About the cover: This month's cover photo features the #1510 Square on Round Variant 2-light candlestick. This candlestick was the subject of an article written by Tom Felt in the February 1992 issue of Heisey News. The smooth arm variation of the #1510 candlestick had not previously been seen, though it had been pictured in at least one Heisey catalog. This piece has been donated to the museum by Hazel LaBroad and Robert & Virginia Marrotto, in memory of Fred LaBroad.

Remembering Irene

The 9th of March was a sad day for our family; our friend Irene Rauck passed away.

Whenever we came to Ohio, Irene Rauck insisted we stay with her. After a long tiring 8-9 hour drive, we arrived at her home to be welcomed by her with a big smile and hug. Next came dinner. It usually consisted of twenty chicken breasts or ten steaks or a 15 lb. turkey. She never could understand why there was food left.

Irene's home became our second home; she made us feel like we belonged. Of course, her home was a show place of Heisey glass, wonderful furniture and accessories too numerous to mention. Our stay was usually spent admiring all her great things and kidding her about all the phone calls that commenced the minute we sat down to dinner. I doubt that she ever had a warm meal. Her triple booth at the annual HCA Convention was breath taking. "Mrs. Wrap and Pack", as she was known at the Convention Show, was a wonderful loving friend. We will miss her!

Letter From the President

The Cadillac Lincoln Dinner was a tremendous success. Congratulations to the winner of a brand new Lincoln Town Car, Jacquelyn Smith. The Board has decided to hold this event again next year, during Benefit Auction weekend. If you were unable to get tickets this year, call the museum and get on the waiting list.

We reached the minimum number of orders necessary to proceed with the production of the Pink Mother Rabbit so the rabbit will be made by Dazell-Viking during mid-May. We will keep you posted on their expected date of arrival.

The estimated profit from the 1992 Benefit Auction is $15,000, plus $3,200 for the Building Fund.

At the March 15th Board meeting, the Board voted to proceed with the museum expansion and to obtain a set of approved drawings. If all goes according to plan, we will have our ground breaking at this year's convention.

Be sure to read the resumes of the candidates who are running for election to the HCA Board of Directors. These are the people who will guide HCA. The election will take place during the Convention in June. If you are not a voting member and would like to become one, send in the one-time $25.00 fee. This one-time fee allows you to vote for Board members every year thereafter, providing your regular yearly membership remains in force.

The Board voted unanimously to make Keith Bradbury an honorary member of HCA. Keith has supported HCA in a number of ways through the years. In 1976 Keith donated 200 shares of Bob Evans stock to HCA. As you will notice in the Treasurer's Quarterly Report, today that stock numbers 7,421 shares and is valued at $200,367. HCA wishes to thank Keith for his support.

HCA member, Evelyn Prather, passed away in March after suffering from a brief illness. Evelyn had been a member of HCA for ten years and was a charter member of the Hoosier Study Club. She is survived by her husband, Kenny, one son, and one daughter. She will be missed by the members of the Hoosier Study Club as well as all of her HCA friends.

Don't delay in making your convention plans. This should be a very exciting convention. Check the area motel list in this issue.

The Building Fund needs your support. Make your contribution or pledge now. If you want to earmark your donation or pledge to a special area such as: library, archives, media center, display, endowment, or offices, let us know and it will be arranged.

See you next month!

Curator's Report

Kathy McCracken

It has been noticeably quieter here at the museum since the Benefit Auction glass has been shipped, the Gold Animal sets have all been sold, and the final details remaining from the Cadillac-Lincoln Dinner have been settled. It was truly "March Madness" around here and all the staff members are glad to have a few weeks to catch up on routine business before it starts all over again--the 1992 Convention is just around the corner!

As mentioned on page 2, the #1510 Square on Round candlestick which belonged to Hazel LaBroad and Robert and Virginia Marotto has been donated to the museum and it is now on display.

Another interesting item was brought to the museum several months ago by Bob Rarey. Bob purchased the cream and sugar set that is pictured below but was unable to identify it. Everyone's first impression is that it is #360, but it has recessed panels and sharper handles. We have named it #8087 Rarey and Bob has left it here on loan. I welcome comments or information about it.

#8087 Rarey Cream and Sugar

In past issues of the newsletter I have mentioned the need to increase awareness of the museum in the local community. With much press coverage of the expansion plans and all of our fundraising projects, there has been a renewed local interest in HCA activities, but there is still more to be done. This past week I spoke at a meeting of a local Kiwanis club. Of the approximately 20 people there, not one had visited the museum despite the fact that they all knew something about Heisey, had many good questions, and were genuinely interested in the organization. They were all impressed with what HCA had accomplished to date and with our future plans. It is always a good reminder to talk to such people and to hear their ideas about the role of our museum within the community.

Views From the Fundraiser

Norman Thran, Fundraising Chairman

As I write this update in early April for the May newsletter, I would like to start off by thanking all of you who have donated cash or pledged money to the Museum Expansion, as well as those of you who donated glass. A special thanks goes out to all those volunteers who have helped to make this expansion project a success.

The total is now $ 190,000. How about that!! Last month we were only at $31,000. How did we grow so quickly? Remember, the committees have been working weekly for a long time and their efforts and your support have given us the boost to this $190,000. I will give you a breakdown of the monies raised to date and these figures will be rounded to the nearest dollar.

Cash & Pledges	$ 32,200.00
Donated Glass & other items	$ 3,500.00
Cadillac/Lincoln Dinner	$ 13,300.00
Gold Animal Series	$141,000.00
Total	$190,000.00

The Expansion (Building) Campaign is broad based and has been explained to you before. It is structured so that you can participate in many ways. The figures above clearly speak to how you have responded. Please keep us in your thoughts and continue your support.

Additionally, the Committee gave the #1 set of the Gold Animal Series to the Museum. The Cadillac/Lincoln Dinner Committee gave $5,000 to the HCA General Fund. This $5,000 gift is in addition to the profits, $13,300, realized from the fundraiser.

Now, let's look at where we are going and what you can do to push us forward. Today we are at $190,000. The goal is $350,000. At $200,000, the Evans Foundation pledge of $25,000 will be realized. That means we need to raise an additional $10,000 in the short term. Let's all pull together in the next two months and raise this $10,000 to get us to the $200,000 level. Remember, when we reach this plateau, we get $25,000 from the Evans Foundation. When we reach the intermediate goal, we will be at $225,000. Let's all hope this is realized by the June 17, 1992 Ground Breaking, during the opening of the '92 Convention.

You can support this effort Building for the Future by cash or pledged gifts; send your response to: Building Fund, 169 W. Church St., Newark, OH 43055. Remember, all gifts large and small count and it's with total participation by all members that this project will be a reality.

Next month an update on the Expansion Committee chronology of events and a status report of the monies raised to date will appear in the Heisey News. A last reminder to anyone who pledged money, the time to start sending in your pledge is now, as we are getting close to ground breaking.

Museum Expansion Committee Update

Bob Rarey, Recording Secretary

The Museum Expansion Committee met four times during March 1992. Several sub-committee meetings were also held. At these meetings, the majority of the discussion concerned the layout of the proposed addition. Assisting the Committee in these discussions was the architect who will draw the construction plans. From these discussions, a plan was formulated for the presentation made to the HCA Board of Directors at the meeting on March 15, 1992. Chairman Sam Schnaidt made the presentation, seeking approval of the Board to proceed with the expansion plan. The HCA Board of Directors gave its unanimous approval to proceed as follows: 1) A ground breaking ceremony will be held on Wednesday evening, June 17, 1992, signaling the start of the Museum Expansion; 2) The Committee was authorized to seek bids from selected contractors for construction; 3) Award a construction contract to the bidder with the best bid in the opinion of the Committee; 4) Arrange construction financing in advance, should that be necessary to complete the project. Please note, none of the assets of HCA will be involved in the Expansion Project, as the Board of Directors specifically stated that the project must be self-supporting.

The Cadillac-Lincoln Dinner was a great success and raised about $ 18,000.00 for the project. About 375 people attended and a number asked if the banquet would be held again next year. The winner of the new car was Jacquelyn Smith, of Oklahoma and she purchased the first ticket for next year's event.

The Gold Animal Series was sold out as of March 15, 1992. The 450 sets of Rosalene animals will all be made now and the Committee expects them to be available for pick-up at the HCA Convention in June. This project will net the Museum Expansion Fund about $141,000.00 As a Special Souvenir of the ground breaking, the committee is having a limited number of the Diamond H signs made in Rosalene. Check this issue of the Heisey News for details.

The funds raised from these events, plus the cash and pledges received, assures the Committee that the project will move forward and be successful. Your continued support is solicited and the Committee is grateful for your support of these events. Another update will appear in the June issue of the Heisey News.

Dear Heisey Friends of Irene,

Nothing could have prepared us for the devastating loss we feel, since our mother left us on March 9, 1992. You will be glad to know that she simply went to sleep in her chair, one last time. Oh, how we miss her! As you know, second only to her family and friends was Heisey glass and her associations involved with it; it was her life.

Recently, after having spent an enjoyable birthday dinner at the Granville Inn and returning to her home, she took Dick and me around to see her latest acquisitions, stopping to admire a pair of "Krall cut candelabras". We asked her if she ever tired of Heisey glass. Her reply was simply, "No it's beautiful. I never will." How amazing those cuttings were to her, and to all of us--and, oh, those colors!

These past twenty years Mother and I (and more recently grandson Jamie Van Winkle) have looked forward to seeing all of you during the June Convention. At the Show in Adena Hall we are always torn between organizing the booth and scurrying around to say Hello and to see what new and rare pieces others might have found since the previous year. She truly enjoyed her friendships with all of you.

We would like to have contacted all of you individually, but since there are many of you, unknown to us, it seemed the Heisey News would be a good forum.

She worked very hard to help get the Heisey name collectible. Now it's up to us to keep it in the "Limelight".

Fondly,

Barbara Bartlett

WOW! WHAT AN EVENING!

Virginia Johnson

We were in Ohio for the Cadillac Lincoln Dinner, which was held at Huffman Hall, Denison University in Granville Saturday March 14th--the 200 tickets were sold out by February 15th. Forty percent of the buyers were HCA members and the rest were purchased by local persons and businesses and also by four HCA Study Clubs: South Carolina, Michigan, Buckeye and California--Four of the six prizes went to HCA members!

It was snowing outside, but the gala atmosphere inside warmed us up in quick order. As each guest arrived, HCA greeters presented name tags. The exciting party atmosphere included tables decorated with balloon bouquets, and votive candleholders in the shape of large dice. The clever wooden dice were handcrafted by Sam Schnaidt.

There was music, an open bar, and a wonderful buffet prepared by the Marriott Catering service. One area of the room was set up with gambling tables operated by local folks from the Moose Lodge. These coupiers were handsomely dressed in black with white shirts and red ties. All of the Las Vegas equipment was rented from a firm in Cincinnati. We exchanged our paper money for chips and tried our luck along with everybody else.

Throughout the evening, numbers were drawn and names called and as we came closer and closer to the last five numbers the Las Vegas part of the evening ended and everybody gathered around to see WHO the lucky winner of the Big Prize would be!

There was a special round table set with champagnes (Heisey, of course) tied with ribbons around the stems and the final five were seated--Mr. and Mrs. Chris Maskaleris from the Washington D.C. area, Jerry McClain, from Granville, Hugo Wenzel, from Columbus, Sonny Larson from East St. Louis, and the absentee number holder, Jacquelyn Smith from Bartlesville, Oklahoma. Mrs. Chris said "it was like being a runner-up in a Miss America contest". The last ticket drawn was held by HCA member, Jacquelyn Smith. (She has been notified and is really thrilled--who wouldn't be?) Everybody at this table had champagne served to them and took home a Heisey champagne to toast HCA at a later date, we hope! The evening was ended with an auction for prizes, which had been donated, using whatever paper money we managed to have left.

It was a most successful fundraising event for the Expansion and the Museum; it was a first class affair. The decorating was done by club members on the Expansion Committee. It was too bad you all couldn't come (or yu'all, as we say in the south) but the Board has unanimously recommended that we have a similar affair next year during the March auction weekend. This would be a Fund Raising evening for our HCA Museum.

The planning, the work, the party atmosphere, and the final results all came about through many hours given by members of the Cadillac-Lincoln Committee. As I said before, WOW WHAT AN EVENING!

Gold Animal Series

Charlie Wade

First, let me thank you for supporting this project. If you have not heard by now, we have sold all 450 sets in less than two weeks. We are currently keeping a waiting list in the event that someone changes their mind.

The set will be produced in its entirety and ready for pick-up or delivery in June. Eighty percent of all the orders were prepaid, allowing us to produce the entire set at one time.

For those of you who are on the bi-monthly pay plan, we would like to extend to you a 10% discount on your unpaid balance if you wish to pay it off in cash or by check. Money orders accepted too. This will allow you to get your entire set in June.

At this time, plans are being finalized and formulated for pieces to be made in Rosalene and offered for the Ground Breaking and dedication of the new Museum Annex. Please watch the Heisey News for more information about these pieces, as they will be a great addition to your collection.

For the Ground Breaking Ceremony, we will offer the famous Diamond H sign in Rosalene. This offer is open to all Gold Series Animal purchasers and HCA members. Each piece will carry the dedication date of 6/17/92.

These will be very limited, a maximum production of 450, a fine addition to your animal or Rosalene collection. Orders will be accepted through May 15, 1992. A limit of 5 signs per person will be allowed. All signs will be available in June for the Ground Breaking.

Please fill out the order form below. All checks should be made payable to HCA. All Ohio mail orders or pick-ups must pay 6% Ohio sales tax, ($2.40 ea). If you want your order to be shipped please add $4.00 (per sign) shipping and $3.00 (per order) handling. If you do not indicate shipping instructions, we will consider your order a pick-up order. Mail the order form to: HCA Sign, 169 W. Church Street, Newark, Ohio 43055.

All proceeds from the sale of the Diamond H ad sign will go to the Building Fund.

Again, thanks to all of you for helping make this project a Huge Success. Please let us know what you might like to see in any future production.

Notice: Be sure to read over the Lottery Application form for the limited number of frosted Rosalene animals which will be available by drawing only. Proceeds from the frosted seconds lottery will go to the General Fund. The Lottery application form is on page 9.

diamonds are forever... Janet Caswell

It might be fun to think back and remember what we paid for our first or second piece of Heisey. My first piece or pieces were purchased in Boston at the Old Quincy Market, the 7" Twist pickle boat. There were four of them and the price was right: $5.00. Yes, for all four and besides that they were Marigold. To say the least, this got me hooked on Heisey Hunting and from then on I looked for glass with that Diamond H on the bottom. The year was around 1972.

The Flea Combers were having a real big case of the Winter Withdrawals, so they resorted to going to tag sales, auctions etc. They were very pleasantly surprised at the wonderful finds--a find being defined as costing less than a prime rib dinner. I'm going to report a few to you, saving some for next month: #4 Essex Candlestick, take a quick look in the Candlestick Book. It is beautiful. Next, a pair of Greek Key 4-1/2" nappies, #7004 Wreath candy box in crystal (found in a dusty thrift shop), the #32 7" skirted panel candlestick with handle (for a song). It shown like a diamond (H, that is). This piece was found amidst all the more trash than treasures that filled the little store.

Tower Power has been a member of HCA for about a year now. Lately his luck has been good and he became the proud owner of the Fandango sugar bowl and a Prince of Wales tankard. The sugar was a sweet purchase. He also picked up (5) Lariat wines at an auction, I guess the auctioneer didn't know his Heisey. Tower

Power's other half is hooked on Plantation--good luck on finding her some nice pieces.

The J.B.C.'s (I'm going to tell you what this stands for just once and it's up to you to remember: Jugs, Baskets, and Colognes) found (6) #1425 Victorian sherbets.

The Steadfast Colleague saw a couple of pieces of Stanhope: the 12" Torte plate with #490 etching and the 12" celery with #605 frosted etch.

Hooked on Heisey brags about the #1503 Crystolite 11" shell salad plate, no divider.

The Rebel has the Bead Swag wine, dated 1902 with ruby stain, the Locket on Chain wine (ruby/gold), a Crystal plug horse and the Crystal clydesdale.

One of the Lucky Seven wrote to tell me about several nice animals he found within the last few weeks. Here, there, and everyplace--two scotties, (one was painted with tiny flowers), the hen and two standing ponies.

Yours Truly was in Ohio for the March Board meeting and I also attended part of the auction. The prices were high on a lot of things. As you probably remember, my favorite pattern in #1404 Old Sandwich. Included in the Benefit Auction was a Crystal basket in Old Sandwich. Needless to say, I wanted this to go with my table settings. No such luck; it went a bit high for me. Perhaps another chance will come my way.

Write and tell me about the first piece that you discovered and the price. Let me print this for all the readers to enjoy. I really enjoy hearing from new people.

Club Notes

#5 Bay State Heisey Club
Susan Pescatore

The Bay State Heisey Club met on March 10, 1992 in Woburn, MA, President Stephen Pescatore presiding.

After a very productive business meeting, Show and Tell was conducted by Susan Pescatore. Finds included: a #1201 Fandango ice cream tray (very clear and beautiful), a #352 ice cream cone holder, flared (or violet vase), along with two others apparently non-Heisey but strikingly similar. It was theorized that the mould may have traveled to another glass house and been modified. A #353 Flat Panel toothpick tray, a #393 Narrow Flute Domino sugar tray, a stunning #394 Narrow Flute covered cheese & cracker with cutting and simple sterling overlay, a #1509 Queen Ann mayonnaise with Empress etch, along with the Queen Ann 10" 3-part relish. There were also a #4220 Janice vase in Flamingo, a #4036-1/2 1 pint decanter, and a #341 bon bonniere (9-1/2" high). Also making an appearance was: a bunny (heads up), as well as a #4163 Whaley jug which has a nice, but probably non-Heisey cutting, along with matching barrel-shaped tumblers that could be the #2926, or another factory's tumblers that were cut at the same time as the jug, by a cutting company. Interesting.

There was also some very attractive non-Heisey glass at this meeting, particularly two beautiful pieces of blue cameo glass from Pilgrim that would compare well with the real (i.e. old) examples, and this correspondent brought in an amethyst (Burgundy) Fostoria goblet, one of a set, with the Fostoria stamp on the bottom, along with the initials "H. F. M". No one knew what the initials denoted, so if there are any Fostoria experts reading this, please drop me a line at 9 Donna Rd. Chelmsford, MA 01824.

Dina Fitzpatrick and Helene Gulski prepared dinner which was highlighted by St. Patrick's Day decorations.

Professor Emeritus Dr. D. Albert Young began his presentation on Heisey toothpicks with his truly impressive collection supplemented by other members' pieces. He pointed out that Heisey toothpicks were a standard offering in almost all the early patterns but basically went out of style around the late teens; Dr. Young treated us to a look at virtually every example, including the Colonial patterns and Dr. Young's special prize, the Locket on Chain with ruby stain and gold. (pictured above)

There was some interesting discussion of fakes and look-alikes, as well as of Duncan toothpicks, e.g. Zippered Block, which was appropriate considering the close relationship between the two companies. All in all, it was a fascinating talk.

#19 Heisey Collectors of the Rochester Area

George J. Reynolds

The March meeting was held on the 8th, at the Fairport home of Edith Boches. Fairport is a lovely old canal town just east of Rochester. Marv Jacobs opened the meeting with a report of the building drive for the Heisey Museum addition.

Our officers formed a committee to attempt to find ways to make the meetings more interesting and recommend items to be donated to our annual May auction. Among the items suggested were: old linens, plants, baked goods and so on. Arlene Reynolds suggested that we sell a White Elephant surprise item. However, there is no way they are going to get me in that box!

The subject for the meeting was New and Old Queen Ann patterns. Sharon Orientor did a great job in presenting the pieces and explaining how to tell the Old from the New. Old Queen Ann was made between 1907-1911 and was produced in 33 items. All were supplemental items; no general line was produced. The shield design on the old pattern is really the most obvious difference. Sharon described the difference between New Queen Ann and Empress. The New Queen Ann was never made in colors except Hawthorne.

The best example shown of these items was the Lion Head bowl with Lion feet. How many times have you seen this advertized with dolphin feet?

Show and Tell session featured a #1503 candle block with bust off, Rococco Cream & sugar, Kalonial egg cup, and apple nut dish were shared.

A raffle was held with good results.

Our quote for the month: "Bad officials are elected by good citizens who do not vote."

From the Pony Express, March 1992

Penny Thorup, President

The March 23rd meeting was held at the home of David and Debbie White in Brea. Betty Wanser planned the program which was presented by Leo Bevon on HCA Sparkys and Heisey Animals, including the animal slide presentation.

#42 The Gulf Coast Heisey Club

Virginia Johnson

The March meeting of the Gulf Coast Heisey Club was held the 24th in Spring Hill, Fl., and hosted by Jean Drexler, our President. We meet three times a year: November, January and March at 11:30 a.m. and our members drive from as far away as Gainesville and south from Fort Myers. Presently we have 31 members. At this meeting there were 21 present. Three guests attended as well as our guest speaker, Don Pope, from Clearwater.

A letter was read from HCA acknowledging our cash donation which was raised from our January Silent Auction. This will be presented formerly at the June Convention. This gift was voted upon by our members to be allocated to the Endowment Fund. The club voted to take $300.00 from our Treasury to be given to HCA to be used for education, landscaping and Building Fund. Our delegate and alternate will consult with the Board of HCA as to how the money will be apportioned when they are in Newark for the Convention.

During the month of April, a Heisey display will be at the Selby Library in Sarasota, set up by Stan and Lynn Degroote. Plans are being made for other Heisey displays at libraries in other areas (to be done by members in that area) in the fall. We will have a good representation in Ohio in June as at least 14 of our members will be attending the National convention.

After a lovely luncheon, Don Pope gave a very informative talk about his Heisey punch cup collection and exhibited over 40 of his cups. This was received with great interest. During the Show and Tell of Heisey finds there were Crystolite cordials, a Cobalt optic shaw jug, a Cobalt Hi-lo vase, Beaded Panel and Sunburst toothpick, a strawberry and cream dish and other treasures.

Our next meeting will be at the home of Paul and Anne Keister in Spring Hill, FL on Thursday, November 19. A notice will be placed in the Heisey News closer to the time of the meeting.

I missed the March gathering, as my husband and I were in CA, so the story here was lifted from the minutes of our secretary, Adele Pardee, My thanks to her.

#44 The National Capital Heisey Collectors Club

From the Heisey Herald March, 1992

Message from the President, Chris Maskaleris

March could probably be called Heisey Month as many Heisey activities are taking place. Our club is celebrating the twentieth year of sponsoring the All-Heisey Show. In the beginning a great many people did not think a show with just one type of glass would fly, but Orva Heissenbuttel, who originated the show, had faith and encouraged the club. After our initial success, it was thought that this format would eventually have its limitations and appeal, but here we are in our 20th year and still going strong. We have two sets of dealers, the Yeakleys (Loren and Virginia) and the Schamels (George and Eileen), who have been doing the show since the first year. We can be proud of the support we have been able to give to the Heisey Museum with the proceeds and gifts from our show.

At our February meeting, a dues increase was passed to help cover the increased costs of printing and mailing our newsletter. Our February program, entitled American Glass - An Overview, was presented by Orva Walker Heissenbuttel. Tom Felt presented the program, Heisey's Designing Women at the March 9 meeting. The program will be Show Slides at the April 13 meeting.

#45 Hoosier Heisey Club

Donna Higgins, Secretary

The Hoosier Heisey Club held its first meeting of 1992 on March 7, at the Best Western Motel. There were 28 members present and two guests, Andrea Allen, Bill & Jean Phillips' granddaughter, and Holly Cook, daughter of Mike & Barbara Rosenberger.

The new President, Mike Rosenberger thanked Dave Stratton and Jean Phillips for all their good work during the past year. Don Raybourn, Program Chairman, gave the agenda for the meeting. A silent auction was held instead of the main program. A discussion on having a display at the Convention was held. Mike reported that he had reserved three tables for the Hoosier Heisey Club.

The Color Presentation, on Marigold, was presented by Barb Rosenberger. Some examples of items which were produced in Marigold were on display.

Pat Davis conducted Show and Tell. Members brought in a Ring Band spooner in Custard, a large penguin decanter, a Winged Scroll celery in Emerald, a Prison Stripe compote, a Puritan cigarette box with horsehead lid, a #500 ice bucket in Moongleam, an Empress 8" square plate in Alexandrite, and also a ball vase in Alexandrite.

Our silent mystery auction rounded out the meeting. Many thanks to Jim and Karen Clark for conducting it. Tired members retired to the buffet for dinner.

If elected to the HCA Board of Directors, Charles would like to be involved with the Museum Expansion Project. Charles is also interested in being involved in a project to catalog our archival material, in order that it would be accessible to all HCA members for research. He would also like to work on a more specific cataloging system for the Heisey molds, where by they would be easier to locate in the warehouse.

Karen O'Hare is a native of Newark, Ohio. She is a graduate of Bowling Green State University and has taught elementary school for over twenty years. Excerpt from Heisey Herald March 1992

Fred Bosworth,

Heisey Salesman, 1937-1953

by Jim Jones

In 1986, HCA recorded interviews with a number of people who had worked for the Heisey Co. The following are excerpts from the interview with Fred Bosworth, a salesman who worked the territory of New York, (except New York City), eastern Canada, Pennsylvania and New Jersey--after World War II he was sales manager for the northeastern region.

Fred recalled that Heisey, like other glass companies, had been struggling through the depression when lightning struck. Heisey introduced Ridgeleigh which became "... the hottest line on the market." About the time he hired on, the Hocking Glass Co. introduced Queen Mary, a depression pattern that was "...an almost exact copy of Ridgeleigh! ...sold mostly in chain stores...for about five and dime prices. Our stores being of a better type quickly started to drop Ridgeleigh..." Fred wondered if he had been a bit hasty in joining the Heisey Co. Then Heisey made use of another off-shore design, probably Czechoslovakian, to create Crystolite and maintain a competitive position on the market.

About Executives He knew

A short time after he applied to sell for Heisey, Fred received a telegram inviting him to come out to Newark, OH for an interview. He arrived from New York at about 5 AM and when he stepped off the train, he was greeted, "I'm Clarence Heisey. You must be Fred Bosworth." This first meeting "...impressed me as typical of Clarence's courtesy and thoughtfulness." He couldn't stand to be called Mr. Heisey--"...He'd rather be called an S.O.B." His friends and family might have called him Tim, but...for the employees this was a no-no. To them he was Clarence. Wilson Heisey ran the hot end of the business and was regarded as an outstanding glass man but a bit short on PR talents. Scuttlebutt around the company was that factory employees loved Wilson --tolerated Clarence.

On Pressed Ware

During his early years on the road with Heisey, Fred recalled that Fostoria occupied first place in the market, Imperial's Candlewick was number two, and Crystolite a close third. "...we had an enormous line of it and I really lived off Crystolite..." Business was good also in wares for mounting, (glass items used as inserts for metal serving pieces such as relish trays, salad dressing containers, etc.) "...they look kinda ridiculous to us today, but they were pretty smart in the late 40s...International Silver Co. purchased Crystolite mayonnaise sets (5-inch plate and mayonnaise bowl) and added a serving spoon of its latest flatware pattern. The company made these available to retailers who offered them to brides-to-be as a gift or premium in the expectation that the new flatware pattern would become the bride's choice. "...We got an enormous, enormous business, hundreds of thousands of pieces of this plate and bowl..."

On Etchings And Cuttings

It was important to the salesmen to sell etchings; it doubled the value of the order. Heisey trailed Fostoria and Cambridge in the etched ware market until Orchid etch was introduced. When salesmen saw the new etch at the annual company conference in Newark, "...all the salesmen looked at it, and we really cheered..." Orchid became a top seller. Rose etch was introduced a bit later--popular with the housewife but difficult to place with the retailer who already carried a line of Crystolite and Orchid, and had neither the room nor the incentive to add still another line. When the Minuet etch was introduced, the salesmen were excited about it, but it bombed in Fred's territory! Salesmen's interest in cuttings was the same as the etchings. "...How much money can I make..." Fred described the market in his territory for Heisey cuttings as disappointing. Tending to be a bit elaborate, they increased the price of the uncut piece by three or four times--beyond the means of most consumers. Cutting machines were available that would cut eight to ten pieces at a time, reducing the cost to the consumer for the cuttings, but the union would not allow the company to install them. He greatly admired the artistry of Heisey's cutting department led by the Kralls, but in Fred's opinion, the elaborate cuttings favored by Heisey management, and the union's demand that all cuttings be done by hand, priced the product out of the market.

#503 Minuet etch #515 Heisey Rose etch #507 Orchid etch

On Stemware

While Heisey's pressed ware was well received in his territory, Fred found it difficult to place Heisey blown stemware with retailers. The two major problems with the Heisey wares were that the rims were not always finished uniformly, leaving some with sharp rims, and the ring was inconsistent. During visits to his customers, Fred recalled being greeted something like this "...Hey, I just got a bunch of your stuff back 'cause--listen to this--and he'd hit a goblet and it rang bong, the next goblet would go tinkle and the next unch."

National Capital Extravaganza

by Carl Sparacio

We, my wife and her long suffering husband, participated in the recent National Capital Heisey Study Club with the National Capital Heisey Collectors' (henceforth to be called NCHSC/NCHC) 20th Annual All Heisey Glass Show and Sale. If you're a true blue Heisey collector you've heard of this show and perhaps, if you are really among the truly bluey, you've made the trek to Oz on the Potomac to be dazzled.

There are a few things that set the NCHSC/NCHC's Annual All Heisey Glass Show and Sale apart, besides its location: first, it has the longest name of any regularly scheduled show anywhere and, second, it is all 100% Heisey as advertised. You may find more Heisey at the HCA's convention in June, but never will you see the fruit of Heisey's furnaces more concentrated than at this show.

The NCHSC/NCHC's show is also distinguished by its Authentication Committee. A group of experts chosen each year to examine all the glass on display to be sure it is indeed Heisey and not a pretender (the exception being Heisey by Imperial which may be displayed if properly identified with a scarlet letter (read that: dot). A favorite game among dealers is called, Fool the Authenticators. Consequently, the select authenticating committee has come to be more nervous about the process than the dealers.

Dealer displays ran from depression-like to elegant understatement with the emphasis somewhere in the middle. The show is extremely well run and there are usually few glitches. This is due, perhaps, to a happy combination of experienced managers, a cadre of longtime dealers and an inexperienced building maintenance staff put on line to supply the glitches. This year the lights glitched on opening day.

Many visitors said they came to learn. They were not disappointed. Besides an armory full of Heisey's best and a stable of knowledgeable dealers, there was an HCA booth dispensing information on everything Heisey and HCA related. This year's participants from the Nerk, Ahia area representing the HCA Board of Directors and Museum Expansion Committee were Sam and Heidi Schnaidt and Chuck and Amy Jo Jones, all of whom, we suspect, gained new respect for the word hustle.

Everyone admired the beautiful Rosalene animals made expressly for the museum's building fund drive. Visitors to the HCA booth heard everything they ever wanted to know about the museum addition.

Virginia and Loren Yeakley and Eileen and George Schamel, all well known Heiseypersons, were honored for being 20 year participants in this event. Eileen was particularly nice. She oohed and ahed through pictures of my grandchildren and didn't demand equal time.

At the opening gun this All Heisey Glass Show is a sight to behold--it's much like watching sharks in a feeding frenzy. Though the analogy is apt, it's not meant to be uncomplimentary--it surely is a kinder, gentler frenzy. I remained a sea of calm throughout these proceedings, mostly because I spent a good deal of time being unobtrusive rather than risk my reputation as an expert. I permit no one to step on my feet of clay.

Aficionados arrived from near and far. The winner of the nearest was a gentleman who lives just across the street from the armory. He was shopping for candlesticks and, because he lived so close by, took two days to come to a decision. I can't pinpoint the winner of farthest because people were dropping city and state names all over the place and I wasn't taking notes.

An attender deserving mention is the fellow who flew in just for the show and flew out again the same day. He's in the Air Corps. The award, if there was one, for the longest trip time-wise goes to the group of stalwarts who took two days to bus down from New England, they reached the show floor before noon Sunday morning and re-boarded their bus soon after one o'clock to beat a snow storm forecast for the coast. There was one minor glitch (the second of the show), their bus wouldn't start. Hours later, after the show closed and the last of the dealers packed up and left, they were still huddled in the parking lot looking for someone to lynch.

Fortified with Chinese dinners, they finally got off about 8 pm. After a loong ride they arrived at their original boarding point in Connecticut at three the following morning where each still faced a long drive home.

On a scale of one to ten, this show garners an eleven every year. All Heiseynuts should make an effort to attend the NCHSC/NCHC's 21st Annual All-Heisey Glass Show and Sale next year. It's worth the trip. If you do get there sure to stop in our booth and say, Hello--I may even come out from under the table covers.

Zircon and Limelight

From The Pony Express March 1992

During Heisey's main color period of the 1920's and 30's, Zircon was the last production color to be made. It was first introduced in 1936 and was not offered for sale after 1939. It was intended to be a true turquoise. However, as with most Heisey colors, there are variation in shades, which in Zircon's case range from somewhat green to somewhat blue. Apparently, the color was not overly popular. As World War II approached, the materials used in glass manufacture became somewhat scarce, the government restricted the sale of critical materials so production concentrated on what would sell quickest and best. Zircon was dropped from Heisey's catalogs in 1939. In 1955, the Zircon formula was remade and given a new name--Limelight. This color was in production until the factory closed.

Production in Zircon is concentrated in 4 major full line patterns. These are #1485 Saturn, #1488 Kohinoor, #1495 Fern, and #1506 Whirlpool. In stemware lines, Zircon was made in blown stemware in the following patterns; #4083 Stanhope, #4085 Kohinoor, and #4090 Conentry. When Zircon was introduced, Heisey concurrently introduced the saturn optic. For this reason, the main Heisey patterns featuring saturn optic (Saturn, Kohinoor and Coventry) are frequently found in the color of Zircon. The #5082, Mid Century stemware line was introduced in 1950 with no optic. In 1955 a saturn optic was added. The saturn optic pieces were always made in Limelight. Many individual pieces featured the saturn optic, and were made in Zircon. An example is the #3390 Carcassonne 8" footed vase. It is the only piece of this pattern made in Zircon.

In addition to the full pattern lines produced in Zircon, production of the individual pieces were made in many patterns. As an example, #1469 Ridgeleigh, which included over 100 items, began production in 1935. However, only eight items were ever made in Zircon. These were the small square ashtray, the round cigarette holder, 4 inch cigarette box, 12 inch floral bowl and 6 inch candle vase, 2 inch square candlesticks, 8 inch vase and the 3-1/2 inch coaster. Another example is the #1496 Mahabar line. This was brought out in mid 1937 by Heisey and it evolved in the #1503 Crystolite pattern which was only made in Crystal. The Mahabar line consisted of a 4 inch cigarette box, a 3 inch round ashtray, and a 3 inch square ashtray. It was available in Crystal, Sahara, and the newly introduced Zircon color. Experimental items were also made in all-Zircon, and Zircon in combination with other colors. Examples include: #1425 Victorian three compartment relish, #3380 Old Dominion stemware with Sahara foot and Zircon bowl.
