MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

MIKE MAXWELL

As I sit down to write this article ushering in spring, I watch what I hope is the last major snow of winter come filtering down. It is the price you pay for living in the Mid-West. I hope that everyone made it through the winter season in good shape. I am certainly looking forward to warmer weather and yes, even rain!

It has been a busy March at the Museum with several events coming up. Dave Spahr tells me his bunch has done a great job putting the final touches on this year's benefit auction. A big thanks goes out to Dave and the auction committee for all of their hard work. As always, I look forward to seeing many of you in Newark on the 16th and 17th. Remember, this is HCA's biggest fund-raiser of the year, so come ready to buy!

Convention 2004 planning is coming together very well. Marilyn Smith still needs some help filling the display, so now is your time to shine. I also understand that we still have some booth space available for this year's show and sale at OSU. This would be a perfect time for you to get involved in the selling end of your addiction. I am sure Sharon Orienter or Walter Ludwig would love to hear from you. The banquet/election committee has moved forward with plans for this event. It should prove to be a very nice meal together with a touch of more elegance than in past years. They tell me we are even going to have live entertainment for our enjoyment. They still have table space available for your centerpiece. This was a real nice touch last year and I would really like to see another good turnout for this. We saw some neat centerpieces representing various areas of the country last year. The best part was that it raises a few dollars for HCA and you get to take something home with you. Please let Terry Maxwell or Jim and Betty Cheadle know if you or your group would like to donate one.

The curator search committee has been very busy weeding out prospective candidates to fill that empty position. After a few months of interviews I am very pleased to announce that we have now filled the spot of curator. We will have more on the curator's bio in next month's issue. I want to thank the committee for tackling this very time-consuming task. You all have invested a good deal of time into this and we know you have made the right choice for us. I also want to offer a big thanks to Bob Ryan and his group of interim curators for all of the work they did in the past months. We could not have done it without you!

In March, Bill Douglas found out that he has prostate cancer and will have to have surgery. His doctor is confident that it was found early enough that he should be able to beat this. Our thoughts and prayers are with Bill and his family during his surgery and following his recovery.

HCA lost two "Legends" since my last article. Josephine M. Dager past away in late February. For those of you that did not know her, she was married to Charles Dager who was the President of Velvet Ice Cream Co. She assumed a large role in running the family business after Charles passed. She was a long time supporter of the area communities and donated ice cream for HCA fund-raisers. Velvet Ice Cream still supports HCA today by offering us room for a Heisey display at its facility. HCA would like to extend our thanks for her support through the years. Memorial contributions may be made to the following:

Utica Historical Society
45 North Main Street
Utica, Ohio 43080

Hospice of Central Ohio
1984 Coffman Road, Suite A
Newark, Ohio 43055

HCA also lost long-time member Harold Willey. Harold passed away on March 9 at The Ohio State University Hospital in Columbus. Harold was a retired building contractor and along with his wife, Mildred, were the owner and operator of the Legend Inn of Newark. Anyone who ever visited the Willeys at their home in Frazeytsburg knew they were in for a real treat. Not only do they have a wonderful collection of Heisey, they have equally impressive collections of other glassware and ceramics. They have even converted their garage into a store to buy some very nice pieces of Heisey. One of my fondest memories of Harold is seeing him at our benefit auctions. I knew straight up that if Harold wanted a piece he was going to have it. Harold and Mildred have been long time supporters of HCA and he will be greatly missed. Our heartfelt thoughts and prayers go out to Mildred and the rest of the Willey family during this time of loss. Memorial contributions may be made to:

◆ Happy April Fools & Heisey Hunting!

FROM THE CLUB/MUSEUM DIRECTOR Bill Douglas

Museum Receives Marketing Grant from the Licking County Convention and Visitors Bureau: The Museum has been named the recipient of the 2004 Marketing Grant from the Licking County Convention and Visitors. The Grant is awarded to a member of the Convention and Visitors Bureau for marketing their location. The Museum submitted a proposal for the development and printing of a new multi-color rack brochure. The Grant is for $4,000 to be spent in 2004. Along with the check, the Museum received a certificate in recognition of the award.

Display in the Multipurpose Room: A press release has been circulated on the display created by the Buckeye Heisey Collectors in the Multipurpose Room using a St. Patrick's theme. The Museum is also one of the member to member exchange programs with the Columbus Convention & Visitors Bureau for March.

New Advertising Program for the Convention: With the help of Phyllis Deal, an advertising plan for this year's Show and Convention has been developed. The plan calls for a multi-media campaign and an attempt will be made to acquire major sponsorship from a local business.

The 2004 advertising plan is aimed at drawing significantly more people to the Heisey Glass Show and Display, with the major emphasis in promoting the event not only within a 100 mile radius of Newark, but also outside of that area.

Glass Pass: The quarterly meeting of the members of the Glass Pass Alliance took place on March 9 at the Cambridge VCB offices. Both the Licking County CVB and the Cambridge VCB have been promoting the Pass during travel shows for the tour industry. The Pass has also gotten several mentions in the tourism press and is starting to generate more interest. The group plans to meet again on July 13 and try to get other groups to join in this marketing plan. Some of the groups we may invite are Ogelbay, Fenton, and Imperial Glass Museum. ♥

FROM THE BUSINESS MANAGER Shelly Hoberg

BUSINESS: For the month of February 2004 we had 131 paid dues, of which 12 were new members and two were new additional members.

We have updated the way we log in UPS shipments. We now have this done on the computer which saves us time, and also makes it easier to track as you no longer have trouble reading the information. You can also find old shipments much easier. This was done at no cost to HCA.

SILENT AUCTION: The total income from this auction was $2,282.50.

REPAIRS/MAINTENANCE: Mid Ohio Tree Service is scheduled to come and remove three trees off of the Church Street side of the Museum as they are falling on the building and causing roof damage. We had a squirrel getting in through the roof and crawling around the ceiling tiles. The tree service is also going to prune the pear and dogwood trees to get them away from the building. ♥

#2 SALAD FORK & SPOON SET

Joe Lokay

Editors Note: From Heisey News, 1981, #3, page 8

We all enjoy looking for Heisey glassware at the various flea markets and antique shows. On occasion, you may see a large glass spoon and fork set. And then, do you wonder like I do, are they Heisey? How do you recognize the Heisey ones? Wondering leads to a desire for knowledge, so I decided to become acquainted with the Heisey-made salad and fork set.

The first thing I learned was that the Heisey Co. assigned stock #2 to their salad spoon and fork set. Stock No. 2 was also used for a floral block, salt shakers, candlesticks, candelabra parts, old paperweights, vases, a mustard spoon, etc. So there were a lot of number twos.

The spoon and fork set was pictured in several Heisey catalogs. For discussion purposes, let's break down each piece into three sections: The flat handle, the handle center section and the spoon bowl or fork prongs. The flat handle and the handle center section are identical for the spoon and fork. The #2 salad spoon and fork are both about 1/4" thick and 10" long. The flat handle is 1" wide by 2 1/2" long, the center section is about 1/2" wide by 4" long and the spoon or fork section is 3 1/2" long. Both pieces are signed with a Diamond H on the under side just above the spoon bowl or fork prongs where the center section enlarges to form a diamond shape.

Production of the #2 salad spoon and fork set started in about 1912. The set was first pictured in catalog #75 on page 260. This catalog page is reproduced as Vogel II, page 118. Production of the set was for about 30 years ending around 1942. The salad set was made in crystal only.

There were two styles of the #2 spoons and forks produced. The first was the plain handle produced from 1912 to my estimate of about 1927. The second style was with a design on the handle produced from about 1927 to 1942. Somewhere in the twenties, Heisey decided to switch from a plain handle to a figurative handle. Perhaps there was even an overlap period. The design was on the top surface of the flat handle section. The design was created by four raised lines of glass in the shape of two V's, one above the other. There are also some raised dots of glass on the top part of the V. The two styles of flat handles can be seen in Vogel's books: the plain handle in Book II, page 118 and the design handle in Book III, page 132. A set with the plain handle is on display in the HCA Museum. Both styles are signed.

As previously mentioned, the #2 set started in about 1912. It is interesting to note that there were no salad bowls by title indicated in the 1913 Heisey catalog #75. Therefore, I assume that the large nappies were suggested for use as salad bowls with the #2 spoon and fork set. By the 1930's, all Heisey's major pattern lines now included a specified salad bowl. In the late years after the #2 set was discontinued, Heisey offered a wooden salad spoon and fork set or a silver-plated salad spoon and fork set to go with their salad bowls.

Now that you have read this article and have seen the pictures, hopefully we can now all recognize the Heisey #2 spoon and fork at a glance. Happy Hunting. Notice I didn't say successful hunting in case I get there first. ♥

AN INTERESTING PIECE OF HEISEY GLASSWARE

FROM THE MUSEUM COLLECTION

Walter Ludwig

1506 Whirlpool Footed Platter

The Whirlpool pattern was first produced by Heisey in 1938. Heisey reintroduced the pattern in the 50's renaming it Provincial. The pattern is one of many bulls-eye or window type patterns that have always been popular among glass buyers.

The footed platter was a piece that was only produced in the early years of the pattern. It is not an easy piece to find today. It was only made in crystal unlike some of the pieces in the pattern which were made in Zircon. Three different pieces were made from the same mold: the 12" deep 4 footed floral bowl, the 13" shallow 4 footed floral bowl, and the 15" footed platter. This was done by manipulating the sides of the piece after it came out of the mold.

Besides being 15" in length the platter is 11 ¼" wide. At the edges it stands 1 ½" tall. It rests on 4 short feet. The two inner feet are trapezoidal shaped while the outer are rectangular. Extending out from either of the outer feet are a row of 3 balls on the underside of the platter. The typical whirlpool windows make up the outer areas of the platter. These windows are concave on the bottom. The center of the platter is a 3 ¾" by 2" oval. The pattern on the bottom of this oval is formed by an outer oval of convex circles inside of which is an inner oval of smaller circles and inside that a row of 3 still smaller convex circles.

The Whirlpool footed platter is currently located in case G2 C36 on the second floor of the museum.

This piece is marked with the diamond H in the middle of the platter although it easily blends into the convex circle design on the bottom of the platter so it is possible to not see this. I hope you are the savvy collector who spots this piece fast asleep on your next Heisey hunting trip. ♥

Editor's Note: Joe Lokay's article in the March 2004 Heisey News made some of our readers remember the following article which was printed in the November 1989 Heisey News and revealed the true story of these pink items.

ARCHIVES YIELD IMPORTANT NEW INFORMATION A NEW COLOR DISCOVERED! Neila Bredehoft

Some of the more valuable items we received in the archives donated by the Heisey family include several old ledgers which are annual inventory books. While not exactly telling us what the company was making at the time, as the turn books do, these books tell us what stock the company had on hand for sale. The books discussed here begin in July, 1901 and end with July, 1903. There are a few more in our collection, but these are the only ones concerning this article.

Many interesting tidbits are included in these pages, and after further study I am sure more will surface. We will get a better feeling for early Heisey production from study of these volumes. Some of the interesting items included lists of pieces and patterns in emerald, ivory, and opal. A few scant notations are made for opalescent ware (more about that in another column).

For years we have known of the existence of several pieces of old patterns such as Pillows in what we determined was Flamingo. Speculation to explain these pieces was that they were made when Flamingo was being tested and the old molds were used to show how the color would actually look when actually pressed into a piece of glass. In retrospect, this seems rather complicated and unnecessary. Surely the company could have "tested" the color in molds currently being used and not bothered resurrecting an old mold which was most certainly stored in an inconvenient place, reconditioned, moved to the furnace area, and warmed in. A lot of work for just a color test!

The mystery of these pieces is now solved. In the July, 1901 inventory I found the following list:

#300 [Peerless] #1 candle – rose 3 ¾ doz.
#305 [Punty and Diamond Point] celery –
rose – 1
#325 [Pillows]
Cream – 7
4" nappy – 12
5" nappy – 6
7" nappy – 4
8" nappy – 4
9" nappy – 4
3 qt. Jug – 5
egg cup – 3
water bottle – 3
tall celery – 4

All of the Pillows items were listed in rose and valued at $5.00. That's total, not per piece! Apparently the experiment with rose colored pieces began before July, 1901. By that time, they were considered almost completely valueless by the company.

In July, 1902 the inventory had two interesting entries that may bear on this subject. The first listed 300 ½ vases, #1, #2, #3, #00, #000 in red. Whether this is really meant to be red or actually an entry for rose is uncertain. I believe that it is meant to be rose since we know about 300 ½ vases in pink, although we formerly thought these were Flamingo. The other item mentioned in rose is a 381 Halophane shade, of which there were 2 dozen in inventory.

By the July, 1903 inventory, no rose or red items were listed except for one entry which read "325 [Pillows] assorted vases – rose".

We also have a 310 Ring Band spooner in the museum, but I found no listing for this pattern in rose, although it was listed in Ivory. The early listing of this color as rose may also help to explain later entries in turn books when workers listed the very first Flamingo items as rose. Some of them, at least, probably remembered the early rose color, even if it was only made in very small amounts.

It was a thrill to me to find even such scanty information as this about a new color! We will now have to add ROSE to our list of early era colors. It is not often that a discovery of such significance is found when researching glass such as Heisey which has been intensely studied for over 2 years. If you had a complete collection of the Heisey colors, you might not have now! Good luck in trying to find an example of Heisey's color Rose.

LET'S GO TO THE HCA CONVENTION!

Elaine Husted

Shall we go to the HCA Convention? Yes, Yes! YES!! Why?? Well, June 17, 2004 is just a few weeks away and my mission in this article is to get each reader so excited about an annual event that is breath-taking, awesome, educational, entertaining, and relaxing as to draw them to Newark, Ohio for a personal encounter with Heisey glass, and to meet with so many other wonderful people who love it and collect it.

What do people do at the Convention, sit around and talk about Heisey glass? I should say not! With all of the exciting activity going on, it's difficult to find a starting place, so we'll go right to the "jewel" of all of this Heisey fanfare. The National Heisey Glass Museum is located at 169 West Church Street in Newark, Ohio. After parking in a spacious parking lot shared by other local historical centers, a delightfully landscaped frontage offers a warm stone pathway up to a canopy protecting the main entry to the museum. A light touch on the bell button summons a docent that will warmly welcome you, and, if you wish, give you a brief description of what you will see. From there on, throughout the multiple rooms and tastefully crafted cabinetry, your eyes and your heart will become surfeited with the unbelievable array of cut, colored, etched, frosted, flashed pieces of Heisey glass. Virtually every pattern, color, cutting, etching, function and decorative item made by the A.H. Heisey Company from 1896 through 1957 can be found here. Every piece is identified as to pattern name and number, its function, color, and production date. A wonderful personal touch is provided by an identification of items donated by members as personal gifts, or as memorials to family and friends. But time is a tough taskmaster, and one cannot leave the Museum without vowing to return.

Let's hop on the magic glass carpet and whirl away to The Ohio State University Newark Campus to the Annual Glass Show where a host of dealers are presenting a smorgasbord of Heisey glass (and a few other collectibles) for your shopping pleasure. This is no "ordinary" collectibles show! It's a show where dealers combine the wish to sell their wares with an equally ardent wish to teach you about Heisey glass. Each can add to your store of knowledge about it in terms of the whole, or about your particular points of interest. You may not find them jumping up to hawk you as in the used car lot, but a question or a gesture will find the dealer at your side, just as eager to answer your questions as to arrive at a negotiated price for the items that interest you.

If the museum and the show hasn't dazzled you enough, take time to drink in the beauty of the display tables where each table is artistically, artfully, and elegantly arranged to highlight specific patterns, or colors, or functions (such as vases, or cruets, place-settings).

Want to rest awhile? Well, let's take in one of the educational forums. Each year, experts, each with a different Heisey topic, present seminars where you can be helped to delve more deeply into the how, when, where, and why of Heisey items of interests to you. Each seminar has always turned out to be an exciting interactive learning experience (without the 100-question exam as a follow-up!).

O.K., put on your glass slippers and dance with me to the "ID" glass identification session. It is a "glass gourmet's delight!" It features a panel of people who are truly sophisticated in their knowledge of Heisey, Cambridge, Fostoria, Tiffin, ad infinitum! Seated behind a table on the dais, several experts, having had time to carefully examine the items previously brought in, begin to show each piece and talk about its characteristics, who manufactured it, the era in which it was made and, of course, whether it is or is not a product of the A.H. Heisey Company. I have attended many sessions and have always been "educated" and "entertained" by their knowledge and their delightful sense of humor. You want to be "impressed?" Sign up for the ID session!

The Thursday evening Blind Auction is a fun-filled event found only at the annual convention. The Blind Auction, held at Hopewell Hall, OSUN campus, offers an opportunity to bid on an array of Heisey glass items donated for the auction by individuals or by Heisey Study Clubs. The proceeds of the Blind Auction are used to support the activities of the HCA.

The lots to be auctioned are a group of items appraised by a Heisey expert to be worth $150 or more, and a group appraised to be worth $50 or more. The $150 items are fully displayed for everyone to view and examine. Each of these has been assigned a number, which is correlated with a set of like numbers in a box. Thus, the bidding is "blind" since the successful bidder must then draw a number from the box to determine which of the items he or she has won!

Each of the $50 pieces of Heisey is boxed and decoratively wrapped and bidding on these, therefore, is also blind. When a $50 item has been sold, the successful bidder is asked to pick-up and open the box to display the item. The auctioneer may well alternate between the $150 and $50 categories as the auction goes on. Not only does this spin a few wheels, but also the committee responsible for the affair invites each attendee to come dressed in a costume reminiscent of an ancestor. This year, the attraction is "THE FAMILY TREE." So your costume selection is wide open to your imagination!!

Don't leave yet! The Blind Auction comes replete with buffet dinner and beverages, a chance to win a 50-50 jack pot, one of several door prizes, awards to the best costume in each of several areas, and a shot at guessing "How many pine cones are in the Jar?" Prizes galore! Costume prizes, door prizes, 50-50 cash prize.

There's more back there, but we must move on to the Swap Meet held at the Apple Tree Auction Center nearby. Here, a bright cavalier named Kim has rejuvenated a wonderful hour (or more) of pandemonium. Collectors and dealers each put a number of items on the table in front of them, and then wander around the room seeking pieces they would like to get by "swapping." Fun? It's better than a coup full of chickens at feeding time! Remember, it's being held at Apple Tree Auction Center.

There is much more to do and to see than any one article can encompass. Just to list a few: The Great Cook Out; The Banquet; An antique appraisal session; AND MORE!!! I'm sure you have many questions, maybe would even like to join The Heisey Collectors of America. Just call the HCA at 1 740-345-2932, or E-mail Bill Douglas, at director@heiseymuseum.org ♥

SIGNS OF SPRING ROBINS, GARAGE SALES AND FAMILY REUNIONS

Pam Haffner

Yes, the robins have arrived, the garage sale signs are on the corners, the auction is next month and the Heisey 2004 Family Reunion is less than 90 days away.

Perhaps you might combine a few of the above events and finalize your donation and your costume for the Family Tree / Blind Auction evening taking place during convention. We sincerely encourage you to search the shelves and the cupboards to find that special Heisey treasure you would be willing to donate to the Blind Auction.

The Committee is once again asking the Study Clubs and other generous donors to contribute items in two categories: those appraised at $150 or greater and those at a minimum value of $50.

We would like to add a few other guidelines for the donated items:

Please no damage or repairs

We would request the $150 items be decorative—possibly a vase, decanter, pitcher, candlesticks, covered jars, etc.

From the members: we have heard that the preference is the above rather than multiple items to make up the $150. So we will ask for single items (excluding candlesticks) rather than lots.

Because everyone seemed to enjoy the chance to view the $150 items last year, we will continue the open display of the $150 donations. They will be numbered and the highest bidder will draw a number and only then will the bidder know which of the displayed items will be going home with them.

The $50 items will continue to be hidden in wrapped boxes and opened by the successful bidder. The bidding will alternate between the $50 and the $150 items.

We are definitely awarding prizes this year for the best-dressed couple, the best-dressed man, the best-dressed woman, the best dressed youngster (14 years or younger), and the best dressed group—this has been the most anticipated category in the past few years. Pull out the family album and honor an ancestor. Wouldn't this be an excellent way to let your children know a little more about their ancestors?

The committee thanks you for your past contributions and for those you will be donating this year. Please contact Elaine Husted with your contributions and or questions/comments.

BANQUET UPDATE

Terry Maxwell, Jim and Betty Cheadle, Banquet Chairpersons

The Friday evening banquet will be held at the college again this year.

Comments from last year requested a more formal dinner, so we are setting this up as semi-formal, with a donation bar at the beginning of the evening, live music by The Reynoldsburg Brass Quintet, and more surprises!

The dinner will be buffet style, as having a sit-down served meal is cost prohibitive. Watch next month's newsletter for the menu selection and further updates. ♥

CENTERPIECE AUCTION

Terry Maxwell

Thanks to those of you that have verified participation in the Centerpiece Auction! There's still time to let me know that you or your Study Club would like to donate a centerpiece. They can be floral arrangements or items from your area, beautiful or fun. . .

Please contact Terry Maxwell at 419-484-8701 or terrymaxwell_maxtonmotors@hotmail.com. ♥

CONVENTION DISPLAY 2004

Marilyn Smith

Dear Study Clubs and Individual Members,
Would you be willing to display your glass in the All Heisey Display during the Heisey Convention? All glass must be Heisey – no reproductions or fakes. The theme for the display will be Family Treasures. This is your opportunity to display your collection and/or dinner/luncheon sets. It will be in Adena Hall on the OSU-COTC Newark Campus.

The rectangular tables are three feet by eight feet and the round tables are four feet in diameter. The HCA club will furnish the rectangular tables, table covers (white top with blue skirting), and risers. The round tables will have white tablecloths. You do not need four place settings, two are adequate with serving pieces.

The display glass is set up on Tuesday and/or Wednesday. Security will be available from set-up to teardown. Teardown will be after the show closes on Saturday, as it will be in Adena Hall. If you need help caring or setting up or packing the glass, please let me know.

Let me know how many tables you need, as well as the name of your display and/or pattern to be displayed by May 21. Thanks for your consideration.

Contact Marilyn Smith, Display Coordinator, 225 Upson Downs Road, Newark, OH 43055. 740-366-5163 or prestonmom@adelphia.net. ♥

BENEFIT AUCTION UPDATE

Dave Spahr, Benefit Auction Chair

I don't know about you but I can hardly wait for the auction! April 16 and 17 will be here before we know it! By now you have had your All Heisey Benefit Auction Catalog for about two weeks and we have two weeks until the All Heisey Benefit Auction.

Those of you coming to Newark for the auction and haven't yet made your hotel reservations I suggest you do so ASAP! There is a list of area hotels in this newsletter and also on page four of the auction catalog. Times awastin'!

I have just started going through my catalog and began selecting those "must have" items. To help me find them I have been going to the auction catalog on our museum website www.heiseymuseum.org and using the "search" feature. You can sort by pattern, or by pattern name, or by piece. It really works well! If you haven't tried, this you must!

For those of you unable to make the trek to the Apple Tree Auction Center in Newark for the auction and want to place bids for those Heisey treasures, I am pleased to report that Bob Rarey and Dick Smith have agreed to again help us out and place those absentee bids. The last page of the auction catalog should be used to fill out and send in your bids. You can also do this online at our website by filling out the available online forms. Please note that all bids must be received at the Museum no later than April 12, 2004. I'm sorry but bids received after this time cannot be executed.

Besides the auction, we have two other things going on that weekend. Early Saturday morning at 9:00 AM at Appletree, we have an HCA membership meeting. You are all invited to attend. Board members are there to answer questions, and a nominating committee presents a slate of candidates for the Board of Directors. Nominations can also be made from the floor. Once the Board approves the candidates, they will be eligible for your voting consideration at the June Convention. I've been told the list of candidates and information about them will be in the May newsletter.

The second thing we have going on is a lively elegant glass "After Auction Madness" flea market which is, of course, at Apple Tree immediately following the auction on Saturday. This will be a chance to pick up that must have piece of Heisey you didn't get at the auction. This activity is hosted by the Buckeye Heisey Collectors Club and member, Michael Maher. I think there may still be room for more dealers. If you are a dealer or a dealer wanna be and wish to participate, contact Michael ASAP at 740-763-4256. Please plan to spend some time visiting these fine dealers.

I again thank Sam Schnaidt for allowing us to use his wonderful Apple Tree Auction Center and to Sam and the other auctioneers (David Schnaidt, Jackie Collins, and Rick Hogue) for agreeing to use their auctioning skills to make this a wonderful auction. Finally, I thank those who donated and consigned glass for the auction and the many, many volunteers that have worked and will work to make this auction a success!

See you in Newark at the Apple Tree Auction Center on April 16 and 17. In the meantime, Happy Heisey Hunting! ♥

AFTER AUCTION MADNESS SALE

Michael Maher

GLASS DEALERS WANTED!

Plans for the After Auction Madness Sale are being finalized. The sale will again be held at Apple Tree Auction Center, Newark Ohio, on April 17, 2004, after the All Heisey Benefit Auction.

The Buckeye Heisey Collectors Club will again be hosting the event, as they did last year.

The setup for the sale is quick, and the tables to set up are only $15.00 each. Glass must be vintage or elegant, but is not limited to that produced by Heisey.

Any interested dealers who would like to participate in the sale should contact me by phone at (740) 763-4256, or e-mail me at Carolyn53@webtv.net. I will be more than happy to answer any questions.

Thanks, and Happy Heisey hunting! ♥

FRANKLY RHYMING

Frank Husted

As part of a fund-raising effort, Dr. Husted has agreed to create limericks, like the one below, for HCA members based on the pattern(s) of their choice. A donation to HCA is requested for each limerick created. If you would like to learn more about this fund-raising event, you may contact Dr. Husted by phone at (610) 469-1243 or via e-mail at fhusted@comcast.net

A HAPPY NEWSLETTER READER

Jon Heron

My mom, Marian, started collecting Heisey with my father, Bill Heron, back in the mid 70's. They enjoyed going to antique shows together and began to recognize the diamond H and some of the more common patterns. Next came spotting pieces that the sellers didn't know the value of and my folks were able to buy it cheap. Thus, the hunt was on.

They would hit most of the shows in the area and bring home the glass that they found asleep. Then, they started to realize that they had preferences for certain patterns and colors, and focussed more on those.

The final aspects were the relationships that developed meeting other local collectors, joining HCA and helping to start the Rochester Area Heisey Collectors Study Club (they hosted the first meeting in their living room). Mom and dad enjoyed many wonderful relationships with collectors in quite a few states.

I could go on and on, but as you can see from her smile, what started 30 years ago still brings her a lot of happiness. ♥

WANTS AND SALES OF HEISEY BY E-MAIL

Frank Husted, Sum of Life

A few months ago I conjured up the idea that in addition to shows, E-Bays, paper ads, collectibles cops, and other vehicles for getting and selling Heisey glass, an e-mail caper might work. So I spent considerable time amassing a list of email addresses of persons advertising in the Heisey News and added them to the twenty or more I had obtained from email dialoguing.

With more naiveté than realistic thinking, I put the first 55 addresses in a "Heisey Dealers" address file and sent my first mass mailing! I asked a simple question. "What pieces of Heisey have eluded your search?" adding that when I get a reasonably good list, I'll share it with the inter-actors in my "Dealer" file.

While the initial responses were encouraging, they also revealed some glaring deficiencies in the system. I had not given any response structure and was deluged with "wants" that read "Anything in Moongleam." Or, "Anything with the following cuttings and etchings" followed by a 40-item list of etching and cutting numbers. One respondent simply asked for "Heisey plates." The deficiency here is obvious and searching on that level, an effort in futility.

I continued to get buried in a mass of requests to which there were no "keys," no identifying descriptors. For those who gave descriptions complete with the name of the item, the pattern numbers, color, function, etc., I was able to fill a few long sought items or needs of several collectors.

The finalizing of each "connection" became an interesting game of asking price, purchase price, and shipping costs. Mine was the task of putting those numbers together to satisfy the seller and the buyer, and leave a small margin for a "finder's fee."

At this time, I'm wondering if it really will work in helping dealers and collectors get together. I'm taking a break until after the NCHC Show in Gaithersburg and try, in the meantime, to iron out some of the kinks. Anyone who has helpful hints will find me to be an eager listener at fhusted@comcaast.net, or 610-469-1243, or 147 Barton Drive, Spring City, PA 19475-3415. ♥

CLUB NOTES

Northwest Heisey Collectors Deborah DeJong

FEBRUARY MEETING MINUTES:

Isa had 22 members and one guest attending the meeting at her new home in Bellevue. Our guest was Flo Spittler's good friend, Alma Robertson. We had fun exploring Isa's new digs and searching for her Heisey pieces among all her other pieces of antique glass. The chicken, rice and artichoke casserole was a huge hit! Some members (the men) didn't hear her say there were two pans of it and when the first was nearing the end, they were overheard saying they shouldn't take so much and maybe should put some back. No comment on who listens better.

Old Business:

Green River Show Committee: By the time you receive this, the show will be done. We all had fun and hopefully we interested more people in Heisey and our club.

Convention Centerpiece:

Motion made and passed to limit club expense. The theme will be Picnic Time. Terri Wishert has a picnic basket to donate. We hope many other members will find "made in Washington products," or a piece of Heisey to go along with the theme. Since the basket will be transported by the de Jongs in their van, please do not give items that may suffer from heat. We will be assembling the centerpiece at the May meeting. If you can't make the meeting and have something to donate, contact either the president or secretary for arrangements. There will also be a clock made for this centerpiece.

Raffle: It seems we have a rival for all the luck in the club. Larry Hefti won the #1503 Crystolite jelly with spider bottom. He has won quite a few over the past years. Did he rub all the luck from the Bellingham crew???

Show & Tell:

The tables were littered with gorgeous pieces of colored Heisey! We had examples of the usual Sahara, Flamingo, and Moongleam; then we saw the harder to find colors of Zircon, Marigold, Tangerine, Stiegel Blue and Harvey Amber. We had a good discussion on the Harvey Amber vs. Sultana question. There were examples of Zircon and Limelight, virtually no difference! Fun for all to see, the great colors of Heisey! Some of the pieces shown are listed below:

#300 Peerless Schoppen, Flamingo; #1506 Whirlpool sugar & cream, Limelight; #355 Quator sugar & cream, Sahara; #1624 Patio tumbler, Sultana #379 Petal creamer, Hawthorne; #3404 Spanish goblet, Tangerine bowl; #1184 Yeoman footed bouillon, Canary; #4049 Old Fitz hot whiskey, Harvey Amber; #4044 New Era ice tea, Stiegel Blue bowl. Meeting Adjourned:

As it was Valentine's Day there were pink and red M & M's and heart shaped cut outs on salads. Isa also had going-away gifts for every one-Necco Conversation Hearts. We all had a sweet time and enjoyed Isa's hospitality. Thank you so much to Isa for having us. ♥

Dayton Area Heisey Collectors Judy Rhoads

The meeting of the Dayton Area Heisey Collectors #7 was held at the Huber Heights Public Library on Tuesday, February 17, at 6:30 PM. President Karen Clark presided, and 20 members were in attendance.

During our business meeting, we discussed Benefit Auction, Convention plans, a moneymaking project, and recent correspondence from HCA.

Program: Mac Otten presented a very informative program on Plantation pattern. He displayed an assortment of Plantation pieces that illustrated interesting facts, indicated rarities, and spoke of hard to find pieces. An informative handout gave us all useful information that will be helpful in our constant pursuit of Heisey glass.

Show and Tell: #305 Punty and Diamond Point 6" Vase; #1401 Empress 8 oz. Tumbler, two styles; #1503 3/4 Crystolite Tall Cylinder Candleblocks; #111 Crystal Cherub Candlesticks; #142 Cascade Sahara Candlesticks; #5 Patrician 11" Candlesticks; #305 Punty and Diamond Point Claret Jug; Janice Moongleam 4 1/2" Vase; #325 Pillows Footed Rose Bowl; #1193 Inside Scallop Hawthorne 7" Conserve; #1404 Old Sandwich 18 oz. Creamer; #1567 Plantation Cocktail; #4036 Marshall 1 Pint Decanter with #1003 Ivy Cutting. ♥

The Dixieland Heisey Club met at the home of Olen and Helen Freeman for our January 2004 meeting. Everyone enjoyed an abundance of glass viewing prior to dinner.

The minutes and financial report were approved.

It was announced that club dues for 2004 need to be paid.

There were two pieces of business related to our web site. The general email address for anyone wanting to contact Dixieland Heisey Club will be Heisey@dixielandheisey.org. A motion was made, seconded and passed to reimburse George and Lamar for one year's fees for the web site.

It was announced that if members want Show and Tell items listed in the minutes of the meeting, they must provide the secretary a written list. The secretary gets too engrossed in looking at glass to write down all the information.

The possibility of having a centerpiece display at the next convention was discussed. We will need to plan further in advance of the convention this year.

The North Carolina Heisey Study Group will host the Vivian and Percy Moore dinner this year. An auction will be held in conjunction with the banquet.

The need to grow our membership was discussed. Ideas are needed for ways to do this.

Two club officers needed to be elected. Loleta Hammontree was elected to server another term as club president. Lamar Birckbichler was elected to continue as our web master.

Joey and Diana Cogdill will host the March 2004 meeting.

The business meeting was closed and all enjoyed the annual Christmas gift exchange. ♥
