Message from the President

Enthusiastic devotees of HCA Heisey auctions, I hope you are ready for the 2024 Spring Benefit Auction! If you have browsed the auction catalog, you may have noticed some unique pieces offered in the auction.

HCA Convention registration is now open on the museum website for those wishing to register and pay online. Of course, mail-in registration is still accepted. Doubletree by Hilton Newark is our convention hotel. Call 740-322-6455 for reservations. Be sure to let them know you are with HCA for a discounted Heisey rate.

Since the HCA Annual Convention is a member sponsored event, the Convention Committee welcomes members willing to volunteer how or whenever you can during the convention. Several study clubs have already offered some amazing auction items. Has your club decided how they will assist with this member activity?

Gallery 3 will soon be totally transformed with a stunning new display. For the next four months visitors will be able to enjoy Heisey's many beautiful candlesticks of all sizes, shapes and colors. The timing of the display will coincide with the introduction of the third edition of the newly revised and expanded Candlesticks book. Thank you, Walter Ludwig and Eric Tankesley-Clarke, for this extraordinary joint project.

The Buckeye Study Club's annual Easter Egg Hunt was well attended this year. Children delighted in locating the colorful eggs hidden around the yard. A well-deserved thank you to the Buckeye Study Club members for their continued sponsorship of this community outreach program.

Is the Heisey News delivery a problem for you? Those members who have been having problems receiving the digital copy, your servers mark the mass mailing as spam. It is suggested that you check your personal spam folder and email settings. Problem with receiving it in the U.S. mail in a timely fashion? Since Heisey News is a good-size mailing, it is sent as periodical mail. Commonly referred to as bulk mail, this method can save for-profit companies about 40% and nonprofits even more. To use this cost-saving mailing, we must follow specific sorting, tagging and paperwork procedures and accept that Heisey News may take longer to arrive at our homes than if it was sent first class.

Heisey News is waiting for your article on your first piece of Heisey that you brought or were given as a gift. When did you first realize you had an American made piece of glass produced at the Heisey factory? Do you have a fond memory of that occasion? Collectors love to share their stories. Won't you share yours with all of us?

HCA General Membership Meeting April 13

Heisey Collectors of America will hold its first General Membership Meeting of 2024 on Saturday, April 13 at 9 a.m., at the GMP Local 244 Union Hall, 350 Hudson Ave., Newark. This is immediately prior to the second day of the Spring Benefit Auction. All HCA members are welcome to attend.

In addition to brief remarks and announcements from HCA President Suzanne Parker, the agenda will include an announcement of the slate of candidates for the June election. Additional candidates may be nominated at the meeting.

The union hall opens at 8:30 a.m. for the auction preview. The auction begins at 9:30 a.m.

HCA and Museum Updates

2024 HCA CONVENTION ANNOUNCEMENTS:

Share Your Heisey Knowledge!

Since its inception, HCA has relied almost exclusively on members to educate each other about Heisey glass through articles and presentations. In that spirit, the 2024 Convention Committee is asking members to share their Heisey knowledge by presenting 30- to 45-minute seminars during the convention.

With the theme of this year's convention being In the Heisey Garden, a seminar exploring any of Heisey's various floral cuttings and etchings would be a natural fit. Other possibilities: Heisey's early years, candlesticks, stemware, setting a sparkling table with Heisey, starting a Heisey collection, and creative ways to use and display your Heisey glass. Consider teaming up with a Heisey friend for a presentation.

If you are interested in presenting a seminar, please contact Suzanne Parker at Parkerssw@aol.com.

Donations Sought for Convention Auctions, Hospitality

The 2024 convention will include the customary silent auction and banquet auction to support our museum. Traditionally many wonderful items for these auctions have been donated by HCA members and study clubs. Gift baskets that include glass as well as items that reflect your region of the country are always enticing. Doughnuts and coffee will be offered prior to the HCA annual meeting. Cash donations to help defray this cost are welcome.

Donations are also requested to help defray the banquet cost of our business and other museum partners who are invited each year. These may be mailed or delivered to the museum. If you would like to donate a piece of glass or a gift basket to be auctioned, please contact: Suzanne Parker, Parkerssw@aol.com, 703-472-1614.

Volunteers Needed to Help With Convention Tasks

Creating a smooth running, successful convention takes help from many volunteers. This year volunteers are needed to: Take tickets at the glass show. Greet visitors to the table displays at the glass show. Assist with the refreshments at the HCA Annual Meeting. Greet visitors to the seminars. Mentor first time convention attendees. Assist with the silent auction. Set up the display of glass for the live auction during the banquet. Assist with clean up after events.

To volunteer, please contact Julie Goletz, goletzjr@gmail.com, 740- 345-9307.

Ask for Heisey Rates When Reserving Your Hotel

The Doubletree by Hilton Newark, 50 North Second Street, Newark, is offering a special $105 per night rate for members attending HCA events. Call 740-322-6455 and ask for the Heisey rate when you reserve a room.

Banquet Table Sponsorship Opportunities

Consider supporting the National Heisey Glass Museum by sponsoring a table at the annual banquet, Friday, June 14, at the Doubletree by Hilton Newark. Sponsors at all levels get a reserved table for six guests, wine, gourmet chocolates from Goumas Candyland, plus recognition in the convention program and the national newsletter. For more information about sponsorship, call Suzanne Parker, Parkerssw@aol.com, 703-472-1614.

Treasurer's Report by Caleb-Michael Files

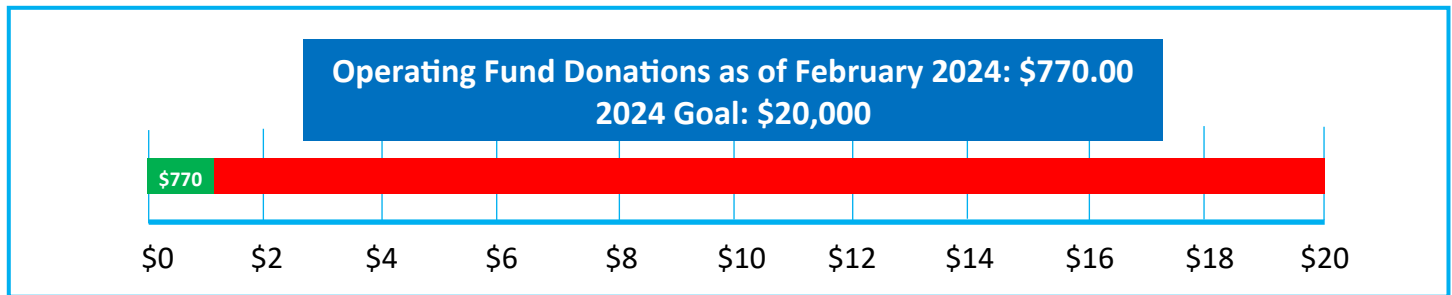

January and February are traditionally slow months for revenue at the museum. Revenue should pick up in the coming months with spring's arrival and the upcoming spring auctions set for this month. With that said, total income through the end of February was $13,837 against a budget of $13,680, resulting in a positive variance YTD of $157.

Year-to-date expenses through February were under budget by $10,922.

Watch for first quarter financials and an update on the endowment balance next month.

Heisey Collectors of America Convention

June 13-15, 2024

We are so excited to be returning to downtown Newark, Ohio for our convention activities this year.

After reviewing the 2023 convention survey questionnaires, requests to consolidate convention activities in proximity to each other were taken into account when planning the events this year. All activities are scheduled either at the Heisey Museum, The Skylight, or the convention hotel Doubletree by Hilton Newark, which is offering a special rate of $105 per night. Rooms at the Doubletree must be booked no later than May 10.

OPENING CONVENTION EVENING – June 13

The opening convention evening will begin with the premiere glass show at The Skylight followed by Night at the Museum at the Heisey Museum. The Skylight was originally the Newark Post Office, which was built in 1916, and later became the Newark City School Administration Offices. It is now a wonderful example of the adaptive reuse of a historic downtown building. The name of the facility originates from the front entrance area of the building, the breathtaking skylight, giving a unique historical elegance to the space. After your visit to the always fabulous Glass Show and Sale, spend the rest of your evening visiting with friends, visiting the gift shop, and meeting the candidates for the Board of Directors, all while sampling wonderful hors d'oeuvres and desserts in Gallery 3 of the King House. During the evening be sure to participate In the Heisey Garden scavenger hunt throughout the museum galleries, locating examples of Heisey items relating to the convention theme. All completed entries will be eligible for a fabulous In the Heisey Garden gift.

FRIDAY EVENTS – June 14

On Friday morning, the membership meeting will be held in the museum multipurpose room. Breakfast snacks and coffee will be available in the “Trellis Café” thanks to donations from several study clubs. The election of board members will take place at this time. Silent auction items displayed in Gallery 1 will be available for you to up your bid on that special item. Seminars will be conducted at the museum on Friday afternoon and during the day Saturday. Friday afternoon the Glass Show and Sale awaits you. Taking inspiration from the beautiful table displays as you enter the show, the participating glass dealers will be happy to assist you in choosing that perfect piece of Heisey for your table display at home.

Friday night's banquet provides time for members to be together sharing their long friendships and many Heisey memories. Do wear your favorite garden party outfit. The highlight of the evening is the live auction, always fun and fast-paced.

On Saturday, a convention favorite activity returns! The Canal Walk Flea Market, with the extremely popular dime toss, will offer another chance to find some great Heisey pieces before you return to the glass show and sale before the 2024 show's closing.

Being In the Garden with Heisey is the perfect way to begin your summer!

Heisey Collectors of America Convention

June 13-15, 2024

Be Part of the Excitement for Convention 2024!

CONVENTION VOLUNTEERS NEEDED!

Excitement is building for the 2024 Heisey Convention June 13 through 15, which returns to the downtown Newark area for the first time in many years. Share in the excitement by volunteering to help with one or more tasks needed to make In the Heisey Garden a great experience for all.

You do not need Heisey expertise, just enthusiasm and interest. Before the convention, volunteers are needed to garner support from local businesses, put up signs, generate publicity and interest, assemble gift bags, and more.

A convention highlight this year is the new venue for the Glass Show and Sale – The Skylight. With its marble pillars and enormous windows, this elegant event space in Newark’s historic post office building is the perfect place to showcase Heisey glass. (Think of the many shipments of glass that moved through this facility during the heyday of Heisey production!) What a fun place to volunteer! There we will need help assisting dealers as they arrive, organizing tables and chairs, greeting attendees and selling tickets, and greeting visitors to the table displays.

Other convention tasks include assisting with the silent and live auctions, mentoring first time convention attendees, serving refreshments at the museum, and more.

Creating an enjoyable, smooth and successful convention requires many volunteers. Over the years, HCA members have given generously of their time to make this happen. If you have been part of this tradition, thank you! We hope you can help again. If you are new to convention volunteering, welcome aboard! We need you! To volunteer, please contact Julie Goletz at Goletzjr@gmail.com.

In The Heisey Garden

Just beyond the gates there's an enchanted garden abundant with the beauty of Heisey. Timeless patterns, etchings and colors that come together to celebrate special moments spent In the Heisey Garden.

It's not too early to begin planning your table display for the HCA 2024 Convention!

The garden theme of the convention provides untold opportunities for individual collectors and study clubs to showcase their collection: a romantic garden picnic, beautiful baskets, vases and floral bowls displaying new blooms, garden fragrances captured in delicate cologne bottles, a formal dinner al fresco, a moonlight rendezvous, etc. The possibilities are endless!

Tables are available in 48" round; or 6' and 8' rectangles.

Tables inspire collectors and those attending the glass show to enjoy, learn and hopefully become enthusiastic new members of HCA.

Please contact us to reserve your spot In the Heisey Garden or to answer questions you may have.

HEISEY STUDY CLUB NEWS - North Carolina

North Carolina Heisey Study Club News

Submitted by Robert Moreno

The North Carolina Heisey Study Club held its every other month meeting, Saturday, March 9, at Replacements, Ltd. in Greensboro, North Carolina. Nineteen members and six guests attended this meeting. Our guests included Sid and Mary Edwards, Lynn and Margaret Baggett, and Kim and Pam Carlisle.

North Carolina Heisey Study Club president Chris Gallagher started the meeting. There was a discussion of the vase which will be named after Virginia Perva, who has passed in 2023. The vase comes in three styles, Nos. 516-1, 516-2, and 516-3 and all three styles are named as Virginia Perva Vases.

Report from HCA included information on the upcoming auctions which will take place in April 2024. The HCA board is planning to work with a search firm to fill the vacant director position. Ed Perva has made a decision to sell his extensive and beautiful candlestick collection. Jeffrey S. Evans auction house out of Virginia will be handling the sale of this collection. HCA has informed the study club that one-half page space in the Heisey News will be available for any HCA study club to use annually.

Show and Tell included six Ridgeleigh goblets, No. 1469.

The program was presented by Chris Gallagher. Chris gave a detailed discussion on jugs, pitchers and tankards. Heisey initially made half pint creamers in several patterns until 1910. The creamers held cream for breakfast cereals. Sometimes they were called "creamers half pint" or "tankards half pint." Heisey made various souvenir creamers and named and dated them whatever the person wanted. These are early patterns and are hard to find.

Heisey used jugs, pitchers and tankards interchangeably from one pattern to another. A pitcher defined as a jug was most often used for water and came in a matching set with six or 12 water tumblers. The three common shapes are conventional, squat, and tankard. A tankard held a quart, and a smaller one was called a mug.

Lively discussion during lunch

Derek Smith showing a photo of the three Virginia Perva-named vases

There were several jugs, pitchers and tankards shown. Among them were:

- Punty and Diamond Point No. 305 jug
- Prince of Wales, Plumes No. 335 ½ gallon pitcher
- Wing Scroll, No. 1280 ½ gallon pitcher Emerald and gold trim

- Daisey and Leaves No. 427 ½ gallon jug

HEISEY STUDY CLUB NEWS - Great Plains

Great Plains Heisey Club News

Submitted by Kathy Files, Secretary

Such a joy to meet for the first time in 2024 at the lovely home of Donna and Ron Nyght in Shawnee, Kansas. Following a delicious barbecue lunch, our 21 attendees settled down for our meeting. President John Mock welcomed our newest members, Ann and Dennis Hall, from Topeka, Kansas. The secretary's report was approved and a treasury update was given.

Our current officers were elected to serve another year plus Eric Tankesley-Clarke will continue as program director and Jennie Bragg retains her position as raffle box coordinator.

Several of our members plan to attend the spring auction in Newark and will help with the work involved for a successful event. Convention plans were discussed also.

Trudy Mock used her "Martha's Moment" to show how Scrabble tiles can be used in our Heisey displays. Spelling out a pattern or dealer name or other phrases can easily be done with the tiles and looks very chic.

The raffle was won by Bucky Will - a first for her even though she's a regular big-ticket buyer.

Eric's program based on new finds from his extensive research times in the Heisey museum archives was sensational! There were mold drawings we had not seen and rubbings from previously unpublished etchings. Examples filled half of a pool table and Eric led us through his wonderful hand-out. Thank you, Eric, for sharing your studies and conclusions and giving us some mysteries to think about.

Show and Tell was extensive based on members' winter finds: Ann and Dennis, Duck ashtray/Moongleam; Trudy and John, Empress No. 135 floral bowl/Sahara; Ryon and James, Empress No. 1401 floral bowl/Sahara; Donna, Pineapple and Fan vase/Vaseline with Opalescent rim; Eric, Plateau jug/Flamingo and Flat Panel cigar jar/Moongleam; Bucky, Bull/H and Puritan cake salver; Janet, Punt and Diamond Point punch bowl; Kathy and Tom, Fairacre wine/Cleopatra etching; Chris and Lehi, Fairacre footed and handled ice teas/Moongleam stem and foot; Jean, Aqua Caliente/Tally Ho etching.

Nothing like Kansas City barbeque for lunch

Eric showing Osiris etching on Hepplewhite candlestick

Show and tell

Some of Donna Nyght's collection

A spirited 50/50 auction of donated pieces was held. The top sellers were a pair of Ridgeleigh candlevases in Sahara donated by Pat and Rex. And Jean's jams and jellies are always smash hits.

It was announced our next meeting will be in Lindsborg, Kansas on May 11.

Adjournment sent us all to enjoy Donna's desserts. Lucky us! Donna loves to bake, and we were convinced she's very skilled with cakes, cookies and dessert bars. Thank you, Donna and Ron, for hosting and making a special day for our Great Plains club meeting. It was a good day at the Nyghts'.

My First Heisey
by Robyn Trower
Gaithersburg, Maryland

In the mid-1970s, my parents took a day trip to St. Michaels, Maryland. St. Michaels is on the eastern shore of Maryland, not far over the Chesapeake Bay Bridge. (We lived an equal distance from the bridge on the west side.

After walking around some of the town, my parents went into an antique store. My mother saw a set of dessert plates (Cross Lined Flute) she liked and bought them for me for my upcoming birthday. We had never heard of Heisey at that time. The store owner told her about Heisey and that started our years of seeking out Heisey wherever we went. Over the ensuing years I filled a china closet full of lovely glass.

The author's first Heisey, bequeathed to him by his mother in the late 1970s: his grandmother's beautiful 12" Ridgeleigh celery and olive tray

But, a few years after that first gift of dessert plates, as I was learning about the different patterns, I realized those plates were not my first Heisey acquisition. For most of my life, on Thanksgiving and Christmas, my mother would get out a relish dish for the dining table that belonged to her grandmother, a dish my mother then gave to me in the late 1970s. It turned out that it was Heisey, in the Ridgeleigh pattern. Granny's relish dish was the 12" celery and olive tray!

My great-grandparents never had much in their lives, but I get a kick out of the thought of them using Heisey. I have no idea when or how they got their piece of Heisey, and it will remain a mystery. I've been selling off bits and pieces of my Heisey in the last few years at Heisey auctions, but the celery and olive tray will stay with me as long as possible – and eventually go to my younger cousin so it can stay in our family.

In Fond Memory

In Memory of Virginia Johnson

Virginia Mathiasen Johnson, who together with her husband established Heisey study clubs in Florida and Minnesota, died Feb. 18, 2024, at her home in Bloomington, Minnesota, at the age of 103. A native of Iowa, Virginia graduated from the American Institute of Business in Des Moines, Iowa, and worked as a secretary before marrying Odell Hoiekvan Johnson in 1942 and until their daughter Margaret Ann was born.

Virginia and Odell started collecting Heisey glass in 1971 when they stopped at an Iowa antique store owned by a friend of Odell and bought two tumblers. At $7 each, they thought the price was quite high and were told it was “because they are Heisey glass, quality glass.” Thus began their extensive collection of No. 1404 Old Sandwich in Sahara. They also collected Heisey animals and champagnes. In a 2018 interview, Virginia said she and Odell had a good time with Heisey glass, which they loved because it was “high quality, polished so beautifully...elegant glass with an elegant quality.” The Johnsons bought and sold Heisey for a number of years, were active in their study clubs and HCA, and Odell served on the HCA board of directors.

They lived in Georgia, Florida, and Illinois before moving to Bradenton, Florida, when Odell retired from his career as an airline pilot. Their final move was to Bloomington, Minnesota, to be nearer their daughter.

Virginia lived independently until mid-January and remained mentally sharp. A photograph of her turning a cartwheel was displayed at her service and guests learned through her eulogy that Virginia turned a cartwheel every year on her birthday through age 70!

If you know of a HCA member who has passed away, please forward all pertinent information to: membership@heiseymuseum.org. Thank you.

The New Diana Goblet

CHARACTERISTIC of all blown stemware bearing the Heisey hall-mark is this new creation possessing not only amazing brilliance and beauty but the clear, ringing tone that is distinctly a Heisey attribute. Replete in the charm of the Jacobean period, it is embellished in a beautiful two-tone etching featuring the exploits of the famous allegorical heroine Diana.
