goblet with unknown cutting, original label, 4035 Seven Octagon cologne with duck stopper Moongleam, 5058 Goose stem one ounce cordial with original label, 2 mustard spoon, 10 mustard paddle, 354 Wide Flat Panel sixteen ounce lavender jar with enamel decoration, 467 Helmet basket with enamel decoration, 1201 Fandango individual salt, and 3390 Carcassonne 2 ½ ounce bar DO Sahara.

We have interesting educational programs planned for future meetings this year and I encourage you to attend. I also encourage you to visit our website, www.heiseyclubca.org, regularly and view the great work by our webmasters Herb Wanser and Nancine Pike. HCC is so fortunate to have our newsletter, The Pony Express, and website. ♦

Heisey Collectors Club of Michigan
Sue Kilgore

Our August 2006 meeting was held at Marge & Jack Deppong's Houghton Lake home. The weather was perfect and so was the food.

A discussion was held about this year's Convention. Following that we finalized a lot of the details for the antique show at the Marshall Home Tour on September 9 and 10 (we can't believe it is going to be September soon!). All of the club members have been very generous with their time and collection to accomplish this show. We will hopefully give you a great report on the outcome.

We also talked more about our 2008 Percy and Vivian Moore Dinner Weekend adding a lot of new details and getting some committees started.

We held a special auction of a "surprise package" for our treasury.

We have added another meeting to our schedule for this fall and, as always, we are looking forward to our annual Christmas gathering and auction being hosted by Diana & Chuck Rose. ♦
