Message from the President

The convention is almost here! It will be a wonderful time to see old friends and make new ones! There will be lots of glass to see as well. From auctions (both live and silent), the Mini Show to the Elegant Glass Show and the Flea Market Off the Square. Oh my! So much beautiful glass and not enough room to bring it all home! I hope you find that special item you have been looking for!

In October we are excited that there will be a new hard wood floor installed in Gallery 3. It will be a marked improvement to the room and much safer for the Museum visitors.

The Museum staff has been busy making sure the Museum is in tip-top shape for everyone coming to Newark. I am looking forward to trying out my new Convention souvenir (the elephant handled mug) after the Welcome Dinner at the Museum beer tasting and I understand there will also be root beer floats available.

The elections will be held at the quarterly meeting on Friday during the Convention. If you are interested in voting please be sure to have your current membership card to present to the election staff.

The Percy and Vivian Moore Weekend is approaching quickly and the plans are coming together nicely. There will be more glass, good food, lots of activities and more glass! This will be a great time for a nice getaway with some great folks in Texas. They are pulling out all the stops to make this a wonderful time for everyone.

June's glass tip: if you have multiple of one item such as wine glasses or punch cups, I have found empty beer or wine boxes with the dividers work really well. You don't need to wrap the glass, just drop it in the box! I found that if I use a wine box and cut little squares of cardboard to fit the opening I can pack many punch cups quickly.

On a sad note, we have lost a former Heisey employee. Mary Blanche (Holman) Allbaugh-Reed, 98 of Newark passed away on May 3, 2016. She began her career just before WWII. She will be missed.

Happy Heisey Hunting!

Roy Eggert

'Under the Big-Top'

Convention Update

Time is running out. Another fun-filled wonderful glass Convention is about to begin. I hope you have made your reservations. You still have a little time. We will have glass seminars, food, a chance to renew friendships, glass, and more glass. Isn't that what it is all about? Our love for Heisey glass.

Come listen to Walter Ludwig, share the different shapes, sizes and colors of blown vases. Eric Tankesley-Clarke is going to talk about optics. You all know of his knowledge as he has shared so much in his great articles in the Heisey Newsletter. Charlene Bowman has put together another amazing glass show with several new dealers.

Remember the theme, "Under the Big Top"; there will be games and surprises for all. We have a new game at the banquet this year called "Heads or Tails". Come, register, buy a ticket, and take your chance on winning an iPod.

Don't forget to stay for the Car Show on Sunday following Convention. This is in memory of founder, Dick Marsh and all the proceeds will go to benefit the Endowment Fund.

See you in Ohio,
Gordon & Darlene

Words From Your Curator – Director

The hedges are clipped and our entry court yard neatly mulched, Gallery 3 is graced with a very beautiful and fascinating Blown Vase display (see the cover) and there is even more than usual activity around our beloved Museum. I do not need to tell any of you that it is National Heisey Glass Show and Convention time! In getting one’s house in order for the big yearly “Family Reunion “ there is always more to accomplish than is completely possible. However, we are not moving The Museum Shop this year (or ever again I trust) so it is the hope and plan of all your staff to be ready to welcome you Home very soon! We are all looking forward to this always enjoyable time.

Walter and I had a very pleasurable and interesting experience on May 20th when we attended the second annual Alliance of Glass Museums in America Conference. This event was held this year by The Ohio Glass Museum in Lancaster as part of their 10th anniversary celebration, and they did a very good job of hosting. We are very fortunate to be where we are as a Museum, thanks in large part to all of the hard work that many of you have invested and are still contributing. However, there are always opportunities to learn from gatherings of fellow glass Museum staff members. If you are attending our Convention and Show and have a little time before or after I would highly recommend the Edith Head & Company Exhibition being presented by The Decorative Arts Center of Ohio in Lancaster !

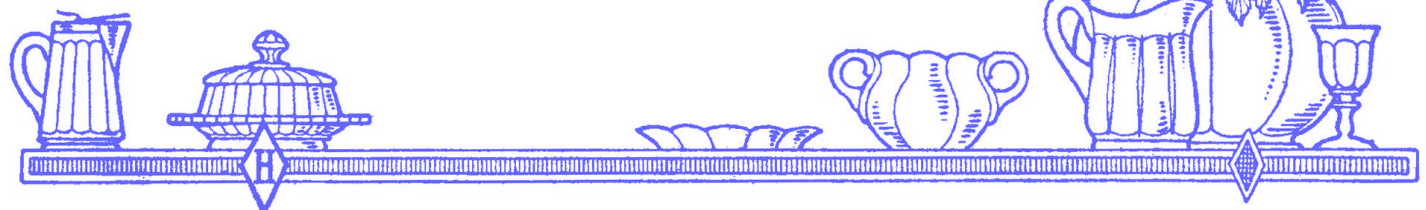

If you have been looking over our Convention schedule, you may have noticed that the “Flea Market OFF the Square” is not going to be held on the square this year due to construction. I attended the grand opening and dedication of the NEW Canal Market District held Memorial Day week end and was very happy to enjoy the new space and view The National Heisey Museum’s placard (see back cover) included, as well it should be, on the Newark timeline that is part of this project. The new venue is impressive and hopes to be part of a Downtown renaissance which could lead to more and more people having the chance to discover our fine Museum. Please look around as you enjoy a dry place for this always popular Saturday event at Convention.

I know that not all of you will be joining us in Newark this year for Convention, Show , and all that goes along with these happenings. I also know, however, that like any Family Reunion you will be missed, celebrated, and maybe even talked about and thus very much part of the FUN!

Looking Forward to seeing many of you soon, thanks, and safe travels,

VASES — 5035, 5056, 1951, 436, and 352

Walter Ludwig

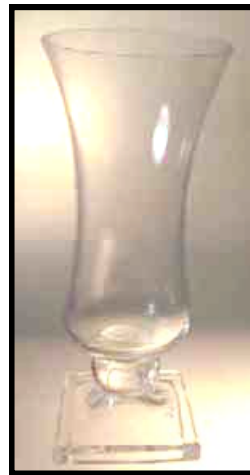

Reprinted from the Heisey News March 2006

One of my favorite fields of collecting is Heisey vases. Heisey just made so many of them in such a variety of styles, shapes, and forms. They are an item that anyone can appreciate and even find a use for. Although there are many different vases on display in the Museum, I was a bit disappointed to find, when I started to work here in the Museum, that some very unusual ones were in our storage area upstairs in the King House. I was able to relocate four of these to the mantles in the front rooms of the King House so that everyone can enjoy them. This article will tell you about these four vases as well as present you with some information on another family of vases that are not often seen.

We will start with two vases which were made in the late 1940s but only appear in Catalog 51 from 1950. Neither vase is marked and could be easily overlooked if you did not know that they were Heisey products.

From Catalog and Price List 31 (September 1950)
#6 5035 Vase, #8 5056, #7 and #9 5012

5035 Bernard vase

The first vase is the 5035 Barnard vase. This vase is related to the 5012 Urn vases. It shares the same square foot surmounted by a ball as these vases. In this case the base is 3 1/2" on a side. The shape of the vase is different, however, than those in the Urn pattern. The Barnard vase is 9 1/2" tall.

The other vase from this period is the 5056 that has never been assigned a 5035 Bernard vase name. This vase is very reminiscent of vases made by both Stueben and Duncan Miller. The vase is referred to as a free hand vase in the catalog although it was obviously molded and then shaped. This vase stands on 4 3/4" circular base. The top of the vase is formed into a fan like structure with narrow vertical panels on the ends and in the middle. This vase has a distinctly modern look and I am sure has been overlooked by many collectors not realizing it is Heisey.

5056 vase

Our third vase was not a production product. Instead, we have a vase that was formed out of the 1951 Cabochon footed cake salver. The base of the server was left as it came out of the mold forming a dome rather than being flattened as would have been done if a salver was to be made. The rest of the piece has been stretched (or possibly swung) giving the piece an overall height of 14". The salver portion has been drastically fluted. This type of vase is called a handkerchief vase. This is a very dramatic piece of glass.

1951 Cabochon handkerchief vase

The fourth vase I will talk about is part of the 436 family of vases. I was surprised when I went back to the catalogs and price lists to find an amazing variety of vases that were made in this pattern. I first found the vases in the Price List 175 from February 1, 1913. They are 1951 Cabochon illustrated in handkerchief vase Catalog 75 from 1913. They are last listed in Price List 179 from January 1, 1917 but do not appear in Price List 200 from July 1, 1917. A total of 47 different vases are listed in the basic 436 pattern. Two are listed as Sweet Pea vases, six as Carnation vases, and 39 as flower vases. The diameter of the base and the height of the vase determine the particular vase. Base diameters were 3 1/2", 4" (listed only under Carnation vases), 4 1/4" (Listed under Flower vases – could be same mold as 4" Carnation vase), 4 3/4", 5 1/2" and 6". The shortest vase was 5 1/2" and ranging up to 75". There would have been only five (or maybe six) different molds conforming to the different base widths; different heights would have been achieved by swinging the vases while they were still hot thereby elongating the vase. This process would not have produced uniform results so that is why a range of heights rather than a single height defines the vases. The story I have heard is that some of the taller vases were made by the worker opening a window on the second floor of the plant and extending the vase outside the window and swinging it.

Forty-seven vases in one pattern sounds like a lot, but there is a footnote after the basic listing that Same applies to the 436 Vase with 6 in. base, but in heights not less than 20 in. The price of these Vases will be ten per cent in advance of the regular No. 436 Vase.

From Price List 175 (1913)

greatly extends the number of different vases. The footnote reads, " We manufacture No. 436 Vases with twisted or spiral flute in heights not less than 15" and with the following bases, 3 1/2", 4 1/4", 4 3/4", and 5 1/2". Same applies to the 436 Vase with 6" base, but in heights not less than 20 in. The price of these Vases will be ten per cent in advance of the regular No. 436 Vase." If the same breakdown in height categories applies, this would add another 34 different varieties to the number of vases. It is a bit surprising that a different number was not used for these twisted vases to make ordering less confusing.

The vase I found in storage and is now displayed on the King House mantle is one of these twisted vases. Measuring, it shows that it is the smallest vase that would have been made twisted. The base is 3 1/2" and the height is 15". The designation then for this vase would be 3-436 flower vase, twisted (this follows the convention Heisey used in its catalogs of putting the particular vase number before the pattern number). I particularly like the look of these vases but they are seldom seen for sale today.

The last set of vases I will talk vase, twisted about is the 352 Flat Panel family of vases. There are a total of five vases pictured in the catalogs that use the basic design. The lower portion of the vase is 8" tall with a base that is 5 3/4" wide. With the exception of the Number 1 vase all have flanged tops. The Number 1 vase, however, has no flange; instead the vase is completed with the addition of a perforated cover which assists in flower arranging. The other four vases have different treatments done to the flange parts to differentiate them. The Number 2 has a medium flare, while the Number 3 has a wide flare. Number 4 has a droop flange (this is the one that the Museum has in its collection) and the Number 5 is designated as Tall (no flare in the upper flange). Additionally, shown on these pages is the orange bowl that is the same vase only with an even more pronounced flare.

Why I have added this vase to the group of vases that I am talking about in this article is that a visitor to the Museum brought in a vase that belongs in this family of vases, but it was different from any of the vases shown in the catalogs. This vase had a scalloped flange surmounting it that gave the vase a very elegant look. Lucky is the individual who has even one of these dramatic vases; to have the complete set would be quite an accomplishment.

Great Plains Heisey Study Group News

Submitted by Kathy Files, Secretary

Eric & Lehi discussing glass animals.

Hosts Lehi and Chris German welcomed 14 members of the Great Plains Heisey into their Kansas City home on May 14, 2016. With the assistance of their friends Marty and Dave, we were served a delicious meal of four types of smoked meat prepared by Lehi and great side dishes that proved Kansas City is the king of BBQ! Many cities and restaurants like to make that claim but Lehi and Chris are serious rivals. Thank you for sharing your talents with us.

One of our newest members, Jaci Wilson of Kansas City, was able to attend her first GPHC meeting. We hope to see her at more of our meetings. We know she enjoyed herself and left with some new knowledge and some great pieces of Heisey.

President John Mock and wife Trudy were at a granddaughter's college graduation so Treasurer, Tom Files, acted as President pro tem. After calling the meeting to order and thanking our hosts, he passed the "hat" (actually an unusual Yeoman bowl) for our lunch – with the proceeds graciously donated to the club treasury by our hosts. The minutes of our previous meeting were approved and the treasury balance announced. Our club voted to split our donation to HCA during the convention 50% to the operating fund and 50% to the endowment fund.

"Martha's Moments" in Trudy's absence were demonstrated by our hostess, Chris German, using a Horsehead cigarette box for pickles, a Fish Bowl for M&M's, and a Swan master nut for cashews – proving once again Heisey is as versatile as Windex in a Big Fat Greek Wedding movie. After discussing the candidates for the HCA Board election, we made a decision on how to mark our Club ballot. Display tables at the convention show and sale were discussed and at least 2 members advised they would be participating.

Our program about glass animals was conducted in a discussion format with our program director Eric Tankesley-Clarke interviewing Lehi about the "whys" and the "hows" of his large collection of primarily Heisey animals displayed on their large pool table (with a Heisey blue under cloth). We saw nearly every Heisey animal and decanters and cocktail shakers with animal components. Several of the animals were settling into their new home from the Spring benefit auction held in April in Newark. They look spectacular in K.C.! We all enjoyed the informative conversational program and expect to repeat that format sometime in the future.

Show and Tell included impressive Heisey as usual: Convex Circle cruet; Cabochon and New Era cordials; rarely seen #8 punch ladle; Mentor pickle tray; 1190 Yeoman cream, fruit bowl, and lemon dish; Plain Band hotel cream and sugar; Puntly Band hotel cream and Puntly Band 1 qt. tankard with elaborate engraving/ruby flash; Greek Key 2 handled jelly; Old Sandwich 10 oz. goblet/Moongleam; 1469.5 Ridgeleigh covered puff; 6" Pineapple and Fan rose bowl; Horseshoe vase with Diana carving; and Yeoman cocktail shaker with chrome fitting/Cobalt.

We conducted a 50/50 auction to benefit our treasury and, ultimately, HCA. Thanks to all who donated and purchased. A raffle was held for unspecified Heisey and other glass in a big box. Bill Kallmer purchased the winning ticket and elected to keep some of the items and auction others to benefit our treasury. Thanks Bill. Mary and Gregg will be filling the raffle box in July.

We adjourned to the kitchen for our choice of 3 pies and cookies and watermelon as sweet endings for our May meeting. We also enjoyed the garden views and tours around Lehi and Chris' house. GPHC thanks our hosts for a special time at their home and all that tasty food.

Our next meeting will be in Omaha on July 9 at the home of John and Trudy Mock featuring a program on pitchers and jugs. Guests are always welcome. As always, please check on our website www.greatplainsheiseyclub.org now and then to keep up with our latest news, pictures, and other information. Gregg Cameron does a great job keeping this site current and informative.

The National Heisey Glass Museum

Augustus H. Heisey chose Newark, Ohio, because the Newark Board of Trade was actively seeking industry, there was an abundance of natural gas nearby, and plenty of low cost labor was available. Construction of the factory at 301 Oakwood Avenue began in 1895 and it opened in April of 1896. The factory employed nearly 700 people. There was a great demand for the fine glassware and Heisey sold it all over the world. The National Heisey Glass Museum was established in Newark in 1972 to display and promote the study of the products of the A.H. Heisey & Company (1896-1957).
