

PHOTOGRAPHY AND VIDEOGRAPHY POLICY

Purpose: To provide guidance to Museum visitors and staff regarding the taking of photographs and videos at the Museum.

Policy:

Photos and Videos by Visitors:

- Visitors to the National Heisey Glass Museum are welcome to use their phones, tablets, and handheld cameras to take photographs and videos for personal, noncommercial use.
- Visitors are encouraged to share their photos and videos with friends and family and on social media.
- Visitors may take photos and videos throughout the Museum, unless otherwise noted for specific displays or exhibits.
- When shooting photos and videos, please be considerate of other visitors, so that everyone can enjoy their Heisey Museum experience.
- Flash photography and other external lighting equipment, selfie sticks, drones, tripods, monopods, and other bulky photography and video equipment are not allowed.
- Visitors' photos and videos may not be sold, published, or used to promote any outside product or business.

Photos and Videos for Student Projects:

- Student projects are welcome.
- Arrangements must be made in advance by contacting the Curator/Director at (740) 345-2932, ext. 4, or curator@heiseymuseum.org.

Media Coverage:

- Photographs and videos for the purpose of news coverage are permitted.
- Arrangements must be made in advance by contacting the Curator/Director at (740) 345-2932, ext. 4, or curator@heiseymuseum.org.

Nonprofit Organizations:

- Photographs and videos by nonprofit organizations are permitted for the purpose of promoting interest in Heisey glass and the Museum.
- Arrangements must be made in advance by contacting the Curator/Director at (740) 345-2932, ext. 4, or curator@heiseymuseum.org.

This policy replaces the “Photography Policy for the National Heisey Glass Museum” approved September 20, 2014.

Adopted October 13, 2021
