December 1999

ISSN 0731-8014

Another seasonal scene by designer Horace King graces this month's cover. This one appeared on A. H. Heisey & Co.'s 1948 Christmas card. Inside, Carl Sparacio explores a possible link between Heisey and Holland? Also, Dick Marsh and Thomas Manley provide updates on the Benefit Auction and the Locket on Chain toothpick holder. Be sure to look for the fourth ad for HCA's bridge contest, and send in your bid by Jan. 1. Finally, thanks to all of you who donated glass for the Christmas project!

Happy Holidays!

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

DICK SMITH

The Percy and Vivian Moore Souvenir Dinner was a great success, thanks to Gene Moenning and his committee (The Heisey Collectors of California). They put on a great auction and dinner to benefit the Museum. At the dinner they donated $4000 from the proceeds of their auction to the museum. This was a great fund raiser and we thank the California Club for all of their support.

I believe the biggest highlight of the weekend came at 2:46 AM Saturday morning, Gene had arranged for us out-of-state folks a 7.0 earthquake to shake us up....AND IT DID. What a surprise. Upon returning to Newark, I called Sid Edwards to find out about the Georgia show. Sid reported that it was a huge success and thanked all those who participated. We thank the Georgia club for their support. It sounds like next year's Percy and Vivian Moore Dinner might be in Georgia.

For two weekends in October, Chuck and Amy Jo Jones, Cheri Goldner, Marilyn and I were at the Longaberger Homestead passing out museum flyers and answering questions about the museum. I would like to thank them for their time and help.

Back several years ago when HCA was considering a web page on the internet, Mike and Barb Rosenberger volunteered to set one up. They have spent countless hours setting up, being the web master and answering lots of questions. Mike has turned the page over to the Museum and it will now be controlled at the Museum. This allows for easier and quicker updates (which are taking place now). HCA would like to thank Mike and Barb for all their time, hard work and insight on setting up the web page. If you have any suggestions or recommendations, give Cheri a call.

Glass for the Benefit Auction is coming in and thanks to you the quality looks pretty good. Remember this is a major fund raiser for the Museum. Be sure to send your glass in, your support is needed. Finally, we would like to express our condolences to the family of Dale Sheperd who passed away October 18, 1999.♦

MUSEUM NEWS

CHERI GOLDNER

Happy Holidays from the Heisey staff! We're keeping very busy here as our holiday events near. Remember that the Museum will be holding a Holiday Open House and kids can come make a poinsettia floral arrangement using a piece of original Heisey Saturday, December 4th, and 11th from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. In addition, the Museum will be open on the 11th from 4 to 8 p.m. for "Christmas in the Park," along with our Veterans Park neighbors, the Sherwood-Davidson and Buckingham Houses. If you live nearby or will be visiting the Newark area, it's a great time to come see the Museum. It's also a great time to attract new patrons and members, so bring a friend.

I'd love to have members serve as stationary tour guides and greeters during the open houses. Again, if you're going to be in town, you may want to come over to the Museum and share some of your love of Heisey with our visitors. This will make their visit much more enjoyable than if they just took self-guided tours. If you won't be in town, don't worry, you can still volunteer. Just fill out the form on pages 17 & 18 and send it in. We're happy for whatever support you can give.

The Museum will also be featured in another holiday event—in Landisville, Pennsylvania! I recently took a call from the 1852 Herr Family Homestead in Landisville, in Lancaster County. One of their holiday decorators is using Heisey in his display, and the Homestead wanted to have Museum and HCA brochures available to visitors.

We are in the process of obtaining a few rather interesting non-glass items for our collections. A Newark resident has offered to loan a restored 1932 Chevy truck—just like the ones used by Heisey! While this particular truck was not used by Heisey, it has been restored to look like those that were. In fact, the individual who restored it used the photograph seen on this page as a guide. The truck will be on display in the HCA Glass Studio over at the Institute of Industrial Technology. Be sure to look for it the next time you're in Newark.

In addition to the truck, the Museum will soon be receiving four large mirror-top display tables from the second floor of the administrative house over at the old Heisey factory. The tables have been there ever since the factory closed, but the space is now being renovated for office use. Luckily, they will be replacing windows during the renovations, or we'd have no way to remove the table tops in one piece! These tables are rather large and they need some work, so we won't have any of them on display for a while (maybe during Convention). We are nevertheless excited about adding these pieces of Heisey history to our collection.

That's it for this month—and this year. Best wishes for 2000! ♦

FROM THE HOT SHOP....

JOHANNA BURGESS

Things are going well over at the Hot Shop. We had our first paperweight making class this month, a full class, what a success! The December 11 class is also full. No need to worry though if you were planning to register, you can still catch one of the other classes, or form your own group of 5-7 people and schedule one when you would like. Starting in January, we will be offering the classes on the second Saturday of each month. We will also be offering new flower making classes. Seasons Greetings and Best Wishes! ♦

BENEFIT AUCTION 2000

DICK MARSH

The great thing about being retired, one has all of this free time. All kinds of projects can be taken on and completed lickety-split. Ginny bought a drop leaf nightstand this past May, so far I've managed to find time to strip the varnish...no sanding, just stripped. Having returned to the work force as a substitute school teacher (grades 7 - 12), I have even more time.

Thanks Dick for appointing me chairman of the Benefit Auction. I guess he knew I was past just a little simple. My new job shows I cannot be all that bright grades 7 - 12 know all the answers unless the questions are on a test. Anyway let the fun begin.

This year's benefit will be April seventh and eighth. Once again Sam has donated the use of his fine auction gallery, Apple Tree Auction Center, 1616 West Church St., Newark, OH. We are hoping all of you will be sending your glass as early as possible, January 7th, 2000 is the dead line. Send your consignments and donations to the club office: HCA BENEFIT AUCTION, HEISEY COLLECTORS OF AMERICA, 169 WEST CHURCH ST., NEWARK, OH 43055. Be sure to double box and insure your shipment. Last year, we had several boxes arrive with broken glass due to not being packed correctly.

Once again, the order of sale will be the order in which we receive your shipment. Some items have already been received and the cataloging has started. If the first couple of boxes are an omen of things to come, we should have a great auction. For example: Hawthorne including dinner plates and cream soups along with a lot of other Hawthorne, several pieces of deep plate etching, plus alexandrite and tangerine colors.

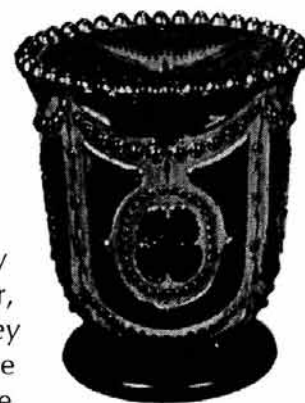

You will find a form that contains the terms and conditions of the sale elsewhere in the newsletter. Please use this form when sending your glass.

This is the largest fundraiser we have each year. Support the Museum, send your donations and consignments in early so we can advertise them to their best advantage. Then come April, "Bid, Bid, Bid" on your chosen items. The museum really does need your help and support. One piece of glass more or less may not make a difference, but collectively we can all make a great auction come to pass. ♦

LOCKET ON CHAIN

THOMAS MANLEY

An extensive study of the toothpick holder, published in the Heisey News June 1997. The article received wide distribution being published in Pony Express, Heisey Club of California, Antique Trader, NTHCS Bulletin March 1997.

Accompanying the article was a request for information concerning the availability of Locket on Chain Toothpick Holder in Collections in North America.

This is to up date status of this pattern as reported Fall 1999.

Crystal 13: 8 mint, 5 chipped; Ruby/Gold 9: 7 mint, 2 chipped; Emerald/Gold 7: 6 mint, 1 chipped; Yellow 2: 1 mint, 1 chipped; making a total of 31. Eleven were reported by Heisey Glass Collectors, NTHCS Toledo Convention 7 in attendance reported having Locket on Chain in their collection. There are no doubt a few that have not been reported. A tabulation will continue as we inventory this rare Heisey pattern. ♦

Once again, we don't have quite as many A's as we do Q's! Please help us out. To submit a question or answer, just call the Museum or send your comments via mail, fax or e-mail to "Heisey Q&A."

Q: I have a small "ribbed" basket about 4 inches square with a nice brass square handle. Where the handle is attached to the basket, there are glass leaves, berries, and what appears to be apples attached. It is a beautiful glass basket and I have been unable to find anything on it in the different Heisey books that I have seen. Can you tell me anything about it?

A: At first glance, we didn't think this item was Heisey since we'd never seen anything like it before. After learning that the piece was marked, the first place we checked was the Ridgeleigh book and, sure enough, there it was—a marmalade without its cover! We still don't know if this piece is a one-of-a-kind whimsy or if a decorating company produced these baskets. Any ideas from our readers?

Q: Why does the #1567 Plantation cake salver have a hollow center?
Don Peterson, Phoenix, AZ

A: We're stumped? Can any Plantation collectors out there help us out? ♦

HEISEY FROM HOLLAND? CARL SPARACIO

We've been extolling the wonders of the Internet of late as a great source for just about anything - you can buy Heisey, you can sell Heisey and you can learn about Heisey on the Internet (you may notice that my definition of "just about anything" is limited). If the Internet has a drawback it's that the amount of information on it is overwhelming. Where does one begin to know where to go? If you're as single-mindedly focused as I am, you just type in the name "Heisey" and go where that leads you.

#4224 Ivy Vase

Typing "Heisey" serves my purpose, but every once in a while I learn there's more on the Internet than placing "Heisey" on a search engine to see where it will take you. This was brought home recently by an e-mail from HCA member Richard Garnett. Richard didn't elaborate, he just said, "Carl...check this information out about Heisey's Tangerine vase." With that cryptic sentence he included this e-mail address: www.glass.co.nz/leerdam.htm. And check it out I did.

This is a glass museum site. I'll have to do a little condensing here or this article will go on until next Tuesday. Leerdam is in The Netherlands, near Rotterdam. I learned it's the name of a place and a glass company that began operating in 1878. It started out as a bottle plant and later extended into the kind of wares that Heisey became noted for. The beginning of its site starts with the name "Leerdam Glass" and has a photo of a vase they call "The Orange Apple." You wouldn't mistake this piece for Heisey, but the color looks suspiciously like Tangerine. The article goes on at great length about the company's glassware and its designers and ends eventually with another photo of yet another piece called, "Orange Apple." What's different is that this one is the spittin' image of Heisey's #4224 Ivy Vase and its color shouts "Tangerine!"

The information supplied next to the vase says, "The vase on the right is Lanooy's design to celebrate Queen Juliana's 18th birthday in 1927, and is entitled 'Orange Apple.'" Obviously this raises a lot of questions and requires further research. I tried briefly to look into it but found myself stranded on pages that were all in Dutch. Since my entire vocabulary in that language consists of, "Hans Brinker," I gave up.

This glass museum site is worth checking into as it has links to other glass sites. Give it a shot and let me know what you think of the "Orange Apple." My attempt to download the picture of Queen Juliana's Orange Apple from the Internet failed.

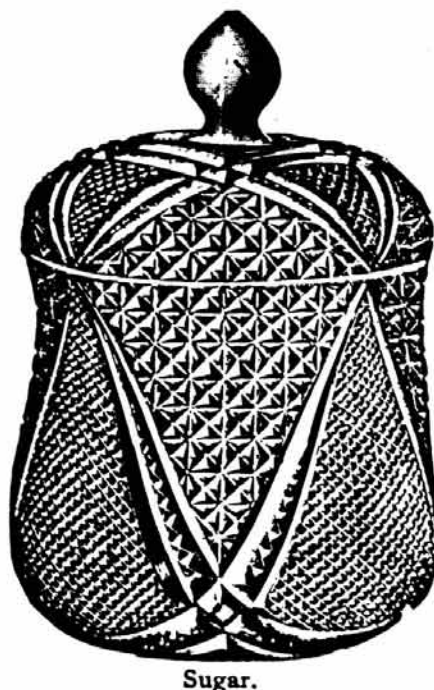

Last month I wrote about the finial on the #1201 Fandango Butter because I have yet to see one that looks like the one pictured in Heisey's catalog. George Schamel (HCA Past President) called me to say that these finials have every indication of being tooled after they were removed from the mold. I don't dispute George because he's in a tie with Walter Ludwig for the title of "Mr. Know-it-all." There's not a question I can ask that either one of these Heisey-men can't answer. And you know what? I'm getting sick of it! (Just kidding guys.)

George mentioned that the cover of the Fandango sugar bowl had the same treatment. I checked mine - it doesn't, it looks close to the finial pictured on the sugar bowl in the catalog. What does this tell us? It says it doesn't matter what form the finial has - it's still Fandango.

Photograph of #1201 Fandango sugar.

Catalog illustration of #1201 Fandango sugar, reprinted in Vogel IV, page 66.

CLUB NOTES

Dayton Area Heisey Collectors

Joyce Dickman

We met October 19th at the Huber Heights Library with twenty-four members in attendance. Programs for the remainder of the year were discussed and those planned include Silhouette Etchings, Vases Part II, Benefit Auction Price is Right, Heisey Jeopardy and Most Prized Piece of Heisey and Ugliest Piece. Plans were discussed for a club Christmas party. Mac and Georgia Otten volunteered to host the party at their home.

Georgia Otten presented a very informative program of "Color Comparison of Heisey and Cambridge Glassware." She presented tips we can all use for comparing colors while searching for that special piece of glassware. Thanks Georgia for a great program.

Show and Tell finds were: 4085 Kohinoor 5 ½ oz. Sherbet w/SO, 120 Overlapping Swirl Moongleam candleholder, 1185 Yeoman handle sandwich w/cutting, 1540 Lariat 8 ½" round relish, 485 Basket w/cutting, 480 Daisy and Leaves basket, 354 Medium Flat Panel stack set w/butter pat, 4045 7" Alexandrite ball vase, 501 Moongleam flower box, 114 Pluto Flamingo candlestick w/cutting, 1567 Plantation low footed 3 ½ oz. Sherbet, 1503 Crystolite cocktail shaker and 462 Plain Hexagon basket w/cutting. ♦

Be sure to send the editor information on your club happenings! Please send items via e-mail whenever possible.

Great Plains Heisey Study Club

The Great Plains Heisey Study Club held an organizational meeting on October 16 in Omaha. Fourteen members attended and more Heisey collectors are interested. Members of this study group came from Nebraska, Iowa, Missouri, and Colorado.

Another organizational meeting will be held on November 20 in Elkhorn, Nebraska with the official start of the club to be in March, 2000. Study group meetings will be held in March, May, July, September, and November and the study club will meet the second Saturday at 3:00 p.m. Watch for additional information next month. If you are interested, contact Mary Cameron, 908 Vermont Cr., Ames, Iowa 50014, or mcameron@ames.net. ♦

Carole Stepinski

The September meeting was held at the home of Sue Wood. Guest Sheila Hollander was introduced and welcomed. We're only too happy to have new members to teach about Heisey's beautiful glassware and share our enthusiasm for its addiction. Old business discussion included the success of the auction given by Heisey members at the spring Depression Glass Club meeting which netted $895.50 for the Endowment Fund. Everyone came out a winner! Many lovely items were shown from the summer's profitable scoutings: Fancy Loop toothpick, Queen Ann oval compote, yellow Cambridge bowl, Ipswich water goblets and a gorgeous covered butter (Fancy Loop?). Our Queen of Fabulous Findings, Sue showed us some very interesting specimens of Majolica:

a Mallard water pitcher and a pitcher or bouquet holder in the shape of a fish. Her phenomenal finds are surpassed only by their bargain prices! Marv Jacob presented some background on the topic pitchers and jugs by Heisey: Over 165 different pitchers and jugs were made by Heisey; over 350 if you included the various sizes; and over 540 including various colors. The cost of all available crystal jugs and pitchers in today's market would be $30,000. Heisey began advertising in 1911 and many of their ads contained jugs, tankards, and pitchers. Tankards have straight sides, and the term is used interchangeably with jugs. The book "Heisey on Parade" by Sandra Stout is a good resource for advertising and is available through HCA. Some examples of jugs displayed were: #393 Narrow Flute 1/2gal. tankard; #4054 Coronation qt. jug; Greek Key 1/2gal with gold trim; #411 Tudor 2pt.; #3480 Koors pitcher in flamingo (blown from mold); #341-1/2 Puritan Squat; and #150 Pointed Oval & Diamond Pt. in Emerald. The next meeting will be held October 24 at the home of Marv and Lois Jacob with a topic of salt and peppers.♦

Bay State Heisey Collectors Club
Susan Pescatore

The October meeting of the Bay State Heisey Club took place on the 12th of October at the Follen Church in Lexington, Mass. President Doug Wynne conducted a productive and efficient meeting, and we turned immediately to an unusually interesting edition of "Show and Tell." An 18" Plaid vase in emerald, a #350 whimsy basket with twisted handle made from an 8" nappy, (8) #300 Peerless shots, a #1205 Fancy Loop 8" plate, mint (very scarce), a #465 Recessed Panel 1/2 lb. Candy, #1255 salt shakers, #1224 Hexagon Six 10" salad bowl, cut (both uncommon), a pair of #2 candlesticks, 9" (always beautiful), and a 1930s bridge score pad printed for Heisey and used in the original bridge contest ad campaign, as a giveaway, in bar ware there was a pair of Circus etched #2401 tumblers, a #150 Banded Flute root beer mug, and a Carcassone juice with the rare Inca etch.

Interesting non-Heisey finds, a Duncan & Miller hobnail ivy vase in pink opalescent, plus a Morgantown Golf Vall ivy vase in cobalt, a spectacular Duncan "Rocket" floral bowl, black with silver overlay, a Cambridge Tally-Ho cup and saucer in royal blue and a Two Kids flower frog with an oval base.

Our program this month was similar to Show & Tell, but even more exciting—members were invited to bring their "five favorite pieces." For each member I will describe one of their choices: George Gleason - a rabbit paperweight, George Fogg - A Duncan & Sons novelty umbrella matchholder (to hang on a gas fixture) in canary, Jean and Maurice Walter - a Greek Key cracker jar, Andrea Daley - a Greek key footed jelly, Doug and Judy Wynne - a 16 piece Prince of Wales punch set (last month the Wynnes brought the very rare footed rose bowl), David Steer - a Zodiac 2 light candlestick, Russ and Harriet Decatur - the Ridgeleigh 3 sided vase, Rich Bojko and John Mullen - the Waverly Orchid candy with seahorse handles, Steve Pescatore - the 2 oz Pillows cruet and yours truly - the Sweet Ad-O-Line banquet goblet.♦

Our October experiment on the new program format was a roaring success. Club members loaded two six foot tables full of Heisey Crystalite. What a display! Our November program will be on Heisey Stems so, bring 'em if you got 'em.

Plans for the All Heisey Show are going along fine and this year promises to be even better. Contracts have have been mailed to the dealers, and everyone is working on their assignments.

I recently told two different people, the wrong amount for club membership. It is actually $5.00 for single, $7.00 for family or partnership using the same address. Please forgive me! Please send all dues to: PO Box 23, Clinton, MD 20735.

Thanks to Butch and Mrs. Chris for setting up our Christmas Dinner Party. It is always a fun evening and food is great. I hope you decide to attend, and please RSVP. ♦

RESULTS OF OCTOBER'S BRIDGE CONTEST

Our second round of bridge hands was much more difficult, with only one individual submitting correct answers. And October's winner is...Carloyn Felger. Congratulations Carolyn! And once gain, thanks to all of you who have been submitting bids. Keep them coming!

The following explanation comes from the judge of our contest. If you have any questions or comments, please contact the Museum and we will pass them along. ♦

I find this set of bridge hands very interesting. I would love to know what Mr. Work was thinking, but since we cannot find his answers to the problems, I shall try my best to find answers. I would welcome your comments if you disagree with my bids. There are a variety of ways to look at these hands.

7. 1 CLUB was the unanimous answer to this hand, and I agree.

8. 2 DIAMONDS OR 2 CLUBS (weak twos). Even though your long suit is rather weak, game is all but assured in your hand alone.

9. This hand is tough. Although you do not have the points for an opening two, I would open this hand 2 HEARTS OR 2 CLUBS (weak twos). The distribution justifies a strong bid. Two diamonds is not a correct bid because with two suits of equal length, you want to bid the higher first to keep the rebid of the other suit at a lower level.

10. Another quandary. I would again lean towards 2 SPADES OR 2 CLUBS (weak twos) because of the distribution. You do not want partner to pass this hand. I would not open 4 spades in first position. In third position with a passed partner, I would open 4 spades.

11. I would like to talk to Mr. Work about this hand. It is exactly the same as hand 10 but in different suits. He had a reason, but I don't know what he is trying to convey. I would open it 2 HEARTS OR 2 CLUBS (weak twos) just like 10. However, I also accepted 1 HEART – he may have said to open this due to the lower value of the suit.

12. Although you have the same amount of points in this hand as in hand 9, I would open this hand 1 SPADE. Your second suit (hearts) is not as strong or as long as in hand 9. ♦

HCA'S HEISEY BRIDGE CONTEST CONTINUES!

This issue features the fourth of five (not six, as was stated in previous issues) ads in Heisey's 1927 bridge series, and another chance to win in HCA's contest! Just take a look at the hands shown in the ad on the next page and submit your bids to us by January 1, 2000. Our judge is using today's standard American conventions.

Each correct bid answer will be placed in a monthly drawing to win a neat Heisey prize! At the end of the contest, anyone who has answered ANY of the bridge ads with correct bids will be placed in our Grand Drawing for an original piece of Heisey glass! All prizes will be shipped at the end of the contest.

Only one entry per person per month, please. Bid answers are due at the Museum by the first of the following month. Mail, fax or e-mail your bids to "Heisey Bridge Contest."

Thanks to all of you who have entered! We hope you're all having as much fun as we are with this. If you have any questions or comments, just give us a call. ♦

This is the fourth set of six hands in a series of Bridge bidding problems by Milton C. Work.

In each of these hands, South (the dealer) has already bid one spade. West, the second player, has passed. You, as North, are asked to decide how you would bid each of the hands shown below, your partner having opened with one spade. Send in your bids before November 1st. All those who bid these hands correctly will receive valuable prizes. Send bids to Bridge Contest Dept., A. H. Heisey & Co., Newark, Ohio.
