Message from the President

The first snow of the season has already blanketed the Museum grounds and Ohio weather proved itself as weather since has been sunny and windy. Speaking of wind, I have noticed that my president articles have been very lengthy and long "winded." There is just so much I want to share each month! I will try to keep it brief, so that more educational articles can fill your Heisey News.

As snow has already hit Ohio, the Christmas season is upon us, and the Museum is all "decked out" for the holiday season. A big thank you to the generous decorating teams comprised of the Dayton and Buckeye Club members. The Holiday Open House will be Saturday, December 7. During the Holiday Open House there will be a silent auction with hold back and whimsy items. The auction list is located on page 11, of this newsletter and the items will be displayed in the gift shop during the Open House. Please call the Museum if you would like to place a bid. Remember what wonderful gifts Heisey makes for Christmas. Support your Museum and give the gift of Heisey this year. Items for every person on your list are available in our gift shop. You may be surprised what we have to offer: books, DVDs, jewelry, ornaments, figurines, napkins, glass Christmas trees and sleighs, as well as real Heisey, of course!

Out-of-town and not able to get to Newark to shop? Opportunities are available to shop on our NEW and updated e-bay listings. Simply pull up ebay.com, in the search by seller type: heiseymuseum; you will see many items that are available in our gift shop. Feel free to purchase these items on-line or call the Museum to place your order. As you celebrate your holiday it would be great to see the functional uses of how you use your Heisey this holiday. Send us pictures of you and yours using your Heisey this holiday season and you may be showcased in next Heisey News.

I hope you have a wonderful Holiday Season and find Heisey under your tree.

Michael Maher

Words From Your Curator

The halls of The National Heisey Glass Museum are decked for the holiday season, thanks to many fine and hardworking volunteers! I trust that you are composing your "letters to Santa" and that they include many Heisey works of art. What do you think the number would be if we were able to add up all of the wonderful Heisey gifts given at this time of year since 1896? It speaks volumes of the timelessness of the quality that is Heisey that to this day so much excitement and pleasure are involved with a Heisey gift. Let us work to the goal of that always being so!

Your Museum has been the recipient of many fine donations and gifts in these past few months, both for the collection and the Gift Shop. This photograph illustrates just a few of these very much appreciated additions to the collection.

From left: 400 Colonial water bottle, Flamingo; 5026 Heirloom candlestick pair; 1255 Pineapple and Fan vase, 6" Emerald; 4192 1/2 vase 9" with Orchid etch; 160 Locket on Chain molasses can, Ruby flash, gold trim; 2nd 5026 candlestick in pair; 310 Ring Band tumbler

Your continued generosity to the Gift Shop has been wonderfully overwhelming and very beneficial. I would express a BIG THANK-YOU to everyone! I am, indeed, behind on HCA donation record forms and for that I am sorry! Please rest assured that they will be out in time for the tax man.

So many things that happen here would not happen as well or, indeed, at all without the countless hours of work put in by all of the volunteers, again very much appreciated. In particular for this issue I would like to convey my personal expression of gratitude to our archivists Amy Jo and Chuck Jones, the very dependable Dick and Marilyn Smith, and also endlessly patient Walter Ludwig. In May when I started I was an outsider, let's face it. I had not come up through the ranks of Heisey so to speak. These individuals as well as all of the staff, board members, and HCA members very soon and continually make me feel welcome. It is the time of year when many of us pause to give thanks, so again thank-you!

May there be many pleasant Heisey surprises in your holidays and a Very Happy 2014 to one and all!

Your curator, Jack

#366 Salem Ash Tray

By Eric Tankesley-Clarke

*On ash trays when asked to regale 'em
The writer thought words just might fail him.
But eleven in a line were enough for a time.
From White Owl to Winston to Salem.*

We're drawing to the close of the series on ash trays numbered from 356 through 366, mostly introduced in the mid to late 1920's. You thought we'd never get there, didn't you?

In April 2012 I wrote about the #360 Winston ash tray. Just as the town of Winston crowded right beside Salem, the Winston and Salem ash trays jostle each other for the same design space. Same size, same base. (2013 is the centennial of the official joining of the two towns into Winston-Salem. Not as though that matters in our ash tray discussion, but next time someone asks you about the history of the incorporation of North Carolina cities, you'll know.) No doubt whoever named the ash tray pair—it wasn't A. H. Heisey & Co. —had their sibling resemblance in mind. The only real difference between the two is that Winston has a stand in the middle for matches in a box, but Salem's central stand is made for matches in books. Two prongs rise up from the center of Salem with a slot to slip in the folding cover of matches. The matchbook support is carefully modeled with angular sides to give more character, five facets on the outside, three on the inside of each prong. Look right down at the bottom of the match holder and you're likely to see the Heisey mark.

The base is exactly the same size and appearance between the two, with four cigar holders around the rim. (You may recall I had a touch-and-go moment in squaring the cigarette brand Winston name with a cigar holder until I called on the ghost of Churchill. Unfortunately, there's no stodgy-wielding British statesman who goes by the name of Salem, and, try as I might, I can't make burning witches explain why a cigarette brand is used to name a cigar ash tray. Anyway, that's a different Salem, and those Massachusetts folks are probably sick of all the witch-burning jokes.) The bottom of the Salem ash tray is likely to be a wide, ground and polished rim, although unground fire-polished ones are certainly possible. I've seen them both ways in Winston, and my guess is Salem came both ways, too.

Another similarity is that Heisey changed the way they referred to both these pieces. At first, both #360 Winston and #366 Salem were called "ash tray and match stand." But later they changed the name in Cat. 211 to "match stand ash tray," possibly to clarify that each match stand was of one piece with its respective ash tray and not two separate pieces. The caption for #366 Salem correctly says it is for "bk. match," but I've mentioned before how they said the same thing beneath the #360 illustration when that was clearly a mistake.

As for Salem in colors, it's Flamingo and Moongleam at the very least, rose and green being more or less the flagship banner of Heisey's second color era. (Heisey salesmen were chastised for writing "rose" on order forms when the company was trying to push the Flamingo name, but we won't stand on ceremony here. A few of the old-timers may have remembered the turn-of-the-century pink they also called Rose.)

As in most patterns, #366 Salem also comes in crystal. Salem was made just as long as Winston, from about 1928 to 1937. Winston has been seen in Sahara, so I wouldn't be too surprised to see Salem in that color, too. We can't even completely rule out Marigold as a possibility, but I don't think either Winston or Salem has been seen in that color. Other colors are not likely. The few examples of Salem I've seen have not been decorated, but that doesn't mean there aren't some out there. I doubt, however, that Heisey ever applied any etchings or cuttings of their own.

There really isn't that much new to say about Salem that hasn't already been said about Winston. Does Salem care about always getting second billing? Or is it just getting a free ride?

Before we leave the series altogether, let's review. First, a reminder of what I've included in the series: #356 White Owl, #357 Duck, #358 Solitaire, #359 Chesterfield, #360 Winston, #361 Irwin, #362 Bermuda, #363 Wings, #364 Pedestal, #365 Rhombic, and #366 Salem. One might suppose that the very first one, #356 White Owl, doesn't really belong since it came out over a decade before any of the others, is a much heavier duty piece of glass, and doesn't come in colors. But you can't help but think that whoever assigned the pattern numbers looked back at White Owl and decided to pick up the numbering where it had left off. And they did continue to market White Owl alongside the others in the series.

Stylistically, all of them are reasonably plain designs, discounting a few curlicues on the Duck and the Deco ebullience of Rhombic, but there is little beyond their pattern numbers to link them all. Put all eleven of them side by side and you might never guess they were made about the same time. Bermuda, Wings, and Rhombic are probably never marked. Pedestal may belong in that list, too, and Solitaire doesn't carry the Heisey logo very often, either. The others are usually marked. Wings and Pedestal have fire-polished bottoms, but the others are always or usually ground and polished.

None of the eleven were named by the company. Researchers came along later and gave them names, some descriptive (Duck, Wings, Pedestal, Rhombic), others evocative. Five tobacco brands inspired names—White Owl, Chesterfield, Winston, Salem, and Wings, the last being the only name both descriptive and redolent of the smoking era. Two of the cigarette brands, Winston and Salem, came to market in the 1950's so weren't even around when the ash trays were made. The White Owl brand of cigars had been available for many years, but was a low-end brand that serious cigar smokers such as Clarence Heisey likely would have disdained. Chesterfield and Wings cigarette brands were very much of the time, with Wings cigarettes coming out in 1927, and Chesterfield being so popular during the 1930's it was the sponsor of its own radio show, The Chesterfield Hour.

There are three in the group with cigar rests—White Owl, Winston, and Salem—but none of them were specifically labeled for cigars by the company. Three others—Chesterfield, Wings, and Rhombic—don't have proper rests at all. Five of them hold matches: White Owl, Chesterfield, and Winston have blocks to slip partially opened match boxes over them; Duck and Salem have slots to hold up match books. Irwin was originally designed to hold boxes of matches, but that feature is missing in the production piece. Irwin is the only one in the series made to hold cigarettes. The series is about evenly divided between those that could be considered individual ash trays and the larger ones.

Colorwise, White Owl came only in crystal. As for the other ten, all of them are known in Flamingo. Crystal and Moongleam examples are known for all but Bermuda, and it may well have come in those colors, too. Solitaire, Winston, and Irwin are known in Sahara, but some others may also come in that color and are just waiting to be found. Duck, Solitaire, Irwin, and Wings are reported in Marigold, and Solitaire is known in Gold, that distinctive and rare, brighter and yellower shade of Marigold that lacks the uranium green cast and glows fiery orange under ultraviolet.

While the ash trays in this group mainly continued in production through the time of Alexandrite, Tangerine, and Stiegel Blue, and some even into the Zircon years and beyond, none of them are known in those colors. Nor have any been seen in Amber of any shade. All but White Owl were introduced shortly after Hawthorne was discontinued and none are known in that color. The diligent collector may be thankful for that, because when you consider different colors, there are at least 38 or 39 different ash trays to collect in the #356-366 series, possibly more. Some are reasonably easy to find, others as scarce as the teeth of the proverbial hen.

What next? We may be done with this group of ash trays, but there is still a lot of smoking gear to cover. I just have to find ones I can rhyme.

Vital Statistics

What's Salem without Winston? Orville without Wilbur? Rogers without Astaire? You without Heisey? We all need something else to complete ourselves. I want to hear about your favorite Heisey pairings at heisey@embarqmail.com.

Dear HCA Members:

Below is the board-approved questionnaire, which we hope you will take the time to make a copy of it, answer the questions, and send back to the Museum via e-mail, fax or mail. Your input is very important to the Board of Directors. We are trying to make the newsletter, the Museum, and the membership more efficient and friendly. Please encourage all your known Heisey friends to participate, also. Deadline for returning is January 31, 2014. Thank you very much for your participation.

From the Director's Desk

It seems like such a short time ago we were enjoying a very nice Indian summer and today it snowed about two inches. This is the wake-up call that it is now time for us to complete preparations for the Holidays. I just realized that by the time you receive this issue of Heisey News, Thanksgiving will be past.

Speaking of holidays, we have an abundance of signed and numbered 2013 Christmas tree ornaments ready for shipment. The color this year is Celery, and they will look very nice with the blue ones from 2012. Last year I gave an ornament to each family on my list and I'm pleased to say that it was a big hit. I plan to do the same this year.

As we did last year, Heisey Museum will begin winter hours on December 15 and run until March 15. The museum will be open Thursday through Sunday from noon until 4 p.m., and by appointment. Staff members will be in during the week as needed.

I'm pleased to announce that we have a new addition to the "Name the Heisey" program. Sharon Holihan of Morton Grove, IL, purchased #31 Salt & Pepper and renamed it the Holihan Salt & Pepper in honor of her family.

Computers, e-mails, etc. continue to be a problem at this office. We have been plagued with a number of problems and this last month we got a very bad virus. This virus did get into some of our files on the server but we caught it quickly and minimized losses. We also learned that people sending into us from the AOL system were having their emails rejected. Our tech vendor, Alpha Link Technologies, is researching and will resolve the problems.

Heisey "E-Grams" are now functional and we will begin using them soon. Currently, we are sending to a list of members who have requested to be included. If you would like to join the list, please send me an e-mail at director@heiseymuseum.org.

Susan Bruah, our Membership Clerk, underwent some surgery, and I am pleased to announce that it went better than expected. Susan has returned to work and feels very well. We are now tasked with the job of holding her down!

The Bead Project has been well received and selling well. We are now into our second phase and your orders are coming in rapidly.

We have been receiving some glass for the Spring Auction. As stated elsewhere in this newsletter, the deadline for receipt of glass is January 15, 2014. I believe we will have another successful auction on April 4 and 5.

It is my hope that you have (or in case you receive this after, had) a wonderful Thanksgiving Holiday.

Larry Burge

Winter 2013 Holdback Silent Auction

The Holdback Silent Auction begins December 5, 2013, at noon EST and runs through Friday, January 10, 2014, at noon EST. Forms must be received in the HCA Business Office by the closing date and time.

Bids will be accepted from both members and non members. There are no reserves but, just like eBay, there will be a modest minimum first bid. Winning bidders will be notified within 7 days after the auction end date, and the amounts of the winning bids will be published in a future issue of the Heisey News. Items can be picked up beginning January 17 at the Museum after 12:00 noon.

All items are on display in the Museum Gift Shop. Bids will be accepted by mail, drop off, fax (740-345-9638), and e-mail (director@HeiseyMuseum.org). All bids will be sealed and date-stamped with the highest bid winning. In case of a tie bid, the earliest date-stamped bid wins. All bids will be competitively bid. Payment, including shipping and insurance, will not be requested until after the auction. Once a bid has been placed, it cannot be withdrawn.

2014 ALL HEISEY SPRING BENEFIT AUCTION

Dave Spahr

The 41st Annual Spring Benefit Auction will be held at the GMP Union Hall at 350 Hudson Avenue in Newark on April 4 and 5, 2014.

When you receive this newsletter you will have around 45 days to get your auction glass to us! Remember, the deadline for sending in your consignment and/or donation for us to sell for the benefit of the Museum is January 15, 2014. Each member can consign 40 lots and there is no limit on lots you can donate. Please note that in addition to Heisey Glass, we are also accepting glass made from Heisey moulds by other manufacturers.

If you or someone you know is coming to the Museum or the general Columbus area, you might have them bring your glass to the Museum in Newark so you will know it will get there safely and also eliminate shipping costs. I would encourage anyone making deliveries to plan on spending a bit of extra time if they come in December to see the Museum while it is decorated in its Christmas splendor! The Museum is a sight to behold! We will also be having our annual Open House on December 7 along with the Licking County Historical Society, so the other two buildings in Veteran's Park will also be open for touring.

Back to auction information—if you need a packing sheet or contract, please copy them from this newsletter or go online at the Heisey Museum website and download what you need. Remember, please send TWO contracts with your glass and I'll return a signed copy to you. Please be sure to put a copy of the packing sheet in each box that identifies the glass in that box. Our volunteer catalogers will be very appreciative!

The success of this event is dependent on you and other members consigning or donating good, clean, problem-free glass. We are steadily improving the quality of the items in our auctions by reducing the numbers of damaged or problem pieces included in our auctions. We have received positive feedback from absentee bidders who are well satisfied with the quality of the glass they bid on and win! This will translate into more absentee bidders over time and with higher values received. Higher values obtained for the glass benefit you and the Museum.

Auction Dates: April 4-5, 2014

Auction Location: BMP Local #244 Union Hall, 350 Hudson Ave., Newark OH 43055

Consignments

All items consigned for sale or donated are to be made by A. H. Heisey and Company or by other manufacturers using Heisey moulds. The owner/ consignor / member, hereafter referred to as the owner, agrees to accept all responsibility for providing merchantable title for all glass sold.

Each owner may consign a maximum of forty (40) lots to the auction. A list of glass being consigned or donated and prepared by the owner is attached as an integral part of this contract. There is no limit on the number of items in each lot, but HCA retains the right to increase / decrease size / make up of each lot. Each owner may donate an unlimited number of lots to HCA for sale at the auction. HCA, however, at its discretion, will consign donated items for auction, add donated items to the museum collection, and/or sell donated items in the museum shop.

The HCA Auction Committee is authorized to reject any glass not deemed acceptable to HCA standards for this auction. These items may be returned to the consignor if they desire, at their expense. Otherwise, these items become the property of HCA.

Commission

Owners of glassware to this sale will be charged on the following sliding scale of commission per lot: $5.00-$50.00= 40%; $50.01-$200.00= 30%; $200.01-$400.00= 20%; $400.01-$750.00= 15%; $750.01 and over= 10%.

Settlement

Payments (settlement) to the owner for glass sold will be made in full not later than fifteen days after the completed auction from the HCA Auction Trust Account. Said account is set up and operated consistent with ORC Section 4707.024. The owner and HCA agree that no other payments will be required to be made in less than fifteen days. HCA will pay expenses including auction site rental, advertising fees related to this auction from its' commission from this account. Collection of funds, bad checks, debts, and unpaid auction lots is the responsibility of HCA.

Responsibility

It is the responsibility of the owner to deliver the glassware to the National Heisey Glass Museum on or by January 15, 2014. HCA accepts responsibility for the glass after it is received at the Museum and until it is sold except that any glass damaged in shipment to the Museum will be referred to the shipper and owner. All glass damaged or lost while in the possession of HCA prior to sale will be valued by a qualified appraiser or appraisers and the owner will be paid on this basis, less commission.

Auction and Bidding

The auction will be a reserve auction. A reserve auction means an auction in which the owner or agent of the owner reserves the right to establish a minimum opening bid, the right to accept or reject any or all bids, or the right to withdraw the real or personal property (lot) at any time prior to the completion of the auction by the auctioneer.

HCA and the owner agree that:

1. The items will be sold to the highest bidder without reserve,
2. HCA and/or its auctioneer, has the right to accept or reject any or all bids,
3. HCA has the right to establish a minimum opening bid,
4. The owner may not withdraw the lot(s) at any time prior to the completion of the auction,
5. In the event no bids are received on a lot, that lot becomes a donation to HCA.

The minimum opening bid per lot is $5.00 with a minimum bidding increment at the discretion of the auctioneer.

The owner and HCA both agree that absentee bids will be accepted by HCA. The minimum absentee bid on a lot will be $15.00 with a minimum opening bid of $5.00. Absentee bids are bids left by buyers prior to the auction and are executed in a competitive manner. Per HCA policy, HCA does not use the full bid amount as a starting bid. Bidding is initiated in the audience and then offered on behalf of the absentee bidder at the next increment continuously until bidding has stopped. (Example: Absentee bidder leaves a bid with a maximum amount of $500.00. After item is sold through competitive bidding, the absentee bidder is successful for $325.) HCA reserves the right to accept or reject any and all absentee bids. HCA is not responsible for misfiled bids that are not executed.

The owner or a person on behalf of the owner may make a bid on a lot the owner consigns or has donated if the auction is a reserve auction and the auctioneer provides full disclosure before bidding that the owner retains the right to bid. Absent this disclosure, owners cannot bid or have others bid on their behalf on their own consigned or donated items. Said bidding would constitute bid rigging and be in violation of ORC 4707.023.

General Auction Terms and Conditions

Northwoods Heisey Club of Minnesota

by Ann M. Moll

Seven members met at the home of Eileen Bergren in Brooklyn Park, a suburb of Minneapolis, Minnesota. During the meeting the treasurer read two letters from HCA thanking our club for our recent donations to the Foundation and to the Operating Fund.

The 2014 schedule was established as follows: March 8--Eileen Bergren, May 10--Doug and Carole Olsen, August 9--Bob and Bev Heise, and October 11--Virginia Johnson. The meetings are on the second Saturday of the month and begin at 1:00 p.m.

All club members are invited to attend a holiday luncheon at the home of Doug and Mary Olsen on December 14, 2013.

After sharing information about David Schnaidt's death, the group approved a motion to send $100 as a memorial in David's name. Treasurer Bev Heise will send a cover letter to HCA and also write a letter to his parents, Sam and Heide Schnaidt. The family has been volunteering at HCA for several years.

Show and Tell began with a light fixture with plaid pattern made by Holophane (circa 1900). Also shown was a Crystolite nut (swan), rabbit paperweights, a 352 Flat Panel candy, and concluded with the hostess sharing a beautiful collection of the Tiger paperweights in all colors made by Imperial Glass Company.

Eileen presented the program on Heisey animals. She prepared an informative and 22-page brochure for each member and had many of the glass animals to view. She also demonstrated with a black light how Heisey glass can be identified. The program finished with a video of Mosser Glass Production making Heisey 1429 Tulip vase in black.

The afternoon ended with delicious apple salad, apple crisp, cheese and crackers, coffee or juice, and lots of friendly conversation.

Make a Larger Gift Than You Thought Possible

Thank you for your support for the mission and legacy of the Heisey Collectors of America, Inc. (HCA) and the important work we do through this organization. With an eye on end-of-year giving, we would like to bring to your attention a wonderful opportunity to support HCA using your Individual Retirement Account (IRA) before the end of 2013.

If you are 70 1/2 or older, you can make a gift of up to $100,000 from your IRA to the HCA and, at the same time, meet your annual minimum required distribution (MRD). By making an IRA charitable rollover gift, you are able to avoid federal taxes on the IRA distribution while supporting our charitable mission. Just contact your IRA custodian bank or brokerage firm and request an IRA charitable form. The rest is easy.

If you have any questions, please contact Larry Burge, Museum Director, at 740-345-2932.

Thank you for your generous support.

Great Plains Heisey Club

By Kathy Files, Secretary

On the ninth of November, 23 Great Plains Heisey Club members were treated to an early Christmas with over 20 trees adorned with a variety of beautiful ornaments and holiday décor throughout the Pat and Rex Lucke home in Elkhorn, NE. So elegant and so lovely!

Our first activity was an excellent lunch buffet featuring some of Pat’s family recipes. So delicious! Sleigh bells were heard and much to our surprise, Santa appeared with a gift for Rex Lucke and candy canes for all. (Hopefully, no neighbors thought Pat & Rex had lost their calendars.) Several members had recently celebrated birthdays so we sang to Rich, Mary, Bob, and Glen. President “Santa” Mock expressed thanks to Pat and Rex for hosting, and a Pillows bowl was passed for the lunch collection—with proceeds donated by Pat and Rex to the club treasury. The previous meeting minutes were approved and the Treasurer’s report was given. John and Trudy Mock added $40 they had received for hosting a Quester’s meeting. Heisey was the subject and they shared a display of glass from their personal collection.

Mary gave updated HCA Board news. Six of our members attended the Percy & Vivian Moore event and auction in Newark and stated their enjoyment of the various activities. Thanks to the organizers—the home tours and new venues were really appreciated by us out-of-state attendees.

It was called an election of 2014 officers, but the recipients considered it a lengthening of their sentences. President John Mock, Treasurer Tom Files, and Secretary Kathy Files continue with no parole or pardon for good behavior in sight. Eric Tankesley-Clarke was also decreed to remain as Program Director. It was agreed the 2014 dues would remain at $5 per person. Gregg reported he is working to resume our website domain arrangement.

“Martha’s Moment” was an admission of “Martha’s Mistakes.” Two pairs of candlesticks resembling Heisey Crystolite and Patrician turned out to be Cambridge and Fostoria. Martha warning: Always take Heisey reference books when hunting!

Eric’s program covered the colors of Emerald and Moongleam. Those green colors fit the Christmas theme perfectly. Multiple examples were shown and variations discussed. Green glass from other companies was also shown for comparison. Eric gives us so much good information—thank you, Eric, for another great program.

Show & Tell was enlightening as usual. Members continue to bring “finds” and pieces I sometimes think are Heisey cutting; V-835 Wild Ducks 13.5" bowl, Turquoise (Limelight); and Athena footed candy jar with cutting, to name some of the items.

A 50/50 auction and Jean's jam sales were then held to help the club treasury.

Check out the pictures and all our latest news on our website: www.greatplainsheiseyclub.org.

President Mock adjourned the meeting because it was dessert time. A table was laden with so many good treats and we enjoyed them all. Thank you, Pat & Rex, for a fun time at your lovely home. Everything was a delight and really put us in a holiday mood in early November . . . so Merry Christmas to all and to all, a

Heisey Collectors of Texas

By Sharon Sweeney, Secretary

The members of the Heisey Club of Texas traveled to Hamilton for their November meeting. Hamilton is southwest of the Dallas Ft. Worth area. Long time members Barbara and Dale Caraway hosted the meeting in their beautiful home filled with Heisey glass. There were 17 members present.

For Veterans' Day, President Mike Morgan recognized two members who are veterans: Charles Baird and George McNeil.

President Morgan reported that HCA would be happy for our club to support a grant for their Student Intern Program. George Ann Powell proposed a matching fund.

It was announced that Greg Cameron is scanning thirty years of past issues of HCA Newsletters to PDF files. The newsletters will be available to access on the HCA website when this project is completed.

President Morgan asked for members to host the 2014 bi-monthly meetings. Members graciously volunteered to host all the meetings.

Plan ahead for the Vivian and Percy Moore Weekend in 2014. It will be in Williamsburg, Virginia, in September. William McKelvey has resigned as HCA President. The new president is Michael Maher and vice-president, Mary Cameron.

Following our business meeting, delicious refreshments were served by our hostess on what else but beautiful Heisey glassware!

The program was presented by Greg Freeman and Dale Caraway. Greg reported on the No.1503 Crystalite 10- inch floral bowl in Dawn. Dale compared two candlesticks: No.47 Regal and No. 68 Hepplewhite. The meeting ended with Show and Tell.

The sentiments expressed on this cover of A.H. Heisey's glass industry publication, Table Talk, in the December issue (right) are just as timeless today as they were in 1937. And the same is true for Heisey glass.

We, the HCA staff and board members, would like to extend these seasonal greetings to all of you for this time of year and throughout 2014.

Come at your leisure to enjoy more than 6,000 pieces of glassware produced by A.H. Heisey and Company from 1896-1957. Hundreds of patterns are featured in all production colors. Rare and experimental items are included as well. Facilities are air-conditioned and handicapped accessible.
