National Heisey Glass Museum

Heisey Collectors of America, Inc., a non-profit corporation (tax-exempt status), owns and operates the National Heisey Glass Museum. Open year round, Tuesday through Saturday, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. and Sunday, 1 p.m. to 4 p.m., closed holidays. Other hours by appointment. Members admitted free. Regular admission $4.

Message from the President

The Museum Shop had a great month in December with more than $14,000 worth of sales. There must have been a lot of "Gifts of Heisey" this Christmas! Let's see what we can do to keep that up for 2016!

The Museum's lower level has been booked for meetings and events in the coming months. I am not sure if everyone knows the Museum is available, for a small fee, for almost any kind of event; birthday parties, business meetings or even weddings! Please see Susan, Beth or Jack for more information and availability.

Dave (Mr. Auction) Spahr and his team will be cataloging glass for the upcoming Spring Benefit Auction. The first two weekends in January will be for the cataloging, cleaning, and inspection of consigned glassware. If you are available we could use your help.

The Spring Benefit Auction will be at the GMP Union Hall on April 15 and 16. In conjunction with the auction there will be the semi-annual membership meeting to be held on Saturday, at 9:00 am with the auction directly after. More information follows in Heisey News.

The All Heisey Glass Show And Sale will be at the AVFD Hall in Annandale, Virginia on Saturday, March 19 and Sunday, March 20. Presenting the "show card" found in this issue of Heisey News will result in a discount to the show!

There are too many more events coming in 2016 to mention here, like the Convention, PVM weekend and the Fall Select Auction, but they are all on the website www.HeiseyMuseum.org. Also, check out the Museum Shop, you might just find that one missing piece for your collection or a special gift for someone!

We are sad to report the loss of members; lone O'Connor, 94, of Maryland, died May 5. She had been a valued member of the Heisey Collectors of America since 1993. lone was an avid Heisey collector. Mac W. Otten a member since 1990 died on Dec.26, the week earlier he had enjoyed a wonderful Birthday card shower from all his friends near and far to celebrate his 90th birthday. Mac was a very active member of HCA, volunteering at the Museum & Dayton Study Club. He will be missed.

I hope everyone has a happy and healthy New Year!

Happy Heisey hunting!

Distinctive & - one of a kind - New Entry Doors with Heisey Glass to Welcome All to The Heisey Museum

By: Caroline K. Jensen

In the fall of 2014, Jack Burriss wrote in his Curator's column about several possible new projects for the museum. One of those was to replace the old blank front doors, adding Heisey glass panels. I am an HCA member, avid collector, and a stained glass artist for over 40 years, and therefore very interested. This past May I met with Jack and Michael Maher at the museum. Our first decision was to have a large Diamond H featured in each of the two upper panels surrounded by Heisey glass pieces.

Over the summer and fall the master plan for the doors, two 25" by 34" panels above the break bar containing the Diamond H centerpieces, and two panels below the bar measuring 25" by 20" containing the Heisey dates and dedication was formulated with much input. As many Heisey patterns, etching, and features as can be found/donated and will fit, will be incorporated into these distinctive doors.

During the December 5th Holiday Open House, I presented the final layouts of the panels and showed how this will all come together for the June 2017 annual meeting. Already members of HCA are adding their parts to the work. President Roy Eggert is also working with the glass. If you have bits and pieces of Heisey glass that you have not sent in for the Museum's projects, you may mail the glass to me directly. All glass that is not used will be upcycled by the Museum. There will be more details and pictures about this very exciting project included in the February newsletter.

Words From Your Curator – Director

A Very Happy 2016 to everyone and hope that your holidays were joyous and that there were Heisey gifts for all! We had a fun filled and well attended Holiday Open House on the 5th of December and the Museum offered gracious Heisey hospitality to each and every one of our guests. Thank You again to all who worked so hard in so many ways to make this event possible and the success that it was. Your board members and many volunteers worked as a team to present an event that all of HCA can take pride in. We, your staff, are still receiving many complements about the Open House and for that matter many things. As we begin 2016 it is only natural to reflect back on 2015, in order to learn for both what we did well and what we need to continue to improve.

One area of improvement for the New Year is a new Canon copier for the Heisey Museum. We look forward to learning all that it can do to enhance this publication and the many other benefits that it will offer HCA. I am looking forward to the exciting, always educational fun work that will go on here in preparation for the Spring Benefit Auction to be held on April 15 and 16. The cataloging has begun and there are many items to dream over I assure you. Dave Spahr and the crew put in countless hours of hard work to benefit us all so please start making your auction plans now. I am making my arrangements to attend the “Annandale” All Heisey Glass Show & Sale that are able to join me there as well!

Sunday, January 3rd found me celebrating the Holidays and the New Year with the Dayton Area Heisey Collectors’ Club at their annual party. Walter and I drove down to be included as guests of this always fun and surprise filled event. I want to Thank You all for your most gracious and appreciated hospitality as well as “Heizingo”,(the group’s very special gift exchange game). Joe Harner, the organizer, also informed me of two new members to their club, so welcome. The gathering was very sorry to note the passing of Mac Otten on the December 26, 2015. The first year that I enjoyed this event I had the opportunity to meet Mac and was impressed with his Heisey knowledge and sense of fun and my opinion of him only improved in subsequent meetings. We also note with sadness the passing of long time HCA Member since 1975, Milton Carden of Kentucky on December 10, 2015.

The Great Plains Heisey Club has always been very good to me and HCA as well as the Museum so I want to make sure that their website is listed correctly to start the New Year off well. That being said the address is: www.greatplainsheiseyclub.org. 2015 was a GOOD year around here and your staff is planning on and preparing for an even BETTER 2016 so please continue to be part of the HEISEY fun and success!

Joy to All in 2016 !

2016 Percy & Vivian Moore Dinner

September 30 - October 2, Grapevine, Texas

Grapevine, Dallas, & Ft. Worth, things to see and do at the 2016 PVM Dinner.

Grapevine, Texas is the host city for the 2016 Percy & Vivian Moore Dinner. Located near the DFW airport and approximately 20 miles east of Ft. Worth. Grapevine is in the center of activity in the Dallas-Ft. Worth area. Known as the Christmas Capital of Texas, Grapevine is also known for wine. September 15-18, 2016 is GrapeFest, the largest wine festival in the Southwest and the largest consumer judged wine competition in the nation.

Grapevine also has a Historic Main Street, a working blacksmith shop, Vetro glass blowing studio and a historic railroad, complete with a working 1896 steam engine. Links to this information are provided at our website, www.heiseycollectorsoftexas.org.

Ft. Worth, also known as Cowtown, is home to the Ft. Worth Stockyards National Historic District, Kimball Art Museum, Amon Carter Museum of American Art, Ft. Worth Zoo, Water Gardens, Botanical Gardens and Japanese Gardens, the Sid Richardson Museum, and Sundance Square. Links to these and others are on our website at www.heiseycollectorsoftexas.org.

Tops on the to do list in Dallas Texas is the Dallas Arboretum. September 17 - November 23, 2016 is the fall season featuring the Tom Thumb Pumpkin Village, with more than 75,000 pumpkin, gourds and squash. The 66-acre grounds will also feature more than 150,000 blooming flowers. A must see event! The Texas State Fair runs from September 25-October 18. The Fair is known for fried food, so be prepared for extra-ordinary! The Texas Book Depository, George W. Bush Presidential Library, Perot Museum of Nature and Art, Dallas Museum of Art, Dallas World Aquarium, Frontiers of Flight Museum, and of course, South Fork Ranch of J.R. Ewing fame are also local sites to visit. These and other links can be found on our website at www.heiseycollectorsoftexas.org.

2016 ALL HEISEY SPRING BENEFIT AUCTION

Dave Spahr, Auction Chair

Hope you and yours had a very enjoyable holiday season. Did you include among your New Year's Resolutions a pledge to help your HCA in 2016 by sharing your resources, talents, and time with us? We hope so!

One of the very first things you can do in 2016, if you haven't already, is check those storage units, closets, cupboards, and curio cabinets and then select and consign glass for our 43th Annual Heisey Benefit Auction. Remember the deadline for getting your glass to the Museum is January 15, 2016. The auction will be held April 15 & 16, 2016, at GMP Local #244 Union Hall on 350 Hudson Ave. in Newark.

I am looking for help to check in, inspect, catalog, and repack our auction glass. If you would like to help, please contact me. It is a great way to make new friends, learn about the glass, and volunteer for HCA to benefit the Museum.

If you have questions or concerns, please contact me at masdgs@aol.com or give me a call at 937.372.7166.

Happy Heisey Hunting and I'll see you in April.

On the Air With Heisey...Part II

By Michael Maher

In the August Heisey News page 17, I had written a brief article on the Heisey Radio broadcasts and Radio Show feature "The Crystal Gazer." This is the original Audio which was on a vinyl record, (I believe they were called "78's"), where we can hear the tale of the Crystal Gazer by Cecil Fleming renowned baritone artist from the time, and then the A.H. Heisey and Company advertisement for sponsoring the program. It was really a very cool original story that we had never "heard" before. The Baritone Crystal Gazer and the story of Heisey's radio sponsorship is very interesting and draws a lot of attention as it plays from the console radio in the hallway that connects Gallery 1 and the King House. It feels and sounds as it would have originally in 1928 when it debuted on the air. This true restoration and preservation of the sound had me inspired and my creative mind started thinking what else we could do to tell the story of the A. H. Heisey and Company of Newark Ohio.

Amongst the vinyl records were other paper radio scripts of later (1930s-40s) radio advertisements submissions to be read on the air, stories including the history of the A.H. Heisey and Company; How to choose fine glassware; a Tour of the Heisey Glass House; the History of Glass; as well as many advertisement commercials to choose Heisey Crystal the finest in Glassware for your table. The ads include Rose etching, Dolly Madison Rose, Whirlpool, Moonglo cutting and many others as well as non specific ads such as gifts for men, gifts for the hostess, and of course, the new bride. The stories are so informative and I was delighted to learn these things I had not heard/known before about our premier glass company. For instance, they explained in the factory tour that the Heisey workers use the term "Glory Hold" to describe the secondary furnace used for fire polishing. It must have been quite "glorious" when working because it was not as hot as the main furnace where the liquid glass was stored. So again we learned things from these radio commercials and scripts.

We found the stories and unheard history so intriguing and so different than any project or book could ever tell. This was audio sound from the Heisey company waiting to be heard. I contacted Earthworks recording studio in Newark to see their interest in recreating these as they would have been heard on the radio, so that the story could be told, not read! They were thrilled and very excited about the project and wanted to get their hands on it. Brandon Bankes, the chief Audio Engineer at Earthworks, was the main person working on our project and he said he thoroughly enjoyed it because he loves vintage radio and it is what got him involved in the recording industry to begin with. Earthworks brought in many different voice overs that they felt would represent each story and ad, to have a genuine vintage feel and represent them correctly and truly sell it the way it was supposed to originally when it debuted on the air.

We also asked them to add music from the era (1930s-40s) so that it would really sound like radio. Well the project turned out so fantastic that we wanted all to hear what was preserved and now can be shared by all.

I wanted to be able to play our NEW Vintage Heisey radio overhead while touring the Museum, especially in Galleries 1 and 2. I brought in several IT Project Specialists to get quotes on installing overhead speakers to play our restored sound and to educate and inspire those touring the Museum Galleries. In talking to one specialist who apparently saw my enthusiasm to complete this for the Museum agreed to install the speakers and system on his own time and do it as a volunteer donation to the Museum (we had to buy the equipment, but he would install it for us for free). He also installed surround sound in the lower level for visitors who watch the introductory video before taking a tour of the Museum. We owe a great thanks to Earthworks Recording Studio and our IT installer Tim Ballard who saw the importance of preserving a piece of history and helping us to complete our project.

If you have been to the Museum this fall you have probably heard the "draft" version of the radio program which plays overhead. The draft version was about 65 minutes long, and the final version is about an hour and 40 minutes, and will now play on a loop throughout the Museum. I am very excited to share this with you. When you come back for the Spring Auction or Convention, be sure to reserve time to tour, listen and learn something new at your Museum. If you cannot make it to the Museum in person to hear the stories and Heisey radio, we are very glad to have parts of them available on our website! Please check them out and enjoy!

We are seeking donations to offset the cost of restoring and preserving these original scripts and untold stories. If this is something that you would like to support and offset Museum costs, please send your donations to the Museum labeled "Radio Project".

- ◆ Speakers for overhead sound $260.
- ◆ Audio sound player/theatrical surround sound system $350.
- ◆ Additional Materials $200.
- ◆ Earthworks Recoding Studio editing & digitizing fee $1600.

CD's are available for sale in the Museum Shop. Now you can listen in your down time or while in your car on a road trip, driving to or from Newark, Ohio. The 2-disk set is nicely packaged and sells for $15.95. Stop in, or contact the Museum to purchase yours today!

HCA's 2016 Operating Budget

By Jon Heron, HCA Treasurer

On December 4th 2015, the HCA Board of Directors approved the 2016 budget. A copy of the budget, along with 2015 information, is shown here.

What a difference a year can make. For most of the people involved, the experience gained last year by the Financial Committee, directly led to a much smoother and faster budget process. The experience also provided a better understanding of our numbers which, in turn, resulted in a greater confidence in the 2016 expectations.

It will be hard for us as an organization to match the tremendous results of 2015. The successes of the auctions, Convention and Percy and Vivian Moore Weekend have set the bar quite high. Sales of real Heisey through the gift shop (our highest margin product!) will hopefully continue robustly. While the sales of beads have been a success beyond anyone's dreams, they are not expected to produce the same results in 2016.

The process followed to prepare the budget started with reaching out to the various individuals or groups that were in the best position to provide guidance on specific line items. This input was then taken into consideration by members of the Board of Directors, members of the Finance Committee and the HCA paid staff. As the numbers came together towards a balanced budget, we were able to challenge some of the lines with sensitivity testing in order to gain greater confidence in our expectations. Finally, we were able to look at some second level considerations and budget for a few nice to have items that were not included in the first go-around.

As you can see many HCA'ers were involved to varying degrees in this effort. One individual stands out above all the others and that is Tom Files. His breadth and depth of HCA knowledge is immense and when this is coupled with his finance and spreadsheet skills we are left with a financial masterpiece that is to be envied by all the other elegant glassware collector clubs.

Many thanks, Tom!

The Heisey Collectors of America, Inc. (HCA), a private non-profit organization which owns and operates the National Heisey Glass Museum. HCA opened the National Heisey Glass Museum in Newark, Ohio, in 1974 to establish a permanent place for the display and study of glassware manufactured by A. H. Heisey & Company, in Newark between 1896 and 1957. Since its opening, HCA has maintained the Museum and HCA's national membership in turn has generously supported the facility and HCA. This support has enabled the organization to continue to build its collection, maintain archives, add a 6,000 square foot addition to the original King House, establish an endowment, and hire professional staff. Your continued support is essential to ensure the survival and continued operations of the National Heisey Glass Museum.

TO:

Come at your leisure to enjoy more than 6,000 pieces of glassware produced by A.H. Heisey and Company from 1896-1957. Hundreds of patterns are featured in all production colors. Rare and experimental items are included as well. Facilities are air-conditioned and handicapped accessible. The opinions expressed in articles in HEISEY NEWS are those of the authors and not necessarily those of the organization. The Editorial Staff have the right to edit, with or without the consent of the author, or to refuse any material submitted for publication.

Dan & Sue Kilgore - Our grandchildren, after going to the National Heisey Glass Museum in Newark, OH, each chose a favorite pattern or color and we are finding items for each of them for Christmas & birthdays. L to R - Vanessa - Moongleam; Mitch - Cobalt; Abby - Wing Scroll; Ally - Greek Key; Nicolette - animals and Anna - Peerless. We hope they will have these beautiful items forever!
