In Golden Autumn Time

The gently whispering leaves of autumn are resplendent in their gorgeous golds and purples and reds. In this subtle background of the fall months the Quail hunter's joy mounts to its highest peak of the whole year.

And for the hostess, a season made memorable by happy guests, beautiful tables, the infinite charm of fine glassware.

Especially so if the glassware is Heisey's. For have you ever seen more fascinating creations? Exquisite patterns, graceful designs, alluring tints! Goblets, sherbets, plates and pieces for every purpose — delightful and brilliant!

Heisey's Glassware is readily recognized by its quality, but the  trade mark assures you beyond doubt. Be sure to look for it when you shop. And ask your dealer to show you the rich Flamingo and Moon Gleam colors now so much in vogue.

HEISEY'S
GLASSWARE  for your Table

An Old Southern Recipe for Quail

When Bacon, a distinguished looking old darkey, presided over the supper of the Peabody Hotel at Memphis, it was famed for smothered quail on toast. Later, I have seen this public serving of quail, but this recipe survives in the possession of a charming Southern hostess.

Keep birds cool and dry several days. Dress without setting. Split down the back. Wipe with dry cloth. Heat deep iron skillet and grease with garlic oil. Have enough water to keep birds from sticking. Put in bay leaf, lump of butter, pinch of salt and cayenne black pepper. Put slice of bacon on each bird and place breast downward in skillet. Cover and weight down. Cook 12 to 15 minutes, replenishing water to hold flavor. Soak in chopped mushrooms. Serve on platter with buttered toast. Pour mushroom gravy over birds. Serve extra gravy, apple jelly, pieces of "crackin'" bread and black coffee.

About the cover: This advertisement was the last in a series of five Heisey ads which featured recipes from famous inns and hotels. It appeared in the magazine House Beautiful in November of 1926. This particular ad includes a recipe for preparing quail. Also featured in the ad is Heisey's #3362 Charter Oak stemware. (Heisey on Parade by Sandra Stout, page 238)

See page 5 of this issue, for another interesting Heisey advertisement. It appeared in the Journal of Crockery and Glass in 1945. The message speaks of those traditional things, like Heisey. It suggests that traditional things will remain in the year 1995.

May we extend our best wishes to you and yours on this Thanksgiving Day.

From the President

Dick Smith

I would like to introduce and welcome our new Curator, Kathy McCracken. Kathy has a museum background and comes highly recommended. When you are in the museum, please introduce yourself to her and get acquainted.

Susan Pennington has been promoted to Assistant Curator and Editor of the Heisey News. I believe together, Kathy and Susan will do an excellent job for HCA. Don't forget, they will also need your help. It is a team effort that makes HCA what it is today.

You have asked for it and now it will be available: On January 1, 1992, and starting with the February issue of the newsletter, you will be able to get your newsletter by First Class mail. There will be a $1.00 per issue extra charge or $13.00 per year (Auction list- 13th issue) to cover the cost of providing this service. THIS IS OPTIONAL. You do not have to receive your newsletter by First Class mail if you are satisfied with your present newsletter delivery. See details in Board Notes on Page 4.

The Expansion Committee has come up with a great new idea - build in two stages! Stage One would be to build the rear half of the building which was proposed in June. This could be done for considerably less money and would provide the much needed additional space. Stage Two would be done at a later date. Your ideas, input and support are always needed and appreciated.

The December Holiday Dinner will be held Saturday December 7, 1991, at Apple Tree Auction Center. Catering will be by Campolo's. There will be a small auction of Extra Special items. There will be a benefit auction at the Holiday Dinner for the General Fund. There will be no mail bids, so if you are unable to attend have someone who will be attending the dinner bid for you. The items are: Sparrow, Verde Green (1)
9" Ball vase, Ultra Blue Frosted (1)
Clydesdale, Verde Green (1)
Waverly Seahorse footed floral bowl, Amber (1)
Pig, Amber (1)
Cygnets, Black (1)
Old Williamsburg 1 quart pitcher, Verde Green (1)
Flying Mare, Amber (1)

Don't forget the March Benefit Auction. This is a major fund raiser for HCA. Send your glass in now. The deadline will be January 1, 1992. Jim Clark is chairman for this event again this year.

The museum gift shop is always in need of donations. Heisey pieces valued at under $50.00 are gladly accepted. These items are offered for sale to visitors. This project has become a successful fundraiser. With the holiday season rapidly approaching, your donations would be especially appreciated.

Don't forget to check the Gift Gallery on pages 12-14, for your holiday shopping needs. Due to space limitations, the book list will appear next month.

Happy Thanksgiving Day

From the Curator

Kathy McCracken

My name is Katherine McCracken (please call me Kathy) and I am very happy to have assumed the position of Curator at the National Heisey Glass Museum. As I write this report, I have been at work for almost two weeks going through files, catching up on correspondence and accessioning, and getting to know more about HCA. It promises to be an interesting and busy job and I look forward to meeting and working with all of you.

My husband, Gordon Morrell, is a professor of British and Russian/Soviet history at Denison University. We moved to Granville one year ago from East Lansing, MI where Gordon completed his Ph.D. Both of us are from southern Ontario, Canada and we are getting to know central Ohio.

My background is in historic sites, museums, and historic preservation. I have an honors B.A. in history from the University of Western Ontario and a M.A. in public history from the University of Waterloo. I have worked at outdoor historic sites in Alberta and Ontario, Canada and was the director at the R.E. Olds Museum in Lansing, MI. Prior to moving to Ohio, I was employed as the Preservation Planner at the Michigan State Historic Preservation Office. I know that my work experience at all of these places will be a valuable asset to my work at the National Heisey Glass Museum.

With Susan Pennington taking on the responsibility of editing the Heisey News, I will have time to work on some long-term development at the Museum. While HCA has made remarkable progress, there is clearly more to do in terms of public outreach and interpretive and educational programming. I am excited about this prospect and look forward to the challenges ahead. I hope that I can make some important contributions to the Museum and to the organization.

Postal Alternative

For some time, HCA has encouraged members who experience an undue delay in receiving their newsletters to contact their local post office or postmaster to file a complaint form. Additionally, HCA made an attempt to alleviate the problem by putting "Dated Material" on each issue mailed. These measures for some were helpful, but for others were not. Therefore, the Board of Directors has authorized another alternative for those members who continue to have a problem and desire to receive their Heisey News in the most timely manner possible. That alternative, effective with the February issue, will be the opportunity to have your newsletter mailed to you in an envelope marked and stamped for a First Class mailing. This procedure will incur a cost of $13.00 in addition to your yearly dues. ($1.00 per issue, the 13th issue being the Benefit Auction List.) The fee is based on First Class postage, envelopes, and special handling. It will not be possible to have single issue mailing.

Since the effective date begins with the February issue, you will need to pro rate the $13.00 to your membership renewal date. Check your membership card or the address label to determine how many issues remain until your renewal date from January 1, plus the Auction issue. Send that amount by January 1 to receive a First Class mailing of the February issue. Your next membership renewal notification will then reflect your dues, plus $13.00 for First Class mailing of the newsletter. Contact the membership secretary at the HCA business office, if you wish to make arrangements for this First Class mailing of your newsletter.

Membership Report

At the September Board meeting, the membership report showed 3,373 associate members and 521 voting members for a total of 3,894 members. It is noteworthy that the voting members represent only about 13% of the total membership. HCA is a large organization which operates a fine museum and faces issues which need the input of its voting members. If you are not a voting member, please consider contacting HCA about adding your name to the voting membership roster.

Diamond H Trademark

Concern was expressed by the Board on the unauthorized use of the Diamond H trademark. Since January 31, 1984, the Diamond H has been registered by the United States Patent and Trademark Office for the exclusive use of Heisey Collectors of America. In order to use the trademark in any way, requires review of proposed use and written authorization by HCA. For information, contact HCA, or submit a written proposal to the President or Secretary of HCA.

Souvenir Dinner Renamed

With great pleasure, the Board unanimously approved renaming the Souvenir Dinner the Percy Moore Memorial Dinner. This was done to honor a man who not only was a great benefactor to the club, but gave a lot of spirit to the club in its early days and on through the years.

From the beginning, he derived great joy from attending the Souvenir Dinners under the tent. His enthusiasm was infectious; his generosity legendary. In renaming the tent dinner in his honor, HCA pays tribute to a man whose contributions to HCA will never be forgotten.

The Expansion Committee Report

Sam Schnaidt, Committee Chairman

Our committee has been very active and we have been meeting frequently since June. Several out-of-state and out-of-town members have made the effort to attend meetings. I appreciate this and feel this is reflective of the importance of this committee. At one meeting we agreed to recommend to the Board to proceed and engage the Bill Heim Company to assist in a feasibility study. Bill Heim advised that we needed to determine costs of the project first and also raise about $1,000,000.00 before they started. After getting estimates on construction from three separate sources and figuring other necessary costs, we came up with figures that exceed $1,280,471.00. These figures made us reconsider.

The Committee felt that the above mentioned figure would probably be unobtainable and questioned whether it would be advisable to spend this much money at this location. We felt our next step would be to explore possible alternatives.

After discussing the proposed alternatives, the Committee is pursuing to reduce the size and scope of the project and is considering building to the rear of the present office for additional library and archival use.

Contractor Bill Kelley and his son Tom met with the Committee on October 1st, and listened to what we had in mind. They are to meet with us again on October 16th and give us an estimated cost of the scaled down project. We hope to present a proposal at the December quarterly meeting.

Notes on "America Discovers Heisey"

Mary McWilliams

Fourteen members of the Convention Committee for 1992 met during the September quarterly meeting. Several changes were suggested. These concerned show hours, set-up time, display hours, preview time, and prices. All of these issues will be addressed by Bob McClain at a later date. Members and Clubs, please think of ideas for "Discover the Beauty", the display title. We are counting on you.

Motel Reservations

Bob McClain

For many years I was in charge of arranging motel reservations for convention. Due to the fact that in recent years people have been making their own reservations, I will no longer be providing this service to members. It became confusing for everyone involved. A complete list of the area motels will appear in upcoming issues of the Heisey News.

How about Thanksgiving . . . 1995?

Do you think that any Thanksgiving—ever—will hold the bright but somewhat frightening promise abiding in this war-end Thanksgiving of 1945?

Time will tell us that, but one thing time won't change: there will be a Thanksgiving in every year to come, for America is a land of long-lived traditions.

And in observing our Thanksgiving heritage in 1995, America will go about it in the old familiar way—with white meat for Grandma, a leg for Johnnie and giblet gravy for both—with polished silver, spotless linens, and the lustrous gleam of lucent crystal. Heisey crystal—for that has long been tradition, too.

In Memoriam

From the Newark Advocate

Services for Frank S. "Buzzie" Friel, 78, of Newark, will be in the Chapel of Criss Brothers Funeral Home. Full military services will be at the graveside in Newark Memorial Gardens. Mr. Friel died Sunday morning in Licking Memorial Hospital. He was born July 25, 1913, in Newark to the late Hugh W. and Carrie E. (Lott) Friel.

He retired in 1971, after 30 years of service as a night supervisor for the Newark Post Office; was a member of St. Paul's Lutheran Church; American Legion Post 85 and the Buckeye Heisey Club. He also was a World War II U.S. Navy veteran.

Surviving are his wife, Leota Friel; one son, Hugh R. Friel of Thornville; one daughter, Mrs. Jess (Linda) Kinser of Newark; one sister, Mrs. Thelma Hawthorne of Newark, five grandchildren and six great grandchildren.

From George Fallows, Jr. - President of Virginia Heisey Club

The Virginia Heisey Club has recently been saddened by the death of Ernest A. Clark (pictured left), a long time member and former President of the club. Ernie, as he was known by all of us, passed away, September 17, 1991, while jogging at Myrtle Beach, S.C. Both he and his wife, Dot are avid collectors of Heisey and most recently have been adding to their collection of favor vases.

At our last regular monthly meeting, Ernie gave a slide program of shots he had taken at the recent convention. All members present thoroughly enjoyed the presentation and Ernie's great talent at taking pictures of glass.

We are sure that all members of HCA, as well as those of the Virginia Club, will miss his many contributions to the club. He had a real zest for life as well as being a master at anything he attempted. Ernie was my friend. I will miss the many discussions on the the way to Heisey meetings. C.D. Prentice says more than I can ever say. "People who have warm friends are healthier and happier than those who have none. A single real friend is a treasure worth more than gold or precious stones. Money can buy many things good and evil. All the worth in the world could not buy you a friend or pay you for the loss of one."

We extend our sincerest sympathy to Dot and her family.

In Memoriam

From David Curley

Recently I received a letter from Shirley Gilden, mother of David Gilden, informing me of the death of her son. David passed away on March 24, 1991, after a long illness. Mrs. Gilden had hoped that David would be able to attend the convention last June, but it was not to be. He was one of HCA newer members and he really loved Heisey. Mrs. Gilden plans to continue adding to his collection. We wish to send our sympathy to the Gilden family.

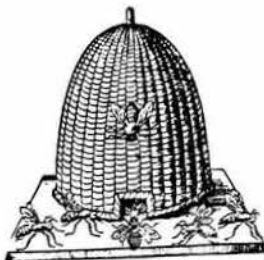

From the Newark Advocate

Services for Mildred E. Stevens will be at 2 p.m. Sunday in the Newark chapel of Henderson, VanAtta and Johnston Funeral Home, with the Rev. Chester Sidle officiating. Burial will be in Smith Chapel Cemetery.

Mrs. Stevens died Sept. 27, 1991, at her sister's home in Newark. She was born July 1, 1926 in Muskingum County, to the late Merle and Effie C. (Burrier) Stotts.

She had been employed by the Heisey Company.

Club Notes

#5 Bay State Heisey Club Susan Pescatore, President

The first meeting of the season of the Bay State Heisey Club was held on Tuesday, September 10, 1991, at the Sir Speedy Printing Center in Woburn, MA. Almost the entire membership was present and President Stephen Pescatore presided over the meeting.

After internal club business was disposed of, discussion turned to recent developments at HCA in Ohio, particularly with reference to the proposal for a new addition. A motion was passed authorizing the President to write a letter to the Board expressing the concerns of our club, regarding the status of the museum expansion project.

After the business portion of the meeting was concluded, there was the customary "lunch break". The Two sisters, Janet Etscovitz and Barbara Strauss provided the food. The September program at the Bay State Heisey Club is traditionally "Bring and Brag", which is simply a colossal, king-size Show and Tell from the entire summer. Because of space limitations, I am unable to mention everything that was found, but our members demonstrated that there is still Heisey out there. A number of small souvenir pieces in Cut Block, a Custard Winged Scroll puff box; a Fancy Loop creamer in Emerald and Crystal celery dip; a Punt & Diamond Point hotel creamer; a Cut Block footed jelly; a pair of silver overlay Lariat fan vases; the Twist 8" low-footed bowl with stepped base, cut; various stems, in particular a Plymouth cocktail with the Barcelona cut; a #435 tumbler (Vogel, Book IV, page 164); a #473 Narrow Flute with Rim Nabisco tray (quite an obscure piece); a #5 Patrician candlestick. In Moongleam: the #354 syrup; an Oak Leaf coaster; an 8" Eagle plate; and a Wabash goblet with polychrome enamel decoration. In Sahara: a Trident candlestick and a Yeoman D/O cruet. In Marigold: The #1210 6" relish (The Collectors Encyclopedia of Heisey Glass, Bredehoft, p. 386). In Cobalt: A 16 oz #1404 Old Sandwich beer mug, Wow. Other items of interest were a #315 Panelled Cane cruet, a Crystolite mustard, with paddle and a 14" torte plate with fraternity letters cut into the center; a #331 Straw jar bottom, which stimulated a lengthy discussion about the two different covers apparently used on this piece; a pair of marked Heisey towel bars and a pair of shoe display holders; a fabulous #352 cigar jar; and a hard-to-find Urn goblet.

Already suffering from sensory overload, we were then presented with a Pillows cracker jar and cruet, the Monte Cristo cordial with Olympiad etch, a Waverly chocolate box, Orchid etch, and a 10" #4198 vase in Orchid!

#7 The Dayton Area Heisey Club R. Clarke West

The first meeting of the '91-'92 season was held September 17, 1991 at 6:30 p.m., in the meeting room of the Huber Heights Public Library, with twenty members in attendance. Summer finds were, of course, our big topic.

We had an enjoyable picnic at the home of Jim and Helen Kennon in August. In fact, it was so enjoyable that we have decided to have the same type of function for our Christmas get together. No watermelon, of course. Mack and Georgia Otten offered to hold the Christmas Dinner in their home. The center piece on our Christmas dinner table will be one of the summer finds, an Old Williamsburg #300 5-lite candle holder. Other finds this summer: Seven goblets in the Double Rib & Panel were found in an Antique Store at a price of $1.00 each, a Waverly 9-1/2" vase, a #1428 Warwick 9" vase in Cobalt and eight Ridgeleigh salt dips, in the original box with the price tag for $2.00 still on the box. It had been originally purchased at the Elder Department Store. Elder merged with Beerman a number of years ago and is now known as Elder-Beerman.

The program was presented by Charlene Bowman. The topic was open salts.

Carl and Charlene Bowman volunteered to be program chairman for the coming year. The suggestion was made that a member pick a topic and share all the information they have on the subject.

The October meeting will be presented by Carl and Charlene Bowman. The topic will be nuts and salt dips. We adjourned to the Ponderosa restaurant for dessert.

#13 Heisey Club of California From the Pony Express Penny Thorup, President

Homer and Ann Paulson, with co-hostess Ruth Thompson, hosted the August 25th regular meeting. Everyone always enjoys viewing Homer's incredible "Heisey Cruet Collection". The brief business meeting was followed by the "Cake Salver" program presented by Leo Bevon. The highlight of the cake salver display was the #433 Greek Key wedding cake plate, Flamingo and pedestal stand shared by Norval and Gorden.

We welcomed our newest members. Beverly Souders won the raffle prize drawing, a divided Fern relish. Homer Paulson reported our treasury balance as of August 25th, is a healthy $815.12.

Now that summer vacations are nearly over, I hope to see everyone at the September 22, regular meeting at Roy, Martha, and Olga Boggs', in Riverside. The program will be presented by Roy Boggs. The topic will be Heisey cologne bottles. Remember to bring a cologne to share and Show and Tell treasures.

#33 Golden Gate Heisey Club

From the September issue of the Golden Gater
Russ Nicholas, Editor

The next GGHCC meeting will be October 12, 1991. We will be meeting at the home of Russ Nicholas and Lee Jones. The meeting will start around 5 p.m., with dinner following. Early arrival is fine. Be sure to RSVP, to their city number. The meeting was scheduled to fall on the same weekend as the Peddlers' Fair at the Santa Rosa fairgrounds. So why not make a weekend of it by attending the show, browsing through the many shops in Santa Rosa/Petaluma area, and attending the meeting? Since we had no August meeting, those great finds for sharing should be piling up!

#42 Gulf Coast Heisey Club

Adele H. Pardee

The next regular meeting of the Gulf Coast Heisey Club will be held Thursday, November 21, at the home of John and Adele Pardee, in Sarasota, FL. All Heisey Collectors are welcome. Please call (813) 922-3174 for directions.

#44 The National Capital Heisey Collectors Club

From the October issue of the Heisey Herald
Chris Maskalaris, President

At the last meeting a majority of those present indicated a preference for the second Monday of the month for our club meetings. When I make our reservation for the next year, I will try to obtain those dates. Also at the meeting it was voted upon and approved that our newsletter would be a little different in the future. Instead of including the material researched for the program in the "current" issue, it will be printed in the newsletter for the month following the program. In this way, the material will be fresh for those attending and at the same time the program information will be available for those who cannot attend.

The next regular meeting will be Wednesday, October 9, 1991 at 7:00 p.m., at the Oxon Hill Library, in Oxon Hill, MD. The program will be Heisey's Sunburst by Betty Heflin. Please bring examples. Also, bring Whatzits and finds/fakes.

The Christmas party this year will be at the library. It was suggested that we needed a change of pace. Everyone should bring finger food to take the place of our dinner. We will have our white elephant gift exchange

Dear Heisey News

Q Dear Heisey News,

What is the best way to clean and care for Marigold items to keep them from crazing? Someone told me to wash off the piece with soap and water and remove the oily feel. Someone else said don't. That oily feel will keep it from crazing. Is there a right or wrong?

Q Dear Heisey News,

I recently picked up a pair of Heisey #5 candlesticks in the 9" size. They are not marked on the neck. However, they are signed on the base with an acid-etched signature of Hobbs-Brockunier & Co. in italics.

Have you seen or heard of this before?

R.S

A Dear R.S.

My guess is that they are Heisey and that the Hobbs Brockunier signature is a forgery.. I have never come across any indication that Hobbs Brockunier ever used a signature. It is unlikely that Heisey would have been granted a patent, unchallenged for a design which had already been made in glassware. That style of candlestick would not have been typical of the glass made during the Hobbs - Brockunier period.

Janet Caswell

I was thumbing through a few articles on the Yachting Center, and I came across an old menu from the year 1909 - thought my friends would enjoy seeing the prices. A complete fish dinner - $1.00, a bowl of clam chowder - 15 cents, fried clams - 20 cents, lobster - 50 cents, french fries - 10 cents, apple pie and ice cream - 10 cents. Today a good fish dinner would be around $12.00!

I saw a Heisey salesmans' catalog order form, dated 1943. It listed #1503 Crystolite: 10 oz goblet - $9.00, 3-1/2 oz claret - $9.00, 2 qt. ice lip jug - $21.00, 10 oz pressed tumbler - $3.60, 2 light candlesticks (no prisms) - $36.00, mustard and cover - $6.00, 3 oz oil bottle - $10.80, #1540 powder box - $18.00, square ashtray - $5.40, and lily vase, cupped - $18.00. The above prices refer to price per dozen. Today you couldn't purchase one of these items for any of the prices listed above.

Forever Heisey dropped me a line to brag about the following items: the #1231 Ribbed Octagon rum pot in Flamingo, never seen before in this color.¹ This water jug, usually called a rum pot by collectors, is the most desirable piece in the pattern and was made circa 1933-1937. The #1469 Ridgeleigh, pair of bobeches in Trial Blue, never seen or known to have been made. Previously, #1469 star relish had been seen in Experimental Blue.

The Steadfast Colleague has been on a business trip, pleasure also, but before he went I was told about a couple of interesting finds: #1519 Waverly cream, #170 Cut Block plate (2) one flat & one rolled edge, #1503 Crystolite cigarette box with cover, along with the #1503 floral bowl, #1540 Lariat cup and saucer (2 sets) and the #300 four light candelabra, definitely a keeper.

The Gator Guy and Gal did a wee bit of shopping while in Minnesota. Found were a pair of #1533 Wampum candlesticks, these were found the second time around the shop, along with a Flamingo #1184 Yeoman compote. It appears to be made from a 6 oz champagne that had the bowl partially flattened; it has the same stem as the Yeoman champagne. It measures 3 7/8" tall and has a diameter of 5" across the top of the compote, the bowl has a depth of 1-1/8" with a hint of a rim. Unusual, maybe a teeny bit rare!! There were two, and they left the other one for someone else to discover.

The Farmer is taking the winter off; just sitting by the fire warming his toes. That gets rather boring and he jumps into his truck and heads for the "fleas" etc. to scout out some Heisey. There was (1) #1205 Fancy Loop 9" square nappy, (9) #433 Greek Key 8" plates, a #1401 Empress 11" Dolphin footed floral bowl in Alexandrite, (1) #1401 Empress 14" oval platter in Moongleam, a #1415 20th Century 9 oz footed tumbler in Dawn, (1) #1404 Old Sandwich individual ashtray in Cobalt, (6) #1425 Victorian 5 oz juices, (1) #351 Priscilla 7" sweet pea vase, and (6) #136 colonial 7 oz tumblers. This is terrific, Mr. Farmer, now how about another list for Yours Truly, it is time. The Kansas Yankees found nine each of stemware, goblets, iced teas, sherbets, champagnes and wines, in the Old Dominion, diamond optic in Sahara. The Foxy Kitten reports a pair of #305 Puntzy and Diamond Point colognes, with sterling tops.

Yours Truly has a #100 Centennial 6" candlestick, etched, #109 Petticoat Dolphin candlesticks - two pair, one in Crystal the other in Flamingo, #1231 Ribbed Octagon after dinner cup and saucer, Flamingo and the #360 hotel creamer.²

Again I ask for your input. I need your letters to keep me writing throughout the long cold winter.

Remember what Jeffery A. Timmons once said: "Always do what you say you are going to do, it is the glue and fiber that binds successful relationships"

Happy Hunting from the Yachting Center.

HEISEY IN THE TRADE JOURNALS

No. 429 Plain Panel Recessed

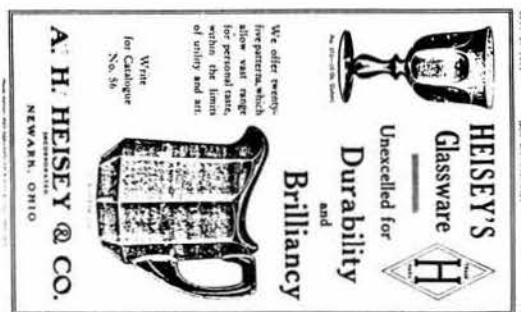

by Tom Felt

Sometime around 1910, Heisey added yet another to their already varied selection of colonial lines. No. 429, known to collectors today as Plain Panel Recessed, is distinguished from the other by its wide panels and by the angular "recess" which appears at the base of each of the pieces. It was a small line, with less than three dozen different items offered, and yet boasted a total of five design patents.

The first of these, filed March 10, 1910 and approved May 10, 1910 as D40,686 was for the hotel cream (figure 1). Catalog pictures show this piece with a cover. It's likely the pattern was introduced at about this time, but as was often the case, during this period, it wasn't advertised until late the following year, when the 1/2 gallon jug was featured in Iron Age-Hardware (figure 2). This was the largest of four sizes of jugs available in the line. (Note that this ad mentions that Heisey was offering twenty-five patterns--all but one of which were colonial in style!)

Another patent was filed for on October 10, 1912. It was approved January 7, 1913 as D 43,437 and was for the crushed fruit. This piece was made in both one and two quart sizes-- the latter can be seen in figure 3, which appeared in the Confectioners Journal in March 1913. As with all of the other pieces in this pattern, the designer was Andrew J. Sanford, the man who was responsible for the majority of the early designs made by Heisey (including, I suspect, many for which he was not credited).

Three more patents were approved in 1913 : D43,703 (filed May 6, 1912 and approved March 11, 1913) for the tumbler (figure 4); D43,853 (filed February 3, 1913 and approved April 15, 1913) for the cruet; and D43,781 (filed January 11, 1913 and approved April 1, 1913) for the No. 28 salt shaker (figure 5). (The latter may not have officially been part of the No. 429 pattern, which did include another style of salt, but it clearly matches the remainder of the line and has generally been accepted as part of it.) In his article on the #429 pattern in the March 1977 Heisey News, Joe Lokay mentions that Hazel Atlas and one other company made salts very similar to this one and warns that the Diamond H should always appear on the side of this shape of salt shaker.

A few of these pieces can be found advertised in popular magazines in 1912 and 1913. Country Life in America included an advertisement in December 1912 with the tumbler featured. In the September 1913 issue of House Beautiful and in the October number that year of both the Ladies Home Journal and the Woman's Home Companion there was a full page ad which included the egg glass amongst pieces from several other patterns. Finally, in December the two latter magazines once again included advertisements, this time devoted to the #429 pattern, with the oil, 3 pint jug and 8 inch nappy pictured.

In addition to the pieces already mentioned, the 1913 catalog also offered four other sizes of nappy, three oval nappies, three sizes of celery tray, a goblet, an ice tea, an individual salt, a finger bowl, a custard cup and a low footed sherbet. At some point after this catalog was issued and before the 1915 addendum came out, a punch bowl and base was also added to the line, with either the sherbets or custard cups doubling as punch cups. Although apparently the last piece created, the punch bowl seems to have had the longest life, since it is the only item in pattern #429 still being offered in 1928, the remainder of the line having been discontinued probably early in the 1920's.

There are no molds still in existence for this pattern and it was never reissued by Imperial.

More Stem Stuff - #423 Diamond Band by Carl Sparacio

Diamond Band is somewhat of a mystery pattern - there is so little known about it. The goblet has been a subject of controversy but we'll deal with that after we pin down what we've been able to piece together about #423 Diamond Band.

I can say without fear of contradiction that Diamond Band is a rare pattern. How about that for raw courage? Over the years I've found a set of nappies as well as the cover for a sugar bowl. I did see a coverless sugar bowl in less than pristine condition at a show but it was priced ridiculously high for what it was, chipped, sans cover and without a creamer. My cover remains bottomless. I had a punch cup at one time and I saw an egg cup a couple of times. I've also seen the jug and the goblet at the museum. There you have the sum total of my Diamond Band encounters in more than twenty years of Heisey hunting. Embarrassing, isn't it?

Diamond Band is a pleasing pattern and the glass (we experts usually say "metal" but I'm talking down to you now) is bright and clear. In the February 1979 issue of the Heisey News this pattern is noted briefly and twenty items are listed. It mentions that "Diamond Band is not an original name...." this may be so, but I've not heard it before so it sounds original to me. If they had called it "Candlewick", then I'd agree that it lacked originality.

Later, in the Heisey News of March 1981, Tom Bredehoft did a bit on #423 diamond Band in his column on tumblers. In his research he dug up a circa 1910 price list which listed 26 items and then yet another copy of the same price list (No. 155) which listed only the punch cup. Isn't that weird? No reflection on Tom, of course.

Vogel's books contribute little more than conjecture, but he also mentions a copy of the No. 155 price list. His copy listed five items, one of which was a footed ale which I'd like to see.

So, what have we learned so far? We've learned that Heisey collectors might want to try for a complete set of No. 155 price lists.

Since this is a stem article, we'll skip on to the goblet, a piece that has presented a problem of sorts. I know of only one genuine Diamond Band goblet and that one is in the National Heisey Glass Museum, sometimes affectionately known by its nick name, "The Heisey Museum." You would think that a goblet in this pattern would be simple to identify, but there are problems. A few other "Diamond Band" goblets, all guaranteed to have come out of THE Heisey home, are making the rounds at rather stiff prices and, near as I can tell, they are pretenders to the throne.

"Egads!" and "Gadzooks!" you exclaim, "How can this be? A Heisey pattern out of THE Heisey home and not genuine Heisey?" Alas, my friends, it's true and you are indeed fortunate to have an expert to set you straight. A usually reliable source has reported a look-alike Diamond Band goblet identical to those reputedly out of the Heisey home and it was signed "Val St. Lambert", the fine French glass concern, though I've not seen one signed. There are obvious differences between the Diamond Band goblet in the museum and those believed to be French.

Somebody copied from somebody. A lot of that goes on in the glass business. We will not cast aspersions but we do know who's glasses were found in whose house, don't we.

I wrote to Val St. Lambert but have not received a response. I would have called France but my French is limited to "Ou est la salle de bain", which I learned at the World's Fair up in Quebec in the sixties. Not much sense calling to ask the location of a bathroom, I can't afford to visit.

For all their apparent similarity, the goblet in the museum which is 100% pressed and has a large Diamond H under its foot, is quite different from those said to be out of the Heisey home. The latter are unsigned and all of the design elements are cut. The glass, too, is more brilliant than Heisey's and the "diamonds" are a bit smaller as are the flutes. Nor do the number of flutes match. I counted 15 on the signed Heisey goblet and only 14 on brand X.

The drawings included here are not precise. They were sketched by a very shaky hand but they do show size and design differences. If I could draw fuzzy they would look better. There can be no doubt that these goblets did not come out of the same mold. The bowl on the one that may be Val St. Lambert is not as deep and consequently the goblet appears shorter though both goblets are actually the same height.

The good news is I did get a Diamond Band goblet for my collection. It was bought at a June HCA Convention show. The bad news is that mine is unsigned, it is cut, it has a star bottom, small "diamonds", 14 short flutes on a short bowl, and was very expensive.

I wish I had known an expert.

March Benefit Auction
Apple Tree Auction Center
Newark, OH
March 13 & 14, 1992

It's that time again to prepare for the 1992 HCA Benefit Auction! This is the largest fund raiser held for HCA. Proceeds from this auction will go to the General Fund. With your continued support, the 1992 auction will be a huge success.

We're really looking forward to this event. Start thinking about what you want to consign and don't forget to make your reservations for accommodations early! Due to space limitations in this issue, the list of area hotels will appear in next month's Heisey News. It's always lots of fun so plan to attend.

Terms: This year each HCA FAMILY will be allowed to consign 12 lots of Heisey glass to be sold in the auction. Each lot can contain as many items as you wish. We will be using the 80%-20% format, 80% goes to the consigner and 20% goes to HCA. Any item which sells for $5.00 or less will be considered a donation. We will accept glass as donations where all proceeds go to HCA. One hundred percent of any lots of donated glass goes to HCA. You may donate as many lots of glass as you wish, but you can only consign up to 12 lots.

Ship to: HCA
169 W. Church ST.
Newark, OH 43055

Please enclose a packing list with every box. If more space is needed, xerox the form.

Remember to clean your glass--glass in good condition receives better prices.

All glass is inspected when received. Any glass found not to be Heisey will be returned, including Heisey by Imperial and commemorative pieces.

Deadline: Glass for the Auction must be received by January 1, 1992.

Volunteers: If you wish to volunteer your time in any way with the Auction, or if you have any questions, please call me:

Jim Clark
(513) 845-9132
