MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

DICK SMITH

Some exciting things have happened at the museum this month. First HCA received a check from the Miriam Pringle Estate. We were expecting a check, but not quite this size $138,088.08. Miriam wanted to preserve the Museum, and this donation is a great shot in the arm for the endowment fund. Remember the goal set by the endowment committee is two million by 2002. The second exciting thing is that Molly now has a new assistant. Please welcome Gwynne Rukenbrod to the HCA staff (you can find an introduction of her in this newsletter). Gwynne comes with lots of ideas and enthusiasm.

The 1999 Percy & Vivian Moore dinner will be held October 15 & 16 at the Atrium Hotel in Newport Beach, California (hosted by the California Club). This is right across the street from the John Wayne Airport, so start making your plans now. This should be a great time, more details to follow...

Just so there is no confusion about the convention. Events at Miller's Essenplatz are located at the newly remodeled building off of east Main Street (NOT in the North end Newark). They have a large banquet room and are only two miles from downtown.

Everyone should remember that the Diamond H is a registered trademark of HCA. Those who would like to use it need to obtain permission from HCA and use the registration mark, an "R" with a circle around it. If you see someone using the trademark incorrectly please contact HCA.

The Benefit Auction for 1999 is over and was again a huge success. Thank you to all of the members who consigned and bought glass. You made it happen!

The Ruby Geese are expected in this week, and the Tiger Paperweights will hopefully be done by the first week of May. The Tigers must go through three processes which slow down the production of each piece. With Mosser Glass it takes about 90 days from the order date to delivery.

The Board of Directors held a very productive meeting April 9, 1999. We adopted new job descriptions, went over the Y2K upgrade, and worked on the museum disaster plan. The By-Law committee also voted on changing the By-Laws to holding three membership meetings a year instead of four. This change will be printed in full and voted on in June. ♦

'Til Next Month—

MUSEUM HAPPENINGS—CONVENTION ALMOST HERE!

MOLLY FRYE

I know it's almost time for convention because I've been asked several times, "What would you like for the museum collection?" or "What do you need...?" This is the time of year when many of our study clubs present the museum and HCA with generous monetary and glassware donations. Because I'm often asked for donation suggestions, I thought I'd make a little wish list of sorts. In terms of the collection, we are always looking for new items. We currently have 5000+ items on display, with an immense variety, but there's always a need for more.

Since this is a wish list I can get away with asking for the heavyweights—Tangerine, Marigold and experimental items (color, pattern, decoration). It would be nice to have more examples of each, even if you just place them on loan. More cutting and etching examples would be great too. It was recently suggested to me that we add to our collection of toothpicks and "little things" (nuts, salts, etc.). We don't have many museum owned toothpick holders, and it would be great to acquire an example of each pattern.

We also need table settings—just on loan though! The King House dining room table serves as a display for table settings which we change throughout the year. The museum owns several sets, but everyone has seen ours! I know lots of you have gorgeous table settings just waiting to be shown off.

I realize that most monetary donations are generally earmarked for the Endowment Fund or specific museum operations. Have you considered donating to our HCA Glass Studio operating fund? How about the computer fund? Due to Y2K issues we've had to purchase major computer equipment. Donations to help meet these costs are also appreciated.

Are you still with me so far? I hope I didn't scare anyone away with my big wishes—the museum accepts donations of all kinds. If you have any questions please call or email me at heisey@infinet.com. We want our museum to showcase the best that Heisey has to offer, including patterns, colors and decorations. And we hope you'll come see us this summer, we have some great new items in our collection we're showing off. ♦

HEISEY MUSEUM ADDS NEW ASSISTANT CURATOR

GWYNNE RUKENBROD

On April 12, 1999, the National Heisey Glass Museum gained a new employee. My name is Gwynne Rukenbrod (yes that is German-it actually means rye bread or back bread in German), and I am serving you all as the new assistant curator. I am originally from Cleveland, Ohio. I attended Gettysburg College before transferring to Ohio State University in 1991. I graduated from Ohio State in 1994 with a degree in health education and community wellness. I have worked in the HIV/AIDS service field for the past five years, running a state education program for the American Red Cross and my own non-profit organization, Camp Sunrise (a camp for children impacted by HIV/AIDS). I have spent the last five years giving a tremendous amount of my soul to my work. I wanted to continue this, but I also wanted to have a job in which I fed my soul as well, and now I do.

I began my creative artistic background at the wee age of six. My mother entered one of my drawings in a calendar contest. I won an honorable mention and an art scholarship to a local art school. That was the beginning of my addiction. I have taken classes at the Cleveland Institute of Art and Kenyon College. I have studied glassblowing under Dawson Kellogg, head glassblowing instructor at Columbus College of Art and Design, and have designed and constructed exhibits for the Columbus Art Museum.

My responsibilities will include the overseeing of the glassblowing studio at the Institute of Industrial Technology and editor of the Heisey News. Since I am working for all of you, I would really appreciate any input about the newsletter. I will take all suggestions into account as I take over the production of the June newsletter. I would also like to hear from you on what kind of articles you are interested in reading about. Further, if any of you feel the creative bug to write a piece for the newsletter, I will welcome the article with open arms!

Another one of my specialties is grant writing. I have researched the availability of some national grants that the National Heisey Glass Museum is eligible for. But there is no better way to find out about those obscure grants than through networking. So if any of you hear about a grant that you think would be beneficial for the Heisey Collectors of America to apply for, please let me know via telephone, fax, email, etc.

I look forward to serving as your newsletter editor and in many other capacities as well. Thank you for this opportunity and please feel free to call me about any suggestions or concerns you may have. ♦

1999 CANDIDATES FOR THE HCA BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Following is the slate of candidates as presented at the HCA Quarterly Board Meeting April 10, 1999. Due to the Bylaws change voted on at the annual meeting June 19, 1997, the number of directors was reduced from 20 to 16. Starting in 1998 through 2001 and thereafter, only four persons will be elected. Absentee ballots should be requested by June 1, 1999 to insure enough time for the June 18, 1999 election. Send SASE for ballots to: HCA Ballot, 169 W. Church St., Newark, OH 43055. ♦

LINDA BISCHOFF

Linda first became aware of Heisey in the early seventies while dating her husband, Tom. Before long they were both hooked on collecting all of the beautiful animals. For the last several years her Heisey passion has shifted to collecting candlesticks in Sahara, Moongleam and Cobalt.

Although Linda lived in Central Ohio while going to Otterbein College and then teaching in the New Albany, Ohio schools, she calls Texas (Ohio) home. After teaching Linda worked part time as a librarian for the Toledo Lucas County Library and as a bookkeeper for her father in law. She ahs worked in the Sylvania, Ohio income tax office for twenty-one years, becoming the tax commissioner in 1985.

Linda feels her diverse job background will be an asset if she is elected to the board of directors. ♦

HELEN FREEMAN

Helen is a native of Virginia but considers herself a Georgian. A graduate of the University of Georgia and Medical College of Georgia, she is boarded in both Physical Medicine & Rehabilitation and Pediatrics. She keeps working and retiring, working now as an expert medical witness.

A neighbor first showed Helen the Diamond H about 15 years ago; she began collecting seriously several years later when time allowed. Still, she was never able to display the pieces she found. During all this time a move was always looming, thanks to the principle of eminent domain and the local transit authority. She had 42 boxes to unpack and show off after the big move.

Her family is always on the lookout for more goodies. Helen is particularly interested in crystal animals—just one to go—Cristolite, spooners and cruets. Her husband joins in the Heisey hunts and the local and national clubs. She would consider it an honor to serve on the Board of Directors. She would be particularly useful in communications, fund raising activities and recruiting. ♦

CHARLIE WADE

Charlie is a native of Newark and long time member of HCA. He has worn many hats for HCA throughout the years, including board member. He has served as HCA's President, Vice President, Secretary, and most recently Treasurer (1994-1997).

He's been employed with Alltel Communications for 35 years and currently works as their construction manager for Ohio and Kentucky. He is married to Susan and has two grown daughters. His favorite pattern to collect is no. 305 Puntty & Diamond Point.

Charlie would like to help secure the museum's future as we head into the next millennium. ♦

JACK METCALF

Jack is a long time voting member of Heisey Collectors of America, Inc., has formerly served on the Board and as Vice President. He has been a member of the Research and Archives Committees, the Benefit Auction Committee, the Project Committee and the Heisey Convention Committee. He has been the chair and the co-chair of the Heisey Glass show and served briefly on the "Stump the Dummies" panel.

Jack says that he was sort of a general accumulator of Heisey until his study group volunteered to do a candlestick display for a June convention. After buying about a dozen pairs for the display he became hooked, subsequently writing a series of articles for the Heisey News.

Having recently retired from active teaching at COTC on the Newark Campus, a renewed interest in collecting has been kindled. Jack is currently a member of the Buckeye Heisey Collectors Club. He sees the continued support of the endowment fund, and a strengthening of the membership base as two of the important current issues facing HCA. ♦

Tom Taylor

Tom is from Nashville, IN. He has been married to Sonnie forever. He has two children, Jill and Patrick, and a granddaughter, Kailyn. He is retired from farming and Cummins Engine Co. in Columbus, IN.

Tom has been collecting, buying, and selling Heisey for a little over ten years. His main interests are jugs, baskets, colognes, and the color Dawn. He has been active in the Hoosier Heisey Club by giving programs and serving as president. With the Dayton Club, Tom and Sonnie have both helped with the Benefit Auction and Silent Auction during convention week for several years.

Tom and his wife have attended the HCA Convention for the past ten years and have always enjoyed the beautiful glass displays and seeing their many Heisey friends. Tom feels if elected, he will serve to the best of his ability. ♦

GINNY MARSH

Ginny and her husband Dick live in Newark and have been strong supporters of HCA for many years. Ginny is a Founding Member of HCA, member of the Buckeye Heisey Collectors Club, and has served on many different committees over the years. She currently serves on the Board of Directors, and has served as the Secretary for several years.

She is always available when called upon to help the organization. Ginny and her husband collect all kinds of antiques, but of course Heisey is their favorite! ♦

Attention Voting Members:

Don't forget to request your voting ballot from HCA. Send a SASE to 169 W. Church St., Newark, OH 43055.

Be sure to request your ballot by the June 1 deadline to ensure it arrives by the June 18 election.

HEISEY ROSE...POINT?

CARL SPARACIO

My wife says it's dumb things that tickle my fancy, and she's right (though I didn't come back with the obvious comeback and tell her that she tickled my fancy—I may not be bright, but I'm not suicidal). We were doing a show awhile back when a young man we've known through Heisey collecting stopped by our booth to say hello. I appreciated that. Lots of Heisey folks just walk by our booth and make believe they don't see me. This fellow, Ed Sawicki, was with his dad, Ed, Sr., and mom, Mrs. Ed, Sr. They are Heisey people.

Junior (who's quite a big fellow—even for the adult that he is) said, "I brought something I want you to see, Mr. Sparacio." I turned to look behind me to see whom he might be addressing. A kick in the shin from Mrs. S. (my Mrs. S., not theirs) got me back on track. He unwrapped two pieces of Heisey—a colonial cream and sugar ("yawn," I thought to myself).

"They're etched," he said.

"Be still my heart," my mind murmured in the ongoing silent conversation I was having with myself.

"It's Rose Point," he noted, "on signed Heisey glass."

OK, so now he had my attention. I looked expecting to see a poor replica of Cambridge's famous Rose Point etching scratched onto the Heisey cream and sugar. Well, as you know (because you've already peeked at the accompanying photo,) this was not the case. Not only was it Rose Point, but it was gold encrusted Rose Point—something often found in Rose Point. Gold encrusted is a condition that seems to excite Cambridge collectors.

I didn't measure the pieces because my mind was racing, trying to figure out how best to separate this guy from his treasure without being beat up by his father who is bigger than me, but my guess is that the cream and sugar are about 4" high. The first thing I looked at was the Diamond H. I thought it might be a little askew like those on the Heisey repros smuggled into the country now and then in bales of heroin. The Diamond Aitches (what's the plural of H?) were finely chiseled and straight—they could have come right out of the Heisey factory. And the Rose Point looked genuine, too. These were not something created by Ed in his garage.

"Where did you get these," I asked Ed accusingly.

"Off eBay, on the Internet," Ed said.

I wondered what kind of nut would offer something like this on the Internet, and Ed told me it was advertised as a "Gold Etched Heisey Cream and Sugar." Obviously the seller wasn't a Cambridge collector or much of any kind of glass collector for that matter. I'm going to say that a photo wasn't included just so I'll feel better about this—I never asked if there was a picture with the ad.

Anyway, Ed bought this unusual set and has allowed me to share it with you. The most fun we had with this was trying to figure out how it came about. We came up with some outlandish scenarios, but the only idea that has any basis in reality is that they were put together at Imperial Glass while they were still operating. They did have the Heisey molds (note that I spell molds without a "u") and they owned the Rose Point plates. No matter how you imagine it, someone at Imperial had to be pretty resourceful and have access to their facilities—you need more than a decal to put a detailed etching on a piece of glass.

Ed left the set with me as he wandered the show so that I could take its picture. There was a large Rose Point platter on our table that I thought of substituting for the cream and sugar, but I didn't because I feared that he would notice his bag had become unwieldy. Don't ask why I covet it. As I said early on—it's the dumb things I find fascinating. It's an unusual piece and should keep Ed happy for a while. When I see something like this, I always wonder if there are more. It seems like an awful lot of work to go through to make just one set. The person who sold it on eBay most likely bought it at a garage sale.

You know it might have been mine had I kept my eye on eBay instead of spending my time examining porno sites on the Internet for the FBI. I'm sorry I agreed to do that undercover work. Hey, it's a lousy job, but somebody has to do it.

In other almost Heisey news, the New York Times reported that 92 year old Eva Zeisel is enjoying a revival of her 74 year old career with nearly 60 of her designs in production. You may recall that Mrs. Zeisel did some designs for Heisey in the late years and was guest speaker at a recent Heisey convention.

The Metropolitan Museum of Art has reissued her Town & Country dinner set done in pottery for sale in its museum store. Also, on April 16th a place called the "O Group" opened a showroom of her work in Greenwich Village in Manhattan. My impression is that these works are for sale and they include, "vintage designs of dinnerware and glassware." There was no mention of Heisey designs in the short article, and it would be interesting to find out if any of those are available.

The "O Group" can be found at 152 Franklin Street (near Varick Street), and I invite anyone who cares to check it out because I'm not. The last time I drove in Greenwich Village, I wound through the streets for hours with hundreds of other cars looking for a parking space. I've come to the conclusion that the cars that are parked in the village are permanent fixtures firmly cemented in place.

That's it for now—I'm off to search for a Heisey colonial goblet etched with gold encrusted Orchid on Crown Tuscan. ♦

FROM THE ARCHIVES—PATENT ZINGERS!

DON VALDES

I wish I had a copy of the letter which apparently went out of the Heisey Company office on January 31, 1913. It must have been a zinger!

I have just opened a folder labeled, "Colonials - Pat. Infring," containing letters from eighteen glass companies responding to a letter from A. H. Heisey & Co. written on January 31, 1913. Also in the folder is an envelope containing pictures cut from a catalog. The envelope is labeled, "Items claimed by Cassel to be copied by the Cambridge Glass Co." I am not sure of the contents of the letter nor the author, though the evidence indicates it was E. Wilson. At least it seems to have been sent "on his watch." A. H. was in Atlantic City when, on February 6, Clarence wrote the following to him:

Dear Father:-

Mr. Norpell (note: Max Norpell was the Heisey Co. attorney) has just been here. Wilson, George, Mr. Sanford and myself all reviewed the situation. Mr. Norpell is to go over the matter carefully tonight, and give us his idea for procedure. We will get all the data necessary for the claim that he lays out, in fact we will get all the matter necessary at our fingers ends, and then call on the Columbus people.

Mr. Bokee's (note: Bokee was the sales rep from Baltimore) samples arrived this morning, consisting of 4 Oz. Footed Sherbet, 5 In. Nappy, 8 In. Nappy, Jug, Footed Jelly, 4 1/2 In. Plate, like our #1150, and a medium squat marmalade jar like our #341. This was not on Mr. Cassel's (a Pennsylvania Heisey sales rep) list, so I suppose there are quite a few items they are manufacturing similar to our #341 Line.

Things are moving along nicely as usual. Weather is very cold,

Yours,
(signed) Clarence

The contents of the responses from these glass companies are startling, ranging from indignation to cooperation. Aptly, The Co-operative Glass provided the most conciliatory response. But there is also something of a mystery involved, "We wrote you last December when the matter was first brought to our attention as to how we came into possession of molds for certain Glassware which you claimed were an infringement on your design. (Emphasis mine) Included was a letter from C. A. Snow, patent attorneys writing to Co-operative Glass Co on Jan. 29, 1913:

We have made a careful investigation of the subject of the alleged infringement of the design patent of A.J. Sanford, No. 40686, granted May 10, 1910, for Glass Vessel, and assigned to A.H. Heisey & Co., Inc., of Newark, Ohio, by the manufacture and sale by you of certain glass vessels of a type illustrated by the sugar bowl, of which we have received a specimen, and which is also shown in the illustrative or advertising cuts submitted, and we find that there are prior patents and other publications showing all of the obvious salient or distinctive features of the patented design, and we have reached the conclusion that if the said patent is valid, it rests upon a very narrow foundation and is not infringed by your product.

Fostoria's reply was brief and threatening:

We have information to the effect that you are duplicating some of our moulds, and we will make no exception in your case, but shall do as we advertised we would do. This is fair warning.

David Fisher of New Martinsville Glass was irate:

...I am surprised that you would have the NERVE to write us after the contemptible way you treated us on the Molasses Jug deal one year ago.

Various forms of dirty linen accompanied some of the indignation and denial. Canton Glass's long letter included the statement:

We are told by some of our agents...that you have copied some of our ideas, which you no doubt have a right to do from a legal standpoint, but not from a moral one. It seems that you gained entrance to our factory at one time, which we called your attention to by letter, and which you denied, and afterwards you wrote to a number of parties that were working for us offering inducements to work for you...

Halfway through the Fenton letter something of an explanation surfaces:

We certainly think you are right in your contention and we think it would be a fine thing if the manufacturers could come to some agreement whereby they would all make their own designs themselves and there would then be no more trouble of this kind.

And Mr. Blumenauer of the Jefferson Glass Company throws even more light:

We are somewhat puzzled over your letter of the 31st, and have finally concluded that it was a circular letter and probably being address to all glass manufacturers and it is in line with something that we had in mind.

That most of the replies to the Heisey letter were immediate, only one was longer than three days in reply, that was ten, is a good indicator of the touchiness of the situation. It certainly seemed to have turned over a hornet's nest. If further information comes to light I'll keep you posted. Meanwhile, look out for fakes, copies and other non-genuine Heisey. ♦

MEMBERS PLEASE NOTE: PROPOSED BY-LAWS CHANGES

The Board of Directors recommends the following changes to the by-laws of HCA. These proposals will be voted on at the annual meeting, June 18, 1999.

Article I, Section 1: The regular meetings of the organization shall be held at least three (four) times per year at such time and places as the Board of Directors shall designate.

Article III, Section 2 (h): Each member of the Board shall attend 75% of all regular board meetings during any given operational year or the position may be determined vacated by the Board of Directors. For this purpose an operational year shall begin with the first (September) regular board meeting after the annual meeting.

Underlined words indicate they are new. Words in parenthesis are being deleted by the proposal. The purpose is to eliminate one regular meeting of the membership because of poor attendance at the meeting typically held in December. The proposed change deleting a September meeting requirement facilitates and allows for a board meeting and the regular membership meeting to be held other than in September. ♦

NEWS FROM THE SHOP

Attention members! It's almost convention time...have you packed up your odds and ends for the Museum Shop? Again this year we are holding a raffle to encourage glass donations to the shop, the prize being a light green Clydesdale, a 1998 sample made by Mosser for HCA.

The cost of one raffle ticket is a donated piece of genuine Heisey glass valued at $10; two tickets for a $20 value, and up to five tickets for a piece valued at $50. No one piece will be accepted over a $50 value. The glass is then sold in the Museum Shop, with the proceeds benefiting the Endowment Fund. You may donate as many items as you wish. We have been very successful with the raffle in past years, and HCA thanks all of our members for their continued support! ♦

1999 CONVENTION SOUVENIR

CONVENTION UPDATE

AMY JO JONES

SWAP & SILENT (but LIVELY!) AUCTION 1999! Thursday, 6:00 pm

Always one of the more lively and therefore well-attended events of convention has been the swap and silent auction. This year to celebrate our anniversary year, a new format will be introduced which will hopefully make the event even more frenzied fun. The purpose will be the same—to benefit our beautiful National Heisey Glass Museum. Everyone is invited!

Swap & Silent Auction—For one piece of donated glass to the silent auction, valued at $19.99, you can have a table on which 19 items can be shown for sale or swap. These donations will be offered in a silent (but lively!) auction which will start at 7:30 pm. The silent auction will have only one running and will close at 8:00 pm.

Live! Auction—Rumor has it some interesting and desirable pieces will be showing up at the live auction following the swap and silent auction at 8:00 pm. In this live auction you may consign no more than two items. The selling fee will be $19.99 per item. The live auction is limited to only 199.99 items which will be accepted at Apple Tree from 11:00 am to 4:00 pm Thursday only. No absentee bids. The snack bar will be open. ♦

FORMER EMPLOYEE RECEPTION

JUDY RHOADS

One of the happiest discoveries Ken and I ever made at the Heisey convention happened several years ago when we stopped by the Hospitality Room early one afternoon. A group of people chatted animatedly on one side of the room, enjoying the delicious snacks. We soon learned that this was the Former Employees' Reunion; and when the short program ended, we went over and started chatting with them. "Tell us about when you worked at Heisey" is enough of an opening question to elicit a treasure trove of stories.

Over the years, we have heard wonderful and often hilarious stories about the men who worked in the hokey pokey room, one gentleman's experience on his first day of work, wet rags being kept in a punch bowl on the floor beside a work station, the ladies who worked on etchings, and the four men who liked to sing barbershop as they worked third shift while the neighbors kept calling the police on them.

It has been fun—a living link with the Heisey past that we try so hard to learn everything we can about. Each year there are fewer and fewer of these wonderful people as they age and infirmity take their toll. They are the only folks who remain of all those who were responsible for making this beautiful glass we love to collect.

The Former Employees' Reunion will be held at IIT at 1:00 pm Friday, June 18. Former employees have been visiting the HCA Glass Studio at IIT, so the reunion has been moved there. I encourage you to join us in welcoming these wonderful people and in visiting with them to learn of the rich heritage they have to share. ♦

FROM THE HOT SHOP....

GWYNNE RUKENBROD

As I begin to learn all of the “ins and outs” of my new job, I realized that an announcement about the re-opening of the Institute of Industrial Technology (IIT) needed to be made. The second floor of the institute is now open with all new exhibits, and a beautiful new main entryway has been added. Maybe some of you can visit during your free time convention week (ha, ha – free time??). In addition to the new exhibits, new to the glass blowing shop is a piece of equipment called a ‘garage’. A garage is a chamber used to reheat already cooled pieces of glass, thus allowing the creation of goblets and footed pieces. Here is an example of how the garage would be used: A cup that was made before and has been cooled to room temperature can be set in one of the chambers of the garage. These chambers are heated in order to reheat the pieces of cool glass without changing their shape. After the cup is warm, it can be reattached to a punty (pipe) and additional decoration, a stem, or a foot can be added from new hot glass. The garage prevents the pieces from cracking or breaking. Thanks to a local artist, our glass artists can now create beautiful stemmed and footed pieces. ♦

I also would like to remind you of up and coming paperweight making classes:

TWENTY FIVE YEARS AGO THIS MONTH

MOLLY FRYE

Do you remember the Heisey News headlines twenty five years ago this month?

♦ Much to HCA’s dismay, President Louise Ream reported that the museum was nearly completed, however the work was going slowly. “It will, at least, be open for your inspection and we sincerely hope that the dedication can take place in September.” Although it was still over a month away, excitement was already in full swing for the ‘74 convention.

♦ A display was planned, in addition to the show and sale, at the 1974 convention. The glassware was to be displayed by members. This tradition still proves popular today, and attracts many visitors.

♦ Louise kindly thanked Joe Lokay for his creation of the Heisey News index. Joe still does this yearly service for HCA—thanks Joe! ♦

CLUB NOTES

Dayton Area Heisey Collectors

Joyce Dickman

We met on March 16th at 6:30 PM at the Huber Heights Library with 21 members in attendance.

Following a brief business meeting, Bob Ryan presented his 1999 version of his popular "Heisey Benefit Auction Price is Right". Each member was given a list of 40 items he had selected from the 1999 HCA Benefit Auction Catalog. We were to guess what we thought each item would sell for during the auction. Bob will compare the bids guessed with those actually realized at the auction and will reveal the results at our April meeting. Thanks Bob for a fun program and for putting us in "bidding mode" for the auction.

Show and Tell finds we shared were: #1401 Empress Sahara oil; #1401 Empress Sahara ftd. goblet; #1540 Lariat round deviled egg plate and oval deviled egg plate; Swan; Jane Wyman advertisement showing Heisey Swan; #1485 Saturn Zircon 8½" straight vase; #516/2 Hawthorne diamond optic 6" vase with Heisey sticker; #3481 Glenford Hawthorne 1½ oz ftd. bar; #4215 Dorothy Flamingo diamond optic 4½" vase; #414 Tudor Moongleam hotel sugar; and #486 Hexagon stem 4 oz. cologne unknown cutting with #66 stopper. ♦

National Capital Heisey Collectors

John Martinez

Whuuuu, am I exhausted! I don't know how the dealers do it. I watched, there was no smoke, but plenty of mirrors. Seeing a gym become an antique show is truly a magnificent site.

Everyone I talked to said that Summit Hall Farm Park was an excellent facility, and that NCHCC did a magnificent job putting the show together.

I want to thank all of the dealers who made our show a success. Also, thanks to everyone who helped sell tickets, man the membership table, and help set up and break down the show. And a special thanks to George Schamel, the Show Chairman, who anticipated and resolved many of the problems before they happened. For being the first antique show in a new facility, there were only a few minor issues to address for next year. Good work to all!

On a sad note, this was our first show without Jim and Butch Jones. Jim has been transferred to Bethesda Naval Medical center for further treatments, and Butch is making sure he obeys orders. Hopefully they'll be back next year.

Also absent from the show was Knobby Ross, who underwent emergency surgery on his neck. Knobby was still in rehab for the show, but it was reported that he was doing better and was about ready to go home.

On a happier note, it was good to see Mr. Chris, who was recovering from surgery. It was also good to see Orva Heissenbuttel who manned our membership table, Manny Klawans, and Virginia Packett who signed me to the club ten years ago (it seems like only yesterday).

Our next meeting is the first Monday of April so mark your calendars. Don't forget to bring your purchases and stories to share. ♦

Bay State Heisey Club

Susan Pescatore

The March meeting of the Bay State Heisey Club was held on the 9th at the Fallen Church in Lexington, MA. Unfortunately, attendance was lighter than usual, so the absentees missed not only a great "Show and Tell", but also two excellent programs.

Vice President Dave Bergquist conducted an extremely efficient business meeting (clocked at record time), and we then turned to Show and Tell: #381 (Old) Quilt 8" nappy; two #1184 Yeoman bowtie candles, in Flamingo and Moongleam; #101 Simplicity 9" candlestick; #341 Puritan rose bowl; #1404 Old Sandwich ice lip pitcher; the instrument sterilizing jar complete—traditionally assumed to be Heisey, but documentation unclear; #352 Flat Panel sugar sifter; #473 Narrow Flute with Rim basket; #1306 Comet Leaf goblet; and #423 Diamond Band goblet (found all by itself in an upstate New York shop!)

In the first of our two programs, Brad Nutting discussed the #1483 Stanhope pattern. Noting that this was one of the very few true Art Deco patterns produced by Heisey, Brad presented stunning pieces from his and Phyllis' collection in the context of the Art Deco movement, both stylistically and commercially. An extremely interesting look at an exotic and uncommon pattern.

Next, two of our newest members, Richard Bojko and John Mullen, exhibited their extensive collection of Orchid, which they have amassed in a relatively short period of time. Punctuating an informative history and discussion of the Orchid etch was an array of pieces from the Waverly, Queen Ann, and subsidiary patterns, including (but not limited to) the Lily bowl, seahorse footed bowl, seahorse handled candy jar with cover, Yeoman epergne (down boys! This vase is unetched!), a Cascade candlestick, and both the Tyrolean and Graceful cordials. This represented but a sampling of a beautiful collection. ♦

Gulf Coast Heisey Club Virginia Johnson

March 18th the Gulf Coast Heisey Club met at the home of Bob and Marcia Ellis in Sarasota. There were 18 members present and one guest, Lois Ann Salko from Fort Myers. We elected Bob Kreimer to be our President for the next two years and Rose Mensh to be our Secretary/Treasurer also for that period.

The retiring Secretary/Treasurer reported the total amount raised by our Silent Auction in January, along with additional checks coming later, was $1770.00.

A delicious lunch was served by Marcia and Bob, along with the help of Adele Pardee, and a special treat was a decorated birthday cake for Odell Johnson. He missed St. Patrick's day by just one but one could not expect a "Swede" to be born on a day for the Irish!

Show and Tell brought forth the following treasures: a Ridgeleigh Sahara floral bowl; signed Airedale; two puff boxes and hair receiver in Pinwheel and Fan; Verlys Mandarin Wild Ducks bowl in crystal; fern mayo plate with Orchid Etch; small ice tub in Green Key; pair of Ridgeleigh 2-lite candleholders with center boboché; 11" gardenia bowl which had been designed and cut by Pickeral especially for the mother of Tom Rickles, one of our members; small rose bowl in Pillows; and a small bowl in Lodestar.

We adjourned to the nearby club house to view (on a large TV screen) the video from the 1998 Identification Panel June Convention. This was enjoyed and proved very educational.

Our next meeting will be at the home of Bob and Mary Kreimer in Ocala, FL, Thursday, November 18th at 11 am. The telephone number is (352) 873-8306. Visitors are welcome—call for directions. Bob Kreimer will also present the program for that meeting. Please check the Heisey News later in the year if there is a change in the date.

On a personal note – the Johnsons are moving to Bloomington, MN May 1st and will no longer be in FL. It is with sadness that we leave these good Heisey friends. We are interested in starting a Heisey Club in Minneapolis-St. Paul area. Later in the summer we will put a contact address and number in the Heisey News.

Adele Pardee will be writing the article for the Heisey News in the future. ♦

Hoosier Heisey Jean Phillips

Our first meeting of the year was presided over by the new officers for 1999. They are as follows: Sonnie Taylor, President, Don Rabourn, Vice President, Donna Higgins, Treasurer, and Jean Phillips, Secretary.

Don Rabourn's presentation about colonial years was very informative. Some iridescent colors were applied during this time and many moulds were used for more than one item. Some of the colonial items displayed were nut cups, a large covered candy, water glasses, pedestal nut dish, an Irish coffee, Benson and Hedges tobacco jar, and crushed fruit covered compote.

Tom Taylor presented an interesting display of Cobalt items brought in by members. Wampum was the only flower bowl made in this color. Some of the items on display were favor vases, short Warwick candlestick, Carcassone cigarette holder with crystal base, Arch tumbler, crystal Navy glass with Cobalt base, and Queen Anne, Thumbprint, and Panel, and Old Sandwich candlesticks.

A short social hour with tasty refreshments brought by Sonnie Taylor followed the presentations. We are looking forward to our next meeting June 5. ♦
